1 And it came about after Saul's death and when David himself had returned from striking down the A·mal'ek·ites[a][*] that David continued to dwell at Zik'lag[□] two days. [2] And it came about on the third day that there a man[△] was coming from the camp, from Saul, with his clothes ripped apart[◊] and dirt[+] upon his head;[○] and it came about that when he came to David he at once fell down to the earth[⊖] and prostrated himself.

3 And David proceeded to say to him: "Where do you come from?" at which he said to him: "From the camp[⊙] of Israel I have escaped."[#] [4] And David went on to say to him: "How did the affair turn out?[k] Tell me, please." To this he said: "The people have fled from the battle and also many of the people have fallen so that they died,[n] and even Saul[r] and Jon'a·than[s] his son have died." [5] Then David said to the young man that was telling him: "How do you really know that Saul has died and also Jon'a·than his son?"[t] [6] At this the young man that was telling him said: "I unexpectedly chanced to be on Mount Gil·bo'a,[u] and there was Saul supporting himself upon his spear,[v] and, look! the charioteers[b] and the mounted men had caught up with [14] Finally Ab′ner said to Jo′ab: "Let the young men rise up, please, and let them put on a combat before us."[#] To this Jo′ab said: "Let them rise up." 24 And Jo′ab and A·bish′ai went chasing after Ab′ner. As the sun was setting they themselves came to the hill of Am′mah, which is in front of Gi′ah on the way to the wilderness of Gib′e·on.[#] [25] And the sons of Benjamin[©] went collecting together behind Ab′ner, and they came to be one company and kept standing upon the top of one hill. kept walking with her, weeping[*] as he walked after her as far as Ba·hu'rim.[#] Then Ab'ner said to him: "Go, return!" At that he returned.

17 Meanwhile there had come to be communication by Ab'ner with the older men of Israel, saying: "Both yesterday and previously[k] YOU proved yourselves seeking David as king over YOU. [18] And now act, for Jehovah himself said[n] to David, 'By the hand of David[r] my servant I shall save my people Israel from the hand of the Phi·lis'tines and from the hand of all their enemies.'" [19] Then Ab'ner also spoke in the ears of Benjamin,[s] after which Ab'ner also went to speak in the ears of David at He'bron all that was good in the eyes of Israel and in the eyes of the whole house of Benjamin.

20 When Ab'ner came to David at He'bron, and with him twenty men, David proceeded to make a feast[○] for Ab'ner and for the men that were with him.[t] [21] Then Ab'ner said to David: "Let me rise up and go and collect all Israel together to my lord the king, that they may conclude a covenant with you, and you will certainly become king over all that your soul craves."[u] So David sent Ab'ner off and he got on his way in peace.

22 And here David's servants and Jo'ab were coming from a raid and the spoil[v] that they brought with them was great. As for Ab'ner, he was not with David in He'bron, for he had sent him off and he was on his way in peace. [23] And Jo'ab and all the army that was with him came in, and they now reported to Jo'ab,[y] saying: "Ab'ner[z] the son of Ner[•] came to the king, and he proceeded to send him off and he is on his way in peace." [24] So Jo'ab went in to the king and said: "What have you done?[□] Look! Ab'ner has come to you. Why was it that you sent him off so that he successfully went away?[a] [25] You well know Ab'ner the son of Ner,[a] that it was to fool you that he came and to get to know your going out and your coming in and to get to know everything that you are doing."[△]

26 With that Jo'ab went out from David and sent messengers after Ab'ner, and they then had him return from the cistern of Si'rah; and David himself did not know of it. [27] When Ab'ner returned to He'bron,[⊛] Jo'ab now led him aside inside the gate to speak with him quietly.[*] However, there he struck him in the abdomen[#] so that he died because of the blood of As'a·hel[k] his brother. [28] When David heard of it afterward, he at once said: "I and my kingdom, from the standpoint of Jehovah, are innocent[n] forever of bloodguilt[b][r] for Ab'ner the son of Ner. [29] May it whirl back upon the head[s] of Jo'ab and upon the entire house of his father, and let[t] there not be cut off from Jo'ab's house a man with a running discharge[u] or a leper[○][v] or a man taking hold of the twirling spindle[y] or one falling by the sword or one in need of bread!" [30] As for Jo'ab and A·bish'ai[z] his brother, they killed Ab'ner[•] over the fact that he had put As'a·hel their brother to death at Gib'e·on in the battle.[□]

31 Then David said to Jo'ab and all the people that were with him: "Rip YOUR clothes apart[△] and tie on sackcloth[◎][◊] and wail before Ab'ner." Even King David was walking behind the couch.[•] [32] And they had the burial of Ab'ner

Like everything that the king did it was in the eyes of all the people good.[t] [37] And all the people and all Israel got to know on that day that it had not originated with the king to have Ab′ner[u] the son of Ner put to death. [3] And the Be·er′oth·ites went running away[r] to Git′ta·im,[s] and they came to be temporary residents there down to this day.

4 Now Jon′a·than,[t] Saul's son, had a son lame in the feet. Five years old he happened to be when the report about Saul and Jon′a·than came from Jez′re·el,[u] and his nurse began to carry him and flee, but it came about that as she was running in panic to flee he then had a fall and was lamed. [a] "Over Israel," MSyVg; "over Israel as a whole," LXX.

[5] In He′bron he ruled as king over Judah for seven years[u] and six months, and in Jerusalem[○] he ruled as king for thirty-three years over all Israel and Judah. [6] Consequently the king and his men went to Jerusalem[v] against the Jeb′u·sites[y] inhabiting the land, and they began to say to David: "You will not come in here, but the blind[◎] and the lame ones will certainly turn you away," they thinking: "David will not come in here." [7] Just the same, David proceeded to capture the stronghold of Zion,[z] that is, the city[○] of David.[*] [8] So David said on that day: "Anyone striking the Jeb′u·sites, let him,[□] by means of the water tunnel,[△] make contact with both the lame and the blind, hateful to the soul of David!" That is why they say: "The blind one and the lame one will not come into the house." [9] And David took up dwelling in the stronghold, and it came to be called the city of David, and David began to build all around from the Mound[a◊] and inward. [10] Thus David went on getting greater and greater,[+] and Jehovah[◎] the God of armies[b] was with him.[⊕]

11 And Hi′ram[×] the king of Tyre proceeded to send messengers[○] to David, and also cedar trees[◎] and workers in wood and workers in stone for a wall, and they began to build a house for David.[#] [12] And David came to know that Jehovah had firmly established him as king over Israel[k] and that he had exalted his kingdom for the sake of his people Israel.[n]

13 Meantime, David went on taking more concubines[r] and wives[○] out of Jerusalem after he came from He′bron, and more sons and daughters continued to be born to David. [14] And these hovah with all his power, all the while David being girded with an eph′od[×] of linen. [15] And David and all the house of Israel were bringing up the ark[#] of Jehovah with joyful shouting[k] and trumpet[n] sound. [16] And it occurred that when the ark of Jehovah came into the city of David Mi′chal,[r] Saul's daughter, herself looked down through the window[©] and got to see King David leaping and dancing around before Jehovah and she began to despise[s] him in her heart.[○] [17] So they brought the ark of Jehovah in and set it in its place inside the tent that David had pitched for it,[t] after which David offered up burnt sacrifices[u] and communion offerings[v] before Jehovah. [18] When David was finished with offering up the burnt sacrifices and the communion offerings, he then blessed[y] the people in the name of Jehovah of armies.[z] [19] Further, he apportioned to all the people, to the whole crowd of Israel, man as well as woman, to each one a ring-shaped cake of bread and a date cake and a raisin cake, after which all the people went each to his own house.[*]

20 David now returned to bless his own household,[□] and Mi′chal, Saul's daughter, came on out to meet David and then said: "How glorious the king of Israel made himself today[△] when he uncovered himself today to the eyes[©] of the slave girls of his servants just as one of the empty-headed men[a][◊] uncovers himself outright!" [21] At this David said to Mi′chal: "It was before Jehovah, who[b] chose me rather than your father[•] and all his household to put me in command as leader over Jehovah's people Israel,

Me·phib'o·sheth himself was dwelling in Jerusalem, for it was constantly at the table of the king that he was eating,[◊] and he was lame[+] in both of his feet.

10 And it came about afterward that the king of the sons of Am'mon[⊕] came to die and Ha'nun his son began to reign instead of him.[×] [2] At this David said: "I shall exercise loving-kindness[a] toward Ha'nun the son of Na'hash,[k] just as his father exercised loving-kindness[a] toward me." Accordingly David sent by means of his servants to comfort[○] him over his father, and the servants of David proceeded to come into the land of the sons of Am'mon.
[3] However, the princes of the sons of Am'mon said to Ha'nun their lord:[b] "Is David honoring your father in your eyes in that he has sent to you comforters? Is it not for the sake of searching through the city[c] and to spy[n] it out and to overthrow it that David has sent his servants to you?"[r] [4] So Ha'nun took the servants of David and shaved off half their beards[s] and cut their garments in half to their buttocks[t] and sent them away.[u] [5] Later people reported it to David and he at once sent to meet them, because the men had come to feeling very humiliated, and the king went on to say: "Dwell in Jer'i·cho[⊚][v] until YOUR beards grow abundantly.
Then YOU must return."

6 In time the sons of Am'mon saw that they had become foul-smelling[y] to David, and the sons of Am'mon proceeded to send and hire Syrians of Beth-re'hob[z] and Syrians of Zo'bah,[*]

15 When the Syrians saw that they had been defeated before Israel, they proceeded to gather[z] themselves together. [16] So Had·ad·e′zer[*] sent and brought out the Syrians[□] that were in the region of the River,[△] and then they came to He′lam,[a] with Sho′bach[◊] the chief of the army of Had·ad·e′zer before them. [17] When the report was made to David he immediately gathered all Israel and crossed the Jordan and came to He′lam. The Syrians now drew up in formation to meet David and began to fight against him.[+] [18] And the Syrians took to flight[⊕] because of Israel, and David got to kill of the Syrians seven hundred charioteers[×] and forty thousand horsemen[#] and Sho′bach the chief[k] of their army he struck down so that he died there. [19] When all the kings,[n] the servants of Had·ad·e′zer, saw that they had been defeated before Israel, they promptly made peace with Israel and began to serve them, and the Syrians were afraid to try saving the sons of Am′mon any more.[r]

11 And it came about at the return of the year,[b][s] at the time that kings sally forth,[t] that David proceeded to send Jo′ab and his servants with him and all Israel, that they might bring the sons of Am′mon to ruin[u] and lay siege to Rab′bah,[v] while David was dwelling in Jerusalem.

2 And it came about at the time of evening[⊙] that David proceeded to rise from his bed and walk about on the rooftop[y] of the king's house,[○] and from the rooftop he caught sight[z] of a woman bathing herself,[c] and the woman was very good in appearance.[*] [3] Then David sent and inquired about the woman[□] and someone said: "Is this not Bath-she′ba[△] the daughter of E·li′am[a][◊] the wife[⊙] of U·ri′ah[+] the Hit′tite?"[⊕] [4] After that David sent messengers that he might take her. So she came in to him and he cohabited[×] with her, while she was sanctifying herself from her uncleanness.[#] Later she returned to her house.

5 And the woman became pregnant.[○][k] Consequently she sent and told David and said: "I am pregnant."[n] [6] At this David sent to Jo′ab, saying: "Send to me[r] U·ri′ah the Hit′tite." So Jo′ab sent U·ri′ah to David. [7] When U·ri′ah came to him, David began to ask how Jo′ab was getting along and how the people were getting along and how the war was getting along. [8] Finally David said to U·ri′ah: "Go down to your house and bathe your feet."[u] Accordingly U·ri′ah went out from the king's house and the king's courtesy gift[b] went out following him.[v] [9] However, U·ri′ah lay down at the entrance of the king's house with all the other servants of his lord,[c] and he did not go down to his own house.[y] [10] So they told David, saying: "U·ri′ah did not go down to his own house." Upon that David said to U·ri′ah: "It is from a journey that you have come in, is it not? Why have you not gone down to your own house?" [11] At this U·ri′ah said to David: "The Ark[z] and Israel and Judah are dwelling in booths[*] and my lord Jo′ab and the servants of my lord[□] are camping on the face of the field[△] and I—shall I go into my own

12 Then David said to U·ri′ah: "Dwell here also today, and tomorrow I shall send you away." Therefore U·ri′ah kept dwelling in Jerusalem on that day and the day following. But here the Jewish Sopherim (scribes) made one of their Eighteen Emendations, out of mistaken respect for Jehovah particularly and for David, and inserted the expression "the enemies of" before "Jehovah," to make M read: "treated the enemies of Jehovah with disrespect." See Genesis 18: 22, footnote a. Also compare 1 Samuel 25: 22, footnote b. [b] "The [true] God." M, ha-El·o·him′, with the definite article ha ("The") before the title El·o·him′ for emphasis. went on a strict fast and came in and spent the night and lay down on the earth.[t] [17] So the older men of his house stood up over him to raise him up from the earth and he did not consent and did not take bread in company with them.[u] [18] And it came about on the seventh day that the child[◎] gradually died. And the servants of David were afraid to tell him that the child had died, for they said: "Look! while the child continued alive we did speak to him and he did not listen to our voice, so how can we say to him, 'The child has died'? Then he will certainly do something bad."

19 When David got to see that his servants were whispering together, David began to discern that the child had died. So David said to his servants: "Has the child died?" To this they said: "He has died." [20] Then David got up from the earth[v] and washed and rubbed[y] himself with oil and changed his garments and came to the house[*] of Jehovah[○] and prostrated[□] himself, after which he came into his own house and asked and they promptly set bread before him and he began to eat.[Δ] [21] Consequently his servants said to him: "What does this thing mean that you have done? For the sake of the child while alive you fasted and kept weeping, and just as soon as the child had died you got up and began to eat bread." [22] To this he said: "While the child was yet alive I did fast[+] and I kept weeping,[⊕] because I said to myself, 'Who is there knowing whether Jehovah may show me favor and the child will certainly live?'[×] [23] Now that he has died, why is it I am fasting? 13 And it came about after such things that Ab′sa·lom[#] the son of David had a beautiful[k] sister whose name was Ta′mar,[n] and Am′non[r] the son of David fell in love[s] with her. [2] And it was so distressing[t] to Am′non that he felt sick[u] on account of Ta′mar his sister, because she was a virgin,[⊙][v] and it was difficult in the eyes of Am′non to do anything at all to her. 10 Am′non now said to Ta′mar: "Bring the bread of consolation to the interior room, that I may take it as a patient from your hand." So Ta′mar took the heart-shaped cakes that she had made and brought them in to Am′non her brother in the interior room. [23] With that Jo'ab rose up and went to Gesh'ur[⊕] and brought Ab'sa·lom[×] to Jerusalem. [24] However, the king said: "Let him turn toward his own house, but my face he may not see."[#] So Ab'sa·lom turned toward his own house, and the face of the king he did not see.

25 Now compared with Ab'sa·lom there proved to be no man so beautiful[k] in all Israel as to be praised so much. From the sole[n] of his foot to the crown of his head there proved to be no defect in him. 28 And Ab'sa·lom continued dwelling in Jerusalem for two full years, and the face of the king he did not see.[v] [29] So Ab'sa·lom sent for Jo'ab to send him to the king, and he did not consent to come to him. Then he sent again, a second time, and he did not consent to come. [30] Finally he said to his servants: "See Jo'ab's tract of land beside mine and there he has barley. Go and set it ablaze with fire."[□][z] Accordingly the servants of Ab'sa·lom set the tract of land ablaze with fire.[*] [31] At this Jo'ab rose up

[a] Literally, "a man of bloods," M. [b] Or, "good-for-nothing man." Literally, "man of Be′li·al." [c] Literally, "What [is there] to me and to YOU men?" See Joshua 22:24, footnote b, and Judges 11:12, footnote a. [d] This is according to the Qerē, or marginal reading, of M. "In case he calls down evil and in case Jehovah has said to him, 'Call down evil upon David!' who, then?" M. [e] "With his eye" is the reading of the original text, but the Sopherim made one of their Eighteen Emendations here to make it read "on my error," that is, on the error committed against me. LXXVgSy, "on my affliction." 14 At length the king and all the people that were with him arrived tired. So they refreshed themselves there.

15 As for Ab'sa·lom and all the people, the men of Israel, they entered Jerusalem,[◊] and A·hith'o·phel[+] was with him. [16] And it came about that, as soon as Hu'shai[⊕] the Ar'chite,[×] David's companion,[#] came in to Ab'sa·lom, Hu'shai proceeded to say to Ab'sa·lom: "Let the king live![k] Let the king live!" [17] At this Ab'sa·lom said to Hu'shai: "This is the loving-kindness[a] of yours toward your companion, is it? Why did you not go with your companion?"[n] [18] So Hu'shai said to Ab'sa·lom: "No, but the one whom Jehovah has chosen[r] and also this people and all the men of Israel, his I shall become[b] and with him I shall dwell. [19] And for the second time [I must say], Whom shall I myself serve? Is it not before his son? Just as I served before your father, so I shall prove to be[c] before you."[s]

20 Later Ab'sa·lom said to A·hith'o·phel: "You men, give counsel[t] on YOUR part. What shall we do?" [21] Then A·hith'o·phel said to Ab'sa·lom: "Have relations[u] with the concubines[v] of your father,[y] whom he left behind to take care of the house. Then all Israel will certainly [22] Accordingly they pitched a tent for Ab'sa·lom upon the roof[△] and Ab'sa·lom began to have relations with the concubines of his father[+] under the eyes[⊕] of all Israel.

23 And the counsel of A·hith'o·phel, with which he counseled in those days, was just as when a man[a] would inquire[×] of the word of The [true] God.[b] That was the way all the counsel[#] of A·hith'o·phel[k] was both to David and to Ab'sa·lom.

17 And A·hith'o·phel proceeded to say to Ab'sa·lom: "Let me choose, please, twelve thousand men and rise up and chase after David tonight.[n] [2] And I shall come upon him when he is weary[r] and feeble in both hands, and I shall certainly drive him into trembling, and all the people that are with him will have to flee, and I shall certainly strike down the king[s] by himself. [a] "A man." Only the vowel point for this expression appears in M, but the expression appears in about 30 Hebrew manuscripts. In M this is a Qerê wᵉlo kᵉthib. See Judges 20:13, footnote c. [b] "The [true] God." M, ha-El·o·him', the definite article ha ("The") preceding the title El·o·him' doubtless for emphasis. Here is the first occurrence of this expression "the word of The [true] God." Many translators take "word" (da·bar') here to be equivalent to "innermost room" (dᵉbir) at 1 Kings 6:5, etc. [c] Possibly, due to a copyist's oversight, the passage is to be read: "Let me bring all the people back to you just as the bride returns to her husband. It is only the soul of one man that you are seeking, and all the people will themselves come to be at peace." This agrees with LXX.

and in the eyes of all the older men of Israel.

5 However, Ab'sa·lom said: "Call, please, Hu'shai[y] the Ar'chite also and let us hear what is in his mouth, his too." [6] So Hu'shai came in to Ab'sa·lom. Then Ab'sa·lom said to him: "According to this word is the way A·hith'o·phel spoke. Shall we act upon his word? If not, you yourself speak." [7] At this Hu'shai said to Ab'sa·lom: "The counsel with which A·hith'o·phel has counseled is not good[z] in this instance!"

8 And Hu'shai went on to say: "You yourself well know your father and the men of his, that they are mighty[*] and they are bitter of soul,[□] like a female bear[△] that has lost her cubs in the field, and your father[◊] is a warrior and he will not spend the night with the people. [9] Look! now he himself has taken concealment[+] in one of the hollows or in one of the other places, and it will certainly occur that, just as soon as he falls upon them at the start, then the one hearing of it will be bound to hear and say, 'A defeat[⊕] has taken place among the people that are following Ab'sa·lom!' [10] And even the valiant man whose heart is as the heart[×] of the lion[a][⊙] will himself surely soften in weakness,[#] for all Israel is aware that your father is a mighty man[k] and so, too, are the valiant men that are with him. [11] I myself do say in counsel: Let all Israel without fail be gathered to you, from Dan to Be'er-she'ba,[n] as the sand particles[r] that are by the sea[○] for multitude,[⊙] with your own person[b][s] walking in among them.[c] [12] Then we must come

14 Then Ab'sa·lom and all the men of Israel said: "The counsel of Hu'shai the Ar'chite is better than the counsel of A·hith'o·phel!" And Jehovah[○] himself[z] had given orders[*] to frustrate[□] the counsel of A·hith'o·phel although good,[△] in order that Jehovah might bring calamity upon Ab'sa·lom.

15 Later Hu'shai said to Za'dok[◊] and A·bi'a·thar the priests: "This and that was the way that A·hith'o·phel counseled Ab'sa·lom and the older men of Israel, and this and that was the way that I myself counseled. "[a]

17 As Jon'a·than[×] and A·him'a·az[#] were standing at En-ro'gel,[k] a maidservant went off and told them. So they themselves went off, as they had to tell King David, for they were not able to appear entering the city. [18] However, a young man got to see them and told Ab'sa·lom. house of a man in Ba·hu'rim,[n] who had a well[⊕] in his courtyard,[○] and they went down into it. [19] After that the woman took and spread out a covering over the face of the well and heaped up cracked grain upon it,[r] and not a thing became known of it.[s] [20] The servants of Ab'sa·lom now came to the woman at her house and said: "Where are A·him'a·az and Jon'a·than?" At this the woman said to them: "They passed on from here to the waters."[t] Then they kept on searching, and they did not find them[u] and so returned to Jerusalem.

21 And it came about after their going away that then they came up out of the well and went on and told King David and said to David: "YOU people, rise up and speedily pass over the waters, for this is the way that A·hith'o·phel[v] counseled against YOU." [22] Immediately David rose up and also all the people that were with him and they kept crossing the Jordan until the morning became light,[y] until not a one was lacking[z] that had not passed over the Jordan.

23 As for A·hith'o·phel, he saw[*] that his counsel had not been acted upon and he proceeded to saddle an ass and rise up and go off to his house at his own city.[□] Then he gave orders to his household[△] and strangled[◊] himself[a] and thus died.[+] So he was buried in the burial place of his forefathers.

24 As for David, he came to Ma·ha·na'im,[⊕] and Ab'sa·lom himself crossed the Jordan, he and all the men of Israel with him. [25] And A·ma'sa[×] was the one whom Ab'sa·lom put in the place of Jo'ab[#] over the army, and A·ma'sa was the son of a man whose name was Ith'ra[k] said to the man who was telling him: "And here you saw it, and why did you not strike him down to the earth there? Then it would have been my obligation to give you ten pieces of silver and a belt."[◊] 12 But the man said to Jo′ab: "And although I were weighing upon my palms a thousand pieces of silver, I should not thrust my hand out against the king's son, for in our hearing[a] it was that the king commanded you and A·bish′ai and It′tai, saying, 'Watch over the young man Ab′sa·lom for my sake.'[+] 13 Otherwise I should have dealt treacherously against his soul and the whole matter itself would not be hidden from the king[⊚] and you yourself would take a position off on the side."[×] 14 To this Jo′ab said: "Let me not hold myself up this way before you!" With that he took three shafts[b] in his palm and proceeded to drive[#] them through the heart of Ab′sa·lom while he was yet alive in the heart[k] of the big tree. 15 Then ten attendants[n] carrying Jo′ab's weapons came around and struck Ab′sa·lom, that they might put him to death. 16 Jo′ab now blew the trumpet,[r] that the people might return from chasing after Israel, for Jo′ab had held back the people. 17 Finally they took Ab′sa·lom and pitched him in the forest into a big hollow and raised up over him a very big pile of stones.[#] As for all Israel, they fled each man to his home.[c]

18 Now Ab′sa·lom himself, while he was alive, had taken and proceeded to raise up for himself a pillar,[t] which is in the Low Plain of the King,[u] for he said: "I have no son in order to keep my name in remembrance."[v] So he called the pillar by his own name,[y] and it continues to be called Ab'sa·lom's Monument down to this day.

19 Now as regards A·him'a·az[z] the son of Za'dok, he said: "Let me run, please, and break the news to the king, because Jehovah has judged[○] him [to free him] from the hand of his enemies."[*] [20] But Jo'ab said to him: "You are not a man of news this day,[□] and you must break the news on another day, but this day you must not break the news for the very reason that[a] the king's own son has died."[△] [21] Then Jo'ab said to the Cush'ite:[◊] "Go, tell the king what you have seen." At that the Cush'ite bowed to Jo'ab and began to run. [22] A·him'a·az[+] the son of Za'dok now said once again to Jo'ab: "Let, now, happen whatever will, let me also myself, please, run behind the Cush'ite." However, Jo'ab said: "Why is it that you yourself have to run, my son, when there is no news being found for you?" [23] [Still he said:][b] "Let, now, happen whatever will, let me run." So he said to him: "Run!" And A·him'a·az began to run by the way of the District,[c][⊚] and he eventually passed by the Cush'ite.

24 Now David was sitting between the two gates.[#] Meantime, the watchman[k] went to the roof of the gate by the wall. At length he raised his eyes and saw and, look! there was a man running by himself. [25] So the watchman called and told the king, at which the king said: "If he is by himself, there is news in his mouth."

[a] "The very reason that." The Hebrew text is vowel-pointed here to read, literally, "that is why" ('al ken), although the second Hebrew word is missing in M, but appears in some Hebrew manuscripts. This is one of the Qerë wᵉlo kᵉthib. See 2 Samuel 16 : 23, footnote a. [b] "Still he said:" *LXX*VgSy. [c] Or, "Basin." See Genesis 13 : 10, footnote b.

And he kept coming, steadily getting nearer. [26] The watchman now saw another man running. The watchman therefore called to the gatekeeper and said: "Look! another man running by himself!" at which the king said: "This one also is a news bearer." [27] And the watchman went on to say: "I am seeing that the running style of the first is like the running style of A·him'a·az[n] the son of Za'dok," at which the king said: "This is a good man,[r] and with good news[s] he should come." [28] Eventually A·him'a·az called and said to the king: "It is well!"[a] With that he bowed to the king with his face to the earth. And he went on to say: "Blessed[t] be Jehovah your God, who has surrendered[u] the men that lifted up their hand against my lord the king!"

29 However, the king said: "Is it well with the young man Ab'sa·lom?" To this A·him'a·az said: "I saw the great crowd at the time Jo'ab sent the king's servant and your servant, and I did not know what it was."[v] [30] So the king said: "Step aside, take your position here." At that he stepped aside and kept standing still.

31 And here was the Cush'ite[y] coming in, and the Cush'ite began to say: "Let my lord the king accept news, for Jehovah has judged you today [to free you] from the hand of all those rising up against you."[z] [32] But the king said to the Cush'ite: "Is it well with the young man Ab'sa·lom?" To this the Cush'ite said: "May the enemies of my lord the king and all those who rose up against you for evil become as the young man."[b][*]

[a] "It is well!" Literally, "Peace!" M. Compare verses 29, 32. [b] In the Hebrew text chapter 18 ends here.

33 Then the king became disturbed and went up to the roof chamber[□] over the gateway and gave way to weeping, and this is what he said as he walked: "My son Ab'sa·lom, my son, my son[△] Ab'sa·lom! Oh that I might have died, I myself, instead of you, Ab'sa·lom my son, my son!"[◊]

19 Later it was reported to Jo'ab: "Look! the king is weeping and he carries on mourning over Ab'sa·lom."[+] [2] So the salvation on that day came to be an occasion of mourning on the part of all the people, because the people heard say on that day: "The king has felt hurt over his son."[⊕] [3] And the people began to steal away on that day to come into the city,[×] just as the people would steal[#] away when they felt disgraced because they fled in the battle. [4] And the king himself covered up his face[k] and the king continued crying out with a loud voice:[n] "My son Ab'sa·lom! Ab'sa·lom my son, my son!"[r]

5 Finally Jo'ab came in to the king at the house and said: "You have today put to shame the face of all your servants, the ones providing escape for your soul today[s] and for the soul of your sons[t] and your daughters[u] and the soul of your wives[v] and the soul of your concubines,[y] [6] by loving those hating you and by hating those loving you, for you have reported today that princes and servants are nothing to you, because I well know today that if only Ab'sa·lom were alive and all of us others were today dead, why, in that case it would be right in your eyes.[z] [7] And now rise up, go out and speak straight to the heart[*] of your servants, because, by Jehovah, I do swear that, in case you are not going out, not a man will lodge with you tonight,[=] and

And all the people began to come before the king. As for Israel,[⊕] they had fled each one to his home.[a]

9 And all the people came to be involved in dispute[×] in all the tribes of Israel, saying: "It was the king that delivered us out of the palm of our enemies[#] and he it was that provided escape for us out of the palm of the Phi·lis'tines, and now he has run away out of the land from Ab'sa·lom.[k] [10] As for Ab'sa·lom, whom we anointed over us,[n] he has died in the battle.[r] So now why are YOU doing nothing[s] to bring the king back?"

11 As for King David, he sent to Za'dok[t] and A·bi'a·thar[u] the priests, saying: "Speak to the older men of Judah,[v] saying, 'Why should YOU become the last ones to bring the king back to his house, when the word of all Israel itself has come to the king at his house? 14 And he proceeded to bend the heart of all the men of Judah as one man,[△] so that they sent word to the king: "Come back, you and all your servants."

15 And the king began to go back and got to come as far as the Jordan.[⊙] As for Judah, they came to Gil'gal[◊] to go and meet the king, to conduct the king across the Jordan. [16] Then Shim'e·i[+] the son of Ge'ra[⊕] the Ben'ja·min·ite, who was from Ba·hu'rim,[×] hurried and went down with the men of Judah to meet King David.[#] [17] And there were with him a thousand men from Benjamin. As for Shim'e·i the son of Ge'ra, he fell down before the king when he was about to cross the Jordan.[s] [19] He now said to the king:[t] "Do not let my lord attribute error[○] to me[u] and do not let him remember[v] the wrong that your servant did[y] on the day that my lord the king went out of Jerusalem,[z] so that the king should lay it to his heart.[*] [20] For your servant well knows that I am the one that sinned, and so here I have today come the first of all the house of Joseph[⊙⊐] to go down to meet my lord the king."

[2] At that all the men of Israel began to go up from following David to follow She'ba the son of Bich'ri,[n] and the men of Judah themselves stuck to their king from the Jordan to Jerusalem.[r]

3 Eventually David came to his house at Jerusalem. Then the king took the ten women,[s] the concubines[○] whom he had left behind to take care of the house, and he put them in a house of confinement, but he kept on supplying food to them. And with them he did not have any relations,[t] but they continued shut up closely until the day of their dying, in a widowhood with a living husband.[b]

4 The king now said to A.ma'sa:[u] "Call the men of Judah together to me within three days, and you yourself stand here." [5] So A.ma'sa went to call Judah together, but he came later than the fixed time that he had appointed for him.[y] [6] Then David said to A.bish'ai:[z] "Now She'ba[•] the son of Bich'ri will be worse for us than Ab'sa.lom.[□] You yourself take the servants[△] of your lord[c] and chase after him, that he may not actually find for himself fortified cities and escape before our eyes."[d] [7] Accordingly the men of Jo'ab[◊] and the Cher'e.thites[+] and the Pel'e-thites[⊕] and all the mighty men went out after him, and they went on out of Jerusalem to chase after She'ba the son of Bich'ri. [8] They were close by the great stone that is in Gib'e.on,[*] and A.ma'sa[#] himself came to meet them. Now Jo'ab was girded, clothed with a garment, and upon him there was girded a sword attached to his hip, in its sheath, and it[a] came out and so fell down.

[a] O.ha.lim', M. Literally, "tents." This is one of the Eighteen Emendations of the Sopherim, the original Hebrew text being alleged to read: "gods," or "God" (el.o.him'; instead of o.ha.lim'). [b] Literally, "[in] a widowhood of livingness," M. "Living widows," LXX; "living in widowhood," Vg. [c] "Lord." M, a.do.nim', the plural of a.dōn', to denote excellence or majesty. [d] Literally, "and snatch away our eyes," M.

9 And Jo'ab proceeded to say to A.ma'sa: "Is it all right with you, my brother?"[k] Then Jo'ab's right hand took hold of A.ma'sa's beard so as to kiss[n] him. [10] As for A.ma'sa, he was not on guard against the sword that was in Jo'ab's hand,[r] so that he struck him[s] with it in the abdomen[t] and his intestines[u] spilled out to the earth, and he did not have to do it to him again.[v] So he died. And Jo'ab and A.bish'ai his brother, for their part, chased after She'ba the son of Bich'ri.

11 And a certain one of Jo'ab's young men stood over him and kept saying: "Whoever has found delight in Jo'ab and whoever belongs to David,[y] let him follow Jo'ab!" [12] All the while A.ma'sa[z] was wallowing in the blood in the middle of the highway.[*] When the man saw that all the people stood still, then he moved A.ma'sa from the highway to the field. Finally he cast a garment over him, as he saw that everyone coming up to him stood still.[□] [13] As soon as he had removed him from the highway, each man passed by following Jo'ab to chase after She'ba[△] the son of Bich'ri.

14 And [She'ba] went passing through all the tribes of Israel to A'bel[◊] of Beth-ma'a.cah. As for all the Bich'rites,[b] they then assembled together and also went in after him.

15 And they proceeded to come and lay siege against him in A'bel of Beth-ma'a·cah and cast up a siege rampart against the city,[⊕] as it was standing within a rampart.[×] And all the people that were with Jo'ab were undermining the wall,[⊙] to throw it down. [16] And a wise woman[#] began to call from the city: "Listen, men, listen! Say, please, to Jo'ab, 'Come near as far as here and let me speak to you.' " [17] So he went near to her and the woman then said: "Are you Jo'ab?" to which he said: "I am." At this she said to him: "Listen to the words of your slave girl."[k] In turn he said: "I am listening." [18] And she went on to say: "Without exception they used to speak in former times, saying, 'Let them but inquire in A'bel, and thus they will certainly end the matter.' [19] I represent the peaceable[n] and faithful ones[r] of Israel. You are seeking to put to death[○] a city[s] and a mother[t] in Israel. Why should you swallow[u] up the possession[v] of Jehovah?" [20] To this Jo'ab answered and said: "It is altogether unthinkable[y] on my part that I should swallow up and that I should bring to ruin.[z] [21] The matter is not that way, but a man from the mountainous region of E'phra·im,[*] whose name is She'ba[□] the son of Bich'ri, has lifted up his hand against King David.[△] You people, give him over by himself,[◊] and I will withdraw from the city."[+] Then the woman said to Jo'ab: "Here is his head[⊕] pitched to you over the wall!"[×]

22 At once the woman went in her wisdom[#] to all the people, and they proceeded to cut off the head of She'ba the son of Bich'ri and pitch it to Jo'ab. Upon that he blew the trumpet[k] and so they were scattered from the city, each one to his home,[a] and Jo'ab himself returned to Jerusalem to the king.[n]

23 And Jo'ab[r] was over all the army of Israel, and Be·nai'ah[s] the son of Je·hoi'a·da[t] was over the Cher'e·thites[u] and over the Pel'e·thites.[v] [24] And A·do'ram[y] was over those conscripted for forced labor and Je·hosh'a·phat[z] the son of A·hi'lud was the recorder.[b] [25] And She'va[*] was secretary,[□] and Za'dok[△] and A·bi'a·thar[◊] were priests. [26] And, too, I'ra[+] the Ja'ir·ite[⊕] himself became a priest of David.

21 Now there came to be a famine[*] in the days[⊙] of David for three years, year after year, and David proceeded to consult the face of Jehovah. Then Jehovah said: "Upon Saul and his house there is bloodguilt,[c#] because he put the Gib'e·on·ites to death." [2] So the king called the Gib'e·on·ites[k] and talked to them. (Incidentally, the Gib'e·on·ites were not of the sons of Israel, but of the remainder of the Am'or·ites;[○n] and the sons of Israel themselves had sworn to them,[r] but Saul sought to strike them down in his tolerating no rivalry against the sons of Israel and Judah.) [3] And David went on to say to the Gib'e·on·ites: "What shall I do to YOU and with what shall I make atonement,[d⊙t] that YOU may certainly bless[e] the possession[u] of Jehovah?" [4] So the Gib'e·on·ites said to him: "It is not a matter of silver or gold for us[f] in connection with Saul[v] and his household, neither is it ours to put a man to death in Israel." At that he said: "Whatever YOU are saying I shall do for YOU." [5] At this they said to the king:

[a] Literally, "tents," M. [b] Or, "remembrancer." [c] Literally, "bloods," M. [d] Or, "amends." [e] Literally, "And BLESS [imperative, plural]," M. [f] Literally, "me," M; but in a collective sense. "Us," Mmargin.

"The man that exterminated us[y] and that schemed[z] to annihilate[○] us from subsisting in any of the territory of Israel, [6] let there be given to us seven men of his sons,[*] and we must expose[a□] them to Jehovah in Gib'e·ah[△] of Saul, the chosen one[b] of Jehovah."[◇] Accordingly the king said: "I myself shall give them."

7 However, the king felt compassion[⊙] upon Me·phib'o·sheth[+] the son of Jon'a·than[⊕] the son of Saul on account of the oath[○×] of Jehovah[⊙] that was between them, between David and Jon'a·than the son of Saul. [8] Consequently the king took the two sons of Riz'pah[#] the daughter of A'iah whom she bore to Saul, Ar·mo'ni and Me·phib'o·sheth, and the five sons of Mi'chal[ck] the daughter of Saul whom she bore to A'dri·el[k] the son of Bar·zil'lai the Me·hol'ath·ite. [9] Then he gave them into the hand of the Gib'e·on·ites and they proceeded to expose them on the mountain[○] before Jehovah,[n] so that the seven of them fell together; and they themselves were put to death in the first days of harvest,[r] at the start of the barley harvest.[⊙] [10] However, Riz'pah the daughter of A'iah[s] took sackcloth[t] and spread it for herself upon the rock[○] from the start of harvest until water poured down upon them from the heavens,[u] and she did not allow the fowls[⊙v] of the heavens to rest upon them by day nor the wild beasts[○y] of the field by night.[z]

11 At length it was reported[*] to David what Riz'pah the daughter of A'iah, Saul's concubine,[⊙] had done. [12] So David went and took the bones of Saul[□] and the bones of Jon'a·than his son from the landowners of Ja'besh-gil'e·ad,[△] who had stolen them from the square of Beth-shan,[◇] whom the Phi·lis'tines had hanged there[+] on the day that the Phi·lis'tines struck down Saul on Gil·bo'a.[⊕] [13] And he proceeded to bring up from there the bones of Saul and the bones of Jon'a·than his son, and they proceeded to gather the bones of the men being exposed.[×] [14] Then they buried[#] the bones of Saul and of Jon'a·than his son[a] in the land of Benjamin in Ze'la[k] in the burial place of Kish[n] his father, that they might do everything that the king had commanded.[○] So God let himself be entreated for the land after such things.[r]

15 And the Phi·lis'tines[s] came to have war again with Israel. Accordingly David and his servants with him went down and fought the Phi·lis'tines, and David got tired.[t] [16] And Ish'bi-be'nob, who was among the children of the Reph'a·im,[bu] the weight of whose spear[v] was three hundred shekels of copper and who was girded with a new sword,[c] began to think of striking David down.[y] [17] At once A·bish'ai[z] the son of Ze·ru'iah came to his help[*] and struck the Phi·lis'tine down and put him to death. At that time the men of David swore[⊙] to him, saying: "You must not go out with us to the battle any more,[□] that you may not extinguish[△] the lamp[○◇] of Israel!"

18 And it came about after this that war arose once more with the Phi·lis'tines at Gob.[d]

22 These four had been born to the Reph′a·im[a] in Gath,[z] and they came to fall by the hand of David and by the hand of his servants.[*]

22 And David proceeded to speak to Jehovah the words of this song[□] in the day that Jehovah had delivered him out of the palm of all his enemies[△] and out of Saul's palm,[◊] [2] and he went on to say:

They[a] had gathered themselves there for the battle, and so the men of Israel retreated.[z] [10] He it was that rose up and kept striking down the Phi·lis′tines until his hand wearied and his hand kept cleaving to the sword, so that Jehovah performed a great salvation on that day;[□] and, as for the people, they returned behind him only to strip [those struck down].[△]

11 And next to him was Sham′mah[◊] the son of A′gee the Har′a·rite. county[y] of Israel and Judah." [2] So the king said to Jo'ab[z] the chief[a] of the military forces who was with him:[b] "Move about, please, through all the tribes of Israel, from Dan to Be'er-she'ba,[*] and YOU men register the people,[□] and I shall certainly know the number of the people."[△] [3] But Jo'ab said to the king: "May Jehovah your God even add to the people a hundred times as many as they are while the very eyes of my lord the king are seeing it. But as for my lord the king, why has he found delight in this thing?"[◊]

4 Finally the king's word prevailed[+] upon Jo'ab and the chiefs of the military forces. So Jo'ab and the chiefs of the military forces went out from before the king to register[⊕] the people Israel. [5] Then they crossed the Jordan and went into camp at A·ro'er[×] to the right of the city[c] that is in the middle of the torrent valley, toward the Gad'ites,[#] and to Ja'zer.[k] [6] After that they came on to Gil'e·ad[n] and the land of Tah'tim-hod'shi[d] and continued on to Dan-ja'an[s] and went around to Si'don.[t] [7] Then they came to the fortress of Tyre[u] and all the cities of the Hi'vites[v] and of the Ca'naan·ites[y] and came to the terminating point in the Neg'eb[z] of Judah at Be'er-she'ba.[*] [8] Thus they went moving about through all the land and came to Jerusalem at the end of nine months and twenty days. [9] Jo'ab now gave the number of the registration of the people to

10 And David's heart began to beat him after he had so numbered the people.[△] Consequently David said to Jehovah: "I have sinned[◊] very much in what I have done. And now, Jehovah, let your servant's error pass by,[*] please, for I have acted very foolishly."[⊖] 11 When David proceeded to rise up in the morning, Jehovah's word itself came to Gad[‹] the prophet, David's seer,[#] saying: 12 "Go,[a] and you must say to David, 'This is what Jehovah has said: "Three things I am laying upon you.[k] Choose for yourself one of them that I may do it to you."'"[n] 13 Accordingly Gad came in to David and told him and said to him: "Should there come to you seven[b] years of famine[⊙] in your land,[r] or three months of your fleeing before your adversaries,[○][s] with them pursuing you, or the occurring of three days of pestilence[c][⊙] in your land?[t] Now know and see what I shall reply to the One sending me." 14 So David said to Gad: "It is very distressing to me.[u] Let us fall, please, into the hand of Jehovah,[v] for many are his mercies,[○][y] but into the hand of man[d] do not let me fall."[e][z]

15 Then Jehovah gave a pestilence[] in Israel from the morning until the time appointed,[⊙] so that out of the people from Dan to Be'er-she'ba[□] seventy thousand persons died. 16 And the angel[△] kept his hand thrust out toward Jerusalem[○] to bring it to ruin,[k] and Jehovah began to feel regret[⊙][◊] over the calamity and so he said to the angel that was bringing ruin among the people: "It is enough! Now let your hand drop." And Jehovah's[○] angel himself happened to be close by the threshing floor of A·rau'nah[] the Jeb'u·site.[⊕]

17 And David proceeded to say to Jehovah, when he saw the angel that was striking the people down, yes, he proceeded to say: "Here it is I that have sinned[×] and it is I that have done wrong, but these sheep[#]—what have they done? Let your hand, please, come upon me[k] and the house of my father."

18 Later Gad came in to David on that day and said to him: "Go up, set up for Jehovah an altar on the threshing floor of A·rau'nah the Jeb'u·site."[n] 19 And David began to go up in accord with the word of Gad, according to what Jehovah had commanded.[r] 20 When A·rau'nah[s] looked down and saw the king and his servants passing along toward him, A·rau'nah at once went out and bowed[t] down to the king with his face to the earth.[u] 21 Then A·rau'nah said: "Why has my lord the king come to his servant?" At that David said: "To buy[v] from you the threshing floor for building an altar to Jehovah, that the scourge[y] may be halted from upon the people." 22 But A·rau'nah said to David: "Let my lord the king take it[z] and offer up what is good in his eyes. THE FIRST OF or, according to the Greek Septuagint,
THE THIRD OF KINGS

1 Now King David was old,[•] advanced in years,[□] and they would cover him with clothes but he would not feel warm. [2] So his servants said to him: "Let them look for a girl, a virgin,[©] for my lord the king, and she will have to attend[△] upon the king, that she may become his nurse,[◊] and she must lie in your bosom,[•] and my lord the king will certainly feel warm."[⊕] [3] And they went looking for a beautiful girl throughout all the territory of Israel[×] and finally found Ab'i·shag[#] the Shu'nam·mite[k] and then brought her in to the king. [4] And the girl was beautiful in the extreme, and she came to be the king's nurse and kept waiting upon him, and the king himself had no intercourse[n] with her.

5 All the while Ad·o·ni'jah[r] the son of Hag'gith[s] was lifting himself up,[t] saying: "I myself am going to rule as king!"[u] And he proceeded to have a chariot made for himself with horsemen and fifty men running before him.[v] [6] And his father did not hurt his feelings at any time[a] by saying: "Why is this the way you have done?"[y] And he was also very good-looking in form,[z] and [his mother][b] had borne him after Ab'sa·lom. [7] And he came to have dealings with Jo'ab the son of Ze·ru'iah and with A·bi'a·thar[*]

[a] "Jehovah." The first occurrence of the Name in the books of the Kings. Concerning the Greek Septuagint translation of the Hebrew Scriptures, Origen, the producer of the Hexapla, said: "In the most faithful manuscripts THE NAME is written in Hebrew characters, that is, not in modern, but in archaic Hebrew." This statement of Origen is now confirmed by a Cairo palimpsest of parts of 3 Kings and 4 Kings in the Greek Septuagint, which correspond with 1 Kings and 2 Kings in the Hebrew Scriptures. See the Foreword of the New World Translation of the Christian Greek Scriptures, pages 10-18. See 1 Kings 20: 13, footnote b.

[33] And their blood must come back upon the head[◎] of Jo'ab and upon the head of his offspring forever,[a r] but for David[s] and for his offspring and for his house and for his throne there will come to be peace forever[b] from Jehovah."[t] [34] Then Be·nai'ah[c] the son of Je·hoi'a·da went on up and fell upon him and put him to death,[u] and he got to be buried at his own house in the wilderness.[○ v] [35] Upon that the king put Be·nai'ah[c] the son of Je·hoi'a·da in place of him over the army,[y] and Za'dok the priest the king put[d] in the place of A·bi'a·thar.[z]

36 Finally the king sent and called Shim'e·i[*] and said to him: "Build yourself a house[□] in Jerusalem, and you must dwell there and not go out[△] from there to this place and that. [37] And it must occur that on the day of your going out and when you do pass over the torrent valley of Kid'ron[◇] you should unmistakably know that you will positively die.[+] Bloodguilt[⊕] for you[e] will itself come to be upon your own head." [38] At this Shim'e·i said to the king: "The word is good.[×] Just as my lord the king has spoken is the way that your servant will do." And Shim'e·i kept dwelling in Jerusalem many days.

39 And it came about at the end of three years that two slaves[○] of Shim'e·i went running away to A'chish[#] the son of Ma'a·cah the king of Gath,[k] and people came telling Shim'e·i, saying: "Look! your slaves are at Gath." [40] Immediately Shim'e·i got up and saddled his ass and went to Gath to A'chish to look for his slaves, after which Shim'e·i went and brought his slaves from Gath.[n] [41] Then Sol'o·mon was told: "Shim'e·i has gone out of Jerusalem to Gath and is back." [42] At that the king sent and called Shim'e·i and said to him: "Did I not put you under oath by Jehovah that I might warn you,[r] saying, 'On the day of your going outside and when you do go here and there you should unmistakably know that you will positively die,' and so did you not say to me, 'Good is the word that I have heard'?[s] [43] Why, then, did you not keep the oath[◎] of Jehovah[t] and the commandment that I solemnly laid upon you?"[u] [44] And the king went on to say to Shim'e·i: "You yourself certainly know all the injury which your heart well knows that you did to David my father,[v] and Jehovah will certainly return the injury by you upon your own head.[y] [45] But King Sol'o·mon will be blessed[z] and the throne of David itself will prove to be firmly established before Jehovah forever."[a *] [46] With that the king commanded Be·nai'ah[b] the son of Je·hoi'a·da, who then went out and fell upon him, so that he died.[□]

13 And King Sol′o·mon kept bringing up those conscripted for forced labor[y] out of all Israel, and those conscripted for forced labor amounted to thirty thousand men. 14 And he would send them to Leb′a·non in shifts of ten thousand a month. For a month[z] they would continue in Leb′a·non, for two months at their homes; and Ad·o·ni′ram[*] was over those conscripted[□] for forced labor.[△] 15 And Sol′o·mon came to have[◇] seventy thousand burden bearers[+] and eighty thousand cutters[⊕] in the mountain,[⊚][×] 16 besides Sol′o·mon's princely deputies[a][#] who were over the work,[○] three thousand three hundred foremen[k] over the people who were active in the work. 17 Accordingly the king commanded that they should quarry great stones,[©] expensive stones,[n] to lay the foundation[r] of the house with hewn stones. 18 So Sol′o·mon's builders and Hi′ram's builders and the Ge′bal·ites[s] did the cutting and they kept preparing the timbers and the stones to build the house.

6 And it came about in the four hundred and eightieth year[b] after the sons of Israel came out from the land of Egypt,[t] in the fourth year,[u] in the month of Ziv,[v] that is, the second

4 And for the house he went on to make windows[○] of narrowing frames.[△] 5 Further, he built against the wall of the house a side structure all around, [against] the walls of the house all around the temple[◇] and the innermost room,[a][+] and made side chambers[⊕] all around. 6 The lowest side chamber[b] was five cubits in its width, and the middle one was six cubits in its width, and the third one was seven cubits in its width, for there were cutbacks[×] that he gave to the house all around outside, that it might not have a hold in the walls of the house.[#]

7 As for the house, while it was being built, it was of quarry stone[k] already completed that it was built,[n] and, as for hammers and axes or any tools of iron,[⊙] they were not heard in the house while it was being built. [8] The entrance[s] of the lowest[a] side chamber was on the right[b] side of the house, and by a winding staircase they would go up to the middle one and from the middle one up to the third one. [9] Further, he continued building the house that he might finish it[t] and covered in the house with beams and rows in cedarwood.[u] [10] Moreover, he built the side chambers[v] against the whole house five cubits in their height, and they had a hold on the house by timbers of cedar trees.[y]

The notation by means of letters of the alphabet is found on Phoenician coins (but not the earliest), on the coins of Simon Maccabaeus, and since mediaeval times has been in general, though not universal, use (not, for example, in the Epigraph of the St. Petersburg manuscript of A.D. 916, or in the Epigraphs of many other manuscripts)."

11 Meantime, the word of Jehovah came to Sol′o·mon,[z] saying: [12] "As regards this house that you are building, if you will walk in my statutes[*] and perform my judicial[○] decisions[□] and actually keep all my commandments by walking in them,[△] then I shall certainly carry out my word with you that I spoke to David your father,[◊] [13] and I shall indeed tent[⊙] in the middle of the sons of Israel[+] and I shall not leave my people Israel."[⊕]

14 And Sol′o·mon continued building the house that he might finish it.[×] [15] And he proceeded to build the walls of the house inside it with boards of cedar. From the floor of the house up to the rafters[c][l] of the ceiling he overlaid it with timber inside, and he went on to overlay the floor of the house with boards of juniper.[#] [16] Further, he built twenty cubits at the rear sides of the house with boards of cedar, from the floor up to the rafters,[c] and built for it inside the innermost[k] room, the Most Holy.[○][n] [17] And it was forty cubits that the house proved to be, that is, the temple[r] in front of it.[a][s] [18] And cedarwood was the whole house inside, with carvings[t] of gourd-shaped[u] ornaments and garlands of blossoms.[v] All of it was cedarwood; there was no stone to be seen.

19 And the innermost[y] room in the interior of the house he prepared inside, to put there the ark[z] of the covenant of Jehovah. [20] And the innermost room was twenty cubits in length and twenty cubits in width[*] and twenty cubits in its height, and he proceeded to overlay it with pure gold[□] and to overlay the altar[△] with cedarwood. [21] And Sol′o·mon went on to overlay[◊] the house inside with pure gold[⊙][+] and to make chainwork[⊕] of gold pass across in front of the innermost room[×] and to overlay it with gold. [22] And the whole house he overlaid with gold,[#] until all the house was completed; and all the altar[k] that belongs to the innermost room he overlaid with gold.[n]

23 Further, he made in the innermost room two cherubs[○] of oil-tree wood, ten cubits being the height of each one.[r] [24] And five cubits was the one wing of the cherub, and five cubits was the other wing of the cherub. Ten cubits it was from the tip of his wing to the tip of his wing.[s] [25] And the second cherub was ten cubits. The two cherubs had the same measure and the same shape.[t] [26] The height of the one cherub was ten cubits, and that was so of the other cherub. [27] Then he put the cherubs inside the inner house, so that they spread out the wings

7 And his own house Sol′o·mon built in thirteen years,[z] so that he finished all his own house.[*]

2 And he proceeded to build the House of the Forest of Leb′a·non[□] a hundred cubits in its length and fifty cubits in its width and thirty cubits in its height, upon four rows of pillars[○] of cedarwood, and there were beams[△] of cedarwood upon the pillars. 3 And it was paneled in with cedarwood[◊] above upon the girders that were upon the forty-five pillars. 6 And the Porch of Pillars he made fifty cubits in its length and thirty cubits in its width, and another porch was in front of them with pillars and a canopy in front of them.

7 As for the Porch of the Throne[k] where he would do judging,[⊕] he made the porch of judgment,[n] and they covered it in with cedarwood from the floor to the rafters.[a][r]

8 As regards the house of his where he was to dwell, at the other courtyard,[s] it was away from the house belonging to the Porch. It proved to be like this in workmanship. And there was a house like this Porch that he proceeded to build for Phar′aoh's daughter,[t] whom Sol′o·mon had taken.

10 And it came about at the end of twenty years, in which Sol'o·mon built the two houses, the house of Jehovah[#] and the house of the king,[k] [11] (Hi'ram[n] the king of Tyre had himself assisted Sol'o·mon[r] with timbers of cedar trees and timbers of juniper trees and with gold as much as he delighted in,) that at that time King Sol'o·mon proceeded to give to Hi'ram twenty cities[⊕] in the land of Gal'i·lee.[b][s] [12] Accordingly, Hi'ram went out from Tyre to see the cities that Sol'o·mon had given him and they were not just right in his eyes.[t] [13] So he said: "What sort of cities are these that you have given me, my brother?"[○][u] And they came to be called the Land of Ca'bul[c] down to this day.

14 In the meantime Hi'ram sent to the king a hundred and twenty talents of gold.[y]

15 Now this is the account of those conscripted[z] for forced labor[*] that King Sol'o·mon levied to build the house of Jehovah[□] and his own house[△] and the Mound[d][◊] and the wall[+] of Jerusalem and Ha'zor[⊕] and Me·gid'do[×] and Ge'zer.[#] [16] (Phar'aoh the king of Egypt himself had come up and then captured Ge'zer and burned it with fire, and the Ca'naan·ites[k] dwelling in the city he had killed. 24 However, Phar′aoh's daughter[t] herself came up out of the city[u] of David to her own house that he had built for her. It was then that he built the Mound.[b][v]

25 And Sol′o·mon continued three[y] times in the year to offer up burnt sacrifices and communion offerings upon the altar that he had built for Jehovah,[z] and there was a making of sacrificial smoke[c] on it,[*] which was before Jehovah, and he completed the house.[□]

23 So King Sol'o·mon was greater in riches[*] and wisdom[⊕] than all the other kings of the earth. [24] And all the people of the earth[a][®] were seeking the face of Sol'o·mon to hear his wisdom that God[b] had put in his heart.[×] [25] And they were bringing each his gift,[#] articles of silver[○] and articles of gold[k] and garments[©] and armor[n] and balsam oil, horses and mules,[r] as a yearly matter of course.[s] [26] And Sol'o·mon kept gathering more chariots and steeds,[c] and he came to have a thousand four hundred chariots and twelve thousand steeds,[c][t] and he kept them stationed in the chariot cities and close by the king in Jerusalem.[u] [27] And the king came to make the silver in Jerusalem[○] like the stones,[v] and cedarwood he made like the sycamore trees that are in the She·phe'lah[d] for great quantity.[y] [28] And there was the export of the horses that Sol'o·mon had from Egypt,[©] and the company of the king's merchants would themselves take the horse drove for a price.[z] [29] And a chariot customarily came up and was exported from Egypt for six hundred silver pieces, and a horse for a hundred and fifty, and that was the way it was for all the kings of the Hit'tites[□] and the kings of Syria. It was by means of them[e] that they did the exporting.

Jehovah the God of Israel,[#] the one appearing to him twice.[k] [10] And respecting this thing he commanded him not to go after other gods,[n] but he had not kept that which Jehovah had commanded. [a] M, o·ha·lim′; literally, "tents." This is one of the Eighteen Emendations of the Sopherim. The original Hebrew text is alleged to have read el·o·him′ ("gods," or, "God"), but by transposing the second and third consonants of the word the Jewish Sopherim made the M text read "tents." See 2 Samuel 20:1, footnote a, and 2 Chronicles 10:16, footnote c. [b] LXX, syn·a·go·ge′.

25 And Jer·o·bo′am proceeded to build She′chem[+] in the mountainous region of E′phra·im[⊙] and to dwell in it. Then he went forth from there and built Pe·nu′el.[⊕] 26 And Jer·o·bo′am began to say in his heart:[×] "Now the kingdom will return to the house of David.[#] 27 If this people continues going up to render sacrifices in the house of Jehovah in Jerusalem,[k] then the heart of this people will be bound to return to their lord,[d] Re·ho·bo′am the king of Judah, and they will certainly kill me[n] and return to Re·ho·bo′am the king of Judah." 28 Consequently the king took counsel[r] and made two golden calves[○][s] and said to the people:[e] "It is too much for YOU to go up to Jerusalem. way, and he did not return by the way by which he had come to Beth′el.

11 And a certain old prophet[k] was dwelling in Beth′el, and his sons now came in and related[a] to him all the work that the man of God[b] had done that day in Beth′el [and] the words that he had spoken to the king, and they went on relating them to their father.[n] [12] Then their father spoke to them: "Which way, then, did he go?" So his sons showed him the way that the man of God[b] that had come out of Judah had gone. [13] He now said to his sons: "Saddle the ass for me." Accordingly they saddled the ass[r] for him and he went riding on it.

14 And he went following the man of God[b] and got to find him sitting under the big tree.[s] Then he said to him: "Are you the man of God[b] who has come out of Judah?"[t] to which he said: "I am." [15] And he went on to say to him: "Go with me to the house and eat bread." [16] But he said: "I am not able to go back with you or to come in with you, and I may not eat bread or drink water with you in this place.[u] [17] For it has been spoken to me by the word of Jehovah,[v] 'You must not eat bread or drink water there. 23 And it came about after his eating bread and after his drinking that he at once saddled for him the ass, that is, for the prophet whom he had brought back. [24] And he got on his way. Later a lion[+] found him on the road and put him to death,[⊕] and his dead body came to be thrown onto the road. And the ass was standing beside it and the lion was standing beside the dead body. Then they came in and spoke of it in the city in which the old prophet was dwelling.

26 When the prophet that had brought him back from the way heard of it he immediately said: "It is the man of God[a] that rebelled against the order of Jehovah,[×] and so Jehovah gave him to the lion, that he might crush him and put him to death, according to the word of Jehovah that he spoke to him."[#] [27] And he went on to speak to his sons, saying: "Saddle the ass for me." The lion had not eaten[○] the dead body, nor had it crushed the ass.[n] [29] And the prophet proceeded to lift up the dead body of the man of God[a] and to deposit him upon the ass and to bring him back. Thus he came into the city of the old prophet to bewail and bury him. came king over Israel in the thirty-eighth year of A′sa the king of Judah, and A′hab the son of Om′ri continued to reign over Israel in Sa·mar′i·a[k] twenty-two years. [30] And A′hab the son of Om′ri proceeded to do worse in the eyes of Jehovah than all those who were prior to him.[n] [31] And it came about that, [as if it were] the most trivial[r] thing for him to walk in the sins of Jer·o·bo′am the son of Ne′bat,[s] then he took as wife[t] Jez′e·bel[u] the daughter of Eth·ba′al the king of the Si·do′ni·ans[v] and began to go and serve Ba′al[a ◎] and to bow down to him.[y] [32] Further, he set up an altar to Ba′al[a] at the house of Ba′al[a] that he built in Sa·mar′i·a.[b z] [33] And A′hab went on to make the sacred pole,[c *] and A′hab came to do more to offend Jehovah the God of Israel than all the kings of Israel that happened to be prior to him.[□]

34 In his days Hi′el the Beth′el·ite built Jer′i·cho.[○] At the forfeit of A·bi′ram his first-born he laid the foundation of it, and at the forfeit of Se′gub his youngest he put up its doors, according to Jehovah's word that he spoke by means of Joshua[d ◎] the son of Nun.[△]

17 And E·li′jah[e ◇] the Tish′bite from the inhabitants[f] of Gil′e·ad[○] proceeded to say to A′hab: "As Jehovah the God of Israel before whom I do stand[g •] is living,[⊕] there will occur during these years neither dew nor rain, except at the order of my word!"[×]

[4] And it must occur that from the torrent valley you should drink,[n] and the ravens[r] I shall certainly command[◎] to supply you food there."[s] [5] Immediately he went and did according to the word of Jehovah[t] and so went and took up dwelling by the torrent valley of Che′rith that is east of[a] the Jordan. [6] And the ravens themselves were bringing him bread[○] and meat in the morning and bread and meat in the evening, and from the torrent valley he kept drinking.[u] [7] But it came about at the end[◎] of some days that the torrent valley became dry, because there had occurred no downpour upon the earth.[v]

8 The word of Jehovah now came to him, saying: [9] "Rise up, go to Zar′e·phath,[y] which belongs to Si′don,[z] and you must dwell there. Look! I shall certainly command there a woman,[○] a widow, to supply you food." [10] Accordingly he rose up and went to Zar′e·phath and came into the entrance of the city, and, look! a woman, a widow, was there gathering up pieces of wood. So he called to her and said: "Please, get me a sip of water in a vessel that I may drink."[□] [11] When she began to go and get it, he went on to call to her and say: "Please, get me a bit of bread[△] in your hand." 38 At that the fire[r] of Jehovah came falling and went eating[⊂] up the burnt[©] offering and the pieces of wood and the stones and the dust, and the water that was in the trench it licked up.[s] 39 When all the people saw it, they immediately fell upon their faces[t] and said: "Jehovah is The [true] God![b] Jehovah is The [true] God!"[b] 40 Then E·li'jah said to them: "Seize the prophets of Ba'al![c] Do not let a single one of them escape!" At once they seized them and E·li'jah brought them down to the torrent valley of Ki'shon[u] and slaughtered them there.[v]

41 E·li'jah now said to A'hab: "Go up, eat and drink, for there is the sound of the turmoil of a downpour."[y] 42 And A'hab proceeded to go up to eat and drink. As for E·li'jah, he went up to the top of Car'mel and began crouching to the earth[z] and keeping his face put between his knees.[] 43 Then he said to his attendant: "Go up, please. 19 Then A'hab[s] told Jez'e·bel[t] all that E·li'jah had done and all about how he had killed[⊂] all the prophets with a sword.[u] 2 At that Jez'e·bel sent a messenger to E·li'jah, saying: "So may the gods[b][©] do[v] and so may they add to it,[y] if at this time tomorrow I shall not make your soul like the soul of each one of them!"[z] 3 And he became afraid.[c] Consequently he rose up and began to go for his soul[d][] and came to Be'er-she'ba,[⊂][⊏] which belongs to Judah.[△] Then he left his attendant behind there. 4 And he himself went into the wilderness a day's[©] journey and at length came and sat down under a certain broom tree.[◊] And he began to ask that his soul[d] might die and to say: "It is enough! Now, O Jehovah, take my soul away,[+] for I am no better[⊕] than my forefathers."

5 Finally he lay down and fell asleep under the broom[×] tree. But, look! now an angel[#] was touching him. Then he said to him: "Rise up, eat." 6 When he looked, why, there at his head was a round cake[k] upon heated stones and a canteen[n] of water. 19 Accordingly he went from there and found E·li'sha[b] the son of Sha'phat while he was plowing with twelve spans before him and he with the twelfth.[t] So E·li'jah crossed over to him and threw his official garment[u] upon him. [20] At that he left the bulls and went running after E·li'jah[v] and said: "Let me, please, kiss my father and my mother.[y] Then I will go following you." At this he said to him: "Go, return, for what have I done to you?" [21] So he returned from following him and then took a span of the bulls and sacrificed them[z] and with the implements of the bulls

[a] Literally, "that are at my feet!" M. [b] "Jehovah," M; Ky′ri·os, LXX^AB; literally, "Jehovah," Aquila's Greek version. In palimpsest fragments of the books of Kings according to the Greek translation of the second century by the Jewish proselyte Aquila, found in the synagogue genizah at Cairo, Egypt, but now in the Taylor-Schechter Collection at Cambridge (England) University Library, the tetragrammaton of the divine name occurs here written in ancient Hebrew characters in the midst of the Greek text, proving that the divine name did appear in the ancient Greek versions of the Hebrew Scriptures. On this Dr. C. Taylor, in his preface to Fragments of the Books of Kings according to the translation of Aquila by F. C. Burkitt (Cambridge University Press, 1898), says: [See bottom of next page.]

15 And he proceeded to take the count of the young men of the princes of the jurisdictional districts, and they came to be two hundred and thirty-two,[x] and after them he took the count of all the people, all the sons of Israel, seven thousand. [16] And they began to go out at noon while Ben-ha'dad was drinking himself drunk[#] in the booths, he together with the kings, the thirty-two kings that were helping him.[k] [17] When the young men[n] of the princes of the jurisdictional districts came out first, Ben-ha'dad at once sent out and they came telling him, saying: "There are men that have come out from Sa·mar'i·a." [18] At that he said: "Whether it is for peace that they have come out, YOU should seize them alive, or whether it is for battle that they have come out, alive YOU should seize them."[r] [19] And these were the ones that came out from the city, the young men of the princes of the jurisdictional districts

In confirmation of this see our Foreword to the New World Translation of the Christian Greek Scriptures, page 12, paragraph 1, and page 15, footnote b. See 1 Kings 1:17, footnote a. Compare 1 Kings 22:6, footnote a.

and the military forces that were behind them. [20] And they began to strike down each one his man,[s] and the Syrians[t] took to flight[u] and Israel went in pursuit of them, but Ben-ha'dad the king of Syria got to escape[v] upon a horse together with the horsemen. [21] But the king of Israel went out and kept striking down the horses and the chariots, and he struck down the Syrians with a great slaughter.[y]

22 Later the prophet[z] approached the king of Israel and said to him: "Go, strengthen yourself[*] and take note and see what you are going to do, for at the return of the year[a] the king of Syria is coming up against you."[⊏]

23 As for the servants of the king of Syria, they said to him: "Their God is a God of mountains.[b][△] That is why they proved stronger than we were. So, on the other hand, let us fight against them on the level land [and see] whether we shall not prove stronger than they are. [24] And do this thing: Remove the kings[◊] each one from his place and put in governors instead of them.[•] [25] As for you, you should number a military force for yourself equal to the military force that fell from your side, with horse for horse and chariot for chariot, and let us fight against them on the level land [and see] whether we shall not prove stronger than they are."[Φ] Accordingly he listened to their voice and did just that way.

26 And it came about at the return of the year[a] that Ben-ha'dad proceeded to muster the Syrians[x] and to go up to A'phek[#] for battle against Israel. [27] As for the sons of Israel, they

He is my brother."[■] 33 So the men[k] themselves took it as an omen and they quickly took it as a decision of his own accord and went on to say: "Ben-ha′dad is your brother."[⊙] At that he said: "Come, fetch him." Then Ben-ha′dad went out to him, and he at once had him get up into the chariot.[○][n] 34 [Ben-ha′dad] now said to him: "The cities[r] that my father took from your father I shall return, and streets you will assign to yourself in Damascus the same as my father assigned in Sa·mar′i·a." "And as for me, in a covenant[◎] I shall send you away." With that he concluded a covenant[s] with him and sent him away.

35 And a certain man of the sons[t] of the prophets[a] said to his friend by the word[u] of Jehovah: "Strike me, please."[v] But the man refused to strike him. 36 Therefore he said to him: "For the reason that you did not listen to the voice of Jehovah,[y] here you are going away from me, and a lion will certainly strike you down." After that he went away from beside him and the lion[z] got to find him and strike him down.

37 And he went on to find another man and to say: "Strike me, please." So the man struck him, striking and wounding.[b][•]

God and the king!"[□] And bring him out and stone him that he may die."[△]

11 So the men of his city, the older men and the nobles that were dwelling in his city, did just as Jez'e·bel had sent to them, just as it was written in the letters that she had sent to them.[◊] [12] They proclaimed a fast[l] and had Na'both sit at the head of the people. [13] Then two of the men, good-for-nothing fellows,[a] came in and sat down in front of him and the good-for-nothing men began to bear witness against him, that is, Na'both, in front of the people, saying: "Na'both has cursed[b] God and the king!"[+] After that they brought him out to the outskirts of the city and stoned him with stones, so that he died.[⊕] [14] They now sent to Jez'e·bel, saying: "Na'both has been stoned so that he is dead."[×]

15 And it came about that, as soon as Jez'e·bel heard that Na'both had been stoned so that he died, Jez'e·bel immediately said to A'hab: "Rise up, take possession of the vineyard of Na'both the Jez're·el·ite,[#] which he refused to give you for money,[⊚][k] for Na'both is no longer alive, but dead." [16] And it came about that, as soon as A'hab heard that Na'both was dead,[r] A'hab at once rose up to go down to the vineyard of Na'both the Jez're·el·ite, to take possession of it.[s]

17 And Jehovah's[○] word[t] came to E·li'jah[u] the Tish'bite, saying: [18] "Rise up, go down to meet A'hab the king of Israel, who is in Sa·mar'i·a.[v] There he is in the vineyard of Na'both, where he has gone down to take possession of it. [19] And you must speak to him, saying, 'This is what Jehovah has said: "Have you murdered and also taken possession?"'[y] And you must speak to him, saying, 'This is what Jehovah has said: "In the place[z] where the dogs[⊚] licked up the blood of Na'both the dogs will lick up your blood,[○] even yours."'"[*]

20 And A'hab proceeded to say to E·li'jah: "Have you found me, O enemy[⊚] of mine?"[□] to which he said: "I have found you. 'For the reason that you have sold yourself to do what is bad in the eyes of Jehovah,[△] [21] here I am bringing calamity upon you,[◊] and I shall certainly make a clean sweep after you[+] and cut off from A'hab anyone urinating[⊕] against a wall[×] and the helpless[#] and worthless one[a][k] in Israel. your part, put on your garments."[t] Accordingly, the king of Israel disguised[u] himself and entered into the battle.[v] [31] As for the king of Syria, he had commanded the thirty-two[y] chiefs of the chariots that were his, saying: "You must fight,[z] neither with the small[*] nor the great, but with the king of Israel alone."[□] [32] And it came about that, as soon as the chiefs of the chariots saw Je·hosh′a·phat, they, for their part, said to themselves: "Surely it is the king of Israel."[△] So they turned aside against him to fight, and Je·hosh′a·phat began to cry[◊] for aid. [33] And it came about that, as soon as the chiefs of the chariots saw that it was not the king of Israel, they immediately came back from following him.[+]

34 And there was a man that bent the bow in his innocence[⊕] and he got to strike[×] the king of Israel between the appendages and the coat[#] of mail, so that he said to his charioteer:[k] "Turn your hand around and take me out from the camp, because I have been badly wounded."[n] [35] And the battle kept rising in intensity on that day, and the king himself had to be kept in a standing position in the chariot facing the Syrians, and gradually he died[r] in the evening[⊙] and the blood of the wound kept pouring out upon the interior of the war chariot.[s] [36] And the ringing cry[a] began to pass through the camp about the setting of the sun, saying: "Everyone to his city[t] and everyone to his land!"[u] [37] Thus the king died. When he was brought[b] to Sa·mar′i·a, then they buried the king in Sa·mar′i·a. [38] And they began to wash off the war chariot

39 As for the rest of the affairs[z] of A′hab and all that he did and the house[*] of ivory[□] that he built and all the cities that he built, are they not written in the book of the affairs of the days of the kings of Israel? [40] And A′hab got to lie down with his forefathers,[△] and A·ha·zi′ah[a][◊] his son began to reign in place of him.

41 As for Je·hosh′a·phat[+] the son of A′sa, he had become king over Judah in the fourth year of A′hab the king of Israel. [42] Je·hosh′a·phat was thirty-five years old when he began to reign and for twenty-five years he reigned in Jerusalem;[⊕] and his mother's[×] name was A·zu′bah the daughter of Shil′hi. [43] And he kept walking in all the way of A′sa his father.[#] He did not turn aside from it,[k] by doing what was right in the eyes of Jehovah.[n] Only the high places[r] themselves did not disappear.[b] The people were still sacrificing and making sacrificial smoke on the high places. [44] And Je·hosh′a·phat kept peaceful relations with the king of Israel.[s] [45] As for the rest of the affairs of Je·hosh′a·phat and the mightiness with which he acted and how he warred, are they not written in the book[t] of the affairs of the days of the kings of Judah? [46] And the rest of the male temple prostitutes[u] that had been left over in the days of A′sa his father he cleared out from the land.

47 As regards a king, there was none in E′dom;[v] a deputy was king.[y]

THE FOURTH OF KINGS

1 And Mo'ab[○][*] began to revolt[□] against Israel after the death of A'hab.[△]

2 Then A·ha·zi'ah fell down through the grating in his roof chamber that was in Sa·mar'i·a and got sick. So he sent messengers and said to them: "Go, inquire of Ba'al-ze'bub[a][◊] the god[b][+] of Ek'ron[⊕] whether I shall revive from this sickness."[×] [3] As for the angel of Jehovah,[#] he spoke to E·li'jah[c] the Tish'bite:[k] "Rise up,[r] go up to meet the messengers of the king of Sa·mar'i·a and say to them, 'Is it because there is no God[⊚] at all in Israel[s] that YOU are going to inquire of Ba'al-ze'bub[a] the god[b] of Ek'ron?[t] [4] So therefore this is what Jehovah has said: "As regards the couch upon which you have gone up, you will not come down off it, because you will positively die."'"[u] With that E·li'jah[c] went off.

5 When the messengers came back to him he immediately said to them: "Why is it that YOU have come back?" [6] So they said to him: "There was a man that came up to meet us and he proceeded to say to us, 'Go, return to the king who sent YOU and YOU must speak to him: "This is took the official[s] garment of E·li′jah that had fallen off him and began to strike the waters[t] and say: "Where is Jehovah[⊙] the God of E·li′jah, even He?"[u] And he kept striking the waters, and gradually they were divided this way and that way, so that E·li′sha went across.[v]

15 When the sons of the prophets that were at Jer′i·cho got to see it from in front, they began to say: "The spirit[y] of E·li′jah has settled down upon E·li′sha." Accordingly they came to meet him and bowed down[z] to him to the earth. 16 And they went on to say to him: "Here, now, there are with your servants fifty men, valiant persons. Let them go, please, and look for your master.[a] It may be that the spirit[b*] of Jehovah has lifted him up and then thrown him upon one of the mountains or in one of the valleys." But he said: "YOU must not send them." 17 And they kept urging[□] him until he was embarrassed, so that he said: "Send."[△] They now sent fifty men and they kept looking for three days and they did not find him.[◊] 18 When they returned to him he was dwelling in Jer′i·cho.[l] Then he said to them: "Did I not say to YOU, 'Do not go'?"

19 In time the men of the city said to E·li′sha: "Here, now, the situation of the city is good, just as my master[c+] is seeing, but the water[⊕] is bad and the land is causing miscarriages."[×] 20 At that he said: "Fetch me a small new bowl and put salt[#] in it." which the boy opened his eyes.[r] [36] He now called Ge·ha'zi and said: "Call this Shu'nam·mite[s] woman." So he called her and she came in to him. Then he said: "Lift up your son."[t] [37] And she proceeded to come in and fall at his feet and bow down to him to the earth,[○] after which she lifted up her son and went out.[u]

38 And E·li'sha himself returned to Gil'gal,[a][v] and there was famine[y] in the land. As the sons[z] of the prophets were sitting before him[] he in time said to his attendant:[□] "Put the large cooking pot on and boil stew for the sons of the prophets."[△] [39] Accordingly a certain one went out to the field to pick mallows and he got to find a wild[◊] vine[◎] and went picking wild gourds from it, his garment full, and then came and sliced them into the stewpot, for they were not acquainted with them. [40] Later they poured it out for the men to eat. And it came about that, as soon as they ate from the stew, they themselves cried out and began saying: "There is death[] in the pot, O man of God."[b][⊕] And they were not able to eat. [41] So he said: "FETCH, then, flour." After he threw it into the pot[+] he went on to say: "Pour out for the people that they may eat." And nothing injurious[#] proved to be in the pot.

42 And there was a man that came from Ba'al-shal'i·shah,[k] and he came bringing to the man of God[b] bread of the first[○] ripe fruits,[n] twenty barley[r] loaves, and new grain in his bread bag. Then he said: "Give it to the people that they may eat."[s] [43] However, his waiter said: "How shall I put this before a hundred men?"[t] To this he said:

5 Now a certain Na′a·man,[y] the chief of the army of the king of Syria, had become a great[z] man before his lord[b][⊙] and held in esteem,[c] because it was by him that Jehovah had given salvation[d] to Syria, and the man himself had proved to be a valiant, mighty man, though a leper.[e][○][] [2] And the Syrians, for their part, had gone out as marauder bands[□] and they got to take captive from the land of Israel a little girl,[△] and she came to be before Na′a·man's wife.[⊙] [3] In time she said to her mistress: "If only my lord were before the prophet[◊] that is in Sa·mar′i·a! Je'hu[y] the son of Je·hosh'a·phat the son of Nim'shi[z] proceeded to conspire[] against Je·ho'ram.[a]

And Je·ho'ram[a] himself had happened to be keeping guard at Ra'moth-gil'e·ad,[□] he with all Israel, because of Haz'a·el[△] the king of Syria. [15] Later Je·ho'ram[◊] the king returned to get healed at Jez're·el[+] from the wounds that the Syrians got to inflict upon him when he fought Haz'a·el the king of Syria.[©]

Je'hu now said: "If YOUR soul agrees,[b] do not let anyone go out in escape from the city to go and make report in Jez're·el." [16] And Je'hu began to ride and go to Jez're·el, for Je·ho'ram[a] was lying there[×] and A·ha·zi'ah[c][#] the king of Judah himself had gone down to see Je·ho'ram.[a] [17] And the watchman[k] was standing upon the tower[©] in Jez're·el,[n] and he got to see the heaving mass of Je'hu's [men] as he was coming, and he at once said: "There is a heaving mass [of men] that I am seeing." At that Je·ho'ram[a] said: "Take a cavalryman and send him to meet them and let him say, 'Is it peace?' "[r] [18] Accordingly a rider on a horse went to meet him and said: "This is what the king has said, 'Is it peace?' " But Je'hu said: "What do you have to do with 'peace'?[d][s] Get around to my rear!"

And the watchman[t] went on to report, saying: "The messenger came as far as to them, but he has not returned." [19] So he sent out a second rider on a horse, who, when he came to them, proceeded to say: "This is what the king has said, 'Is it peace?' "[r] But Je'hu said: "What

Syria and the sons of Israel continued to dwell in their homes[a] as formerly.[#] [6] (Only they did not depart from the sin of the house of Jer·o·bo'am, with which he caused Israel to sin.[k] In it he walked;[n] and even the sacred pole[b] itself stood in Sa·mar'i·a.)[r] [7] For he had not left to Je·ho'a·haz any people but fifty horsemen[©] and ten chariots and ten thousand men on foot,[s] because the king[t] of Syria had destroyed them, that he might make them like the dust[u] at threshing.[v]

8 As for the rest of the affairs of Je·ho'a·haz and all that he did and his mightiness, are they not written in the book[y] of the affairs of the days of the kings of Israel? [9] Finally Je·ho'a·haz lay down with his forefathers, and they buried him in Sa·mar'i·a,[z] and Je·ho'ash[c*] his son began to reign in place of him.

10 In the thirty-seventh year of Je·ho'ash[c] the king of Judah, Je·ho'ash[d□] the son of Je·ho'a·haz became king over Israel in Sa·mar'i·a for sixteen years. [11] And he continued to do what was bad in Jehovah's eyes.[△] He did not depart from all the sin of Jer·o·bo'am the son of Ne'bat, with which he caused Israel to sin.[◊] In it he walked.

12 As for the rest of the affairs of Je·ho'ash[c] and all that he did and his mightiness[⊕] [and] how he fought against Am·a·zi'ah the king of Judah, are they not written in the book[×] of the affairs of the days of the kings of Israel? [13] Finally Je·ho'ash[c] lay down with his forefathers,[#] and Jer·o·bo'am[ek] himself sat upon his throne.

[a] Literally, "tents," M. [b] Or, "the A·she'rah." [c] Literally, "Jo'ash," M; as in verse 1. [d] Yᵉho·ash', M. [e] Meaning Jer·o·bo'am II.

In turn Je·ho'ash[a] was buried in Sa·mar'i·a with the kings of Israel.[n]

14 As regards E·li'sha,[r] he had taken sick[s] with the sickness with which he was to die.[t] So Je·ho'ash[a] the king of Israel came down to him and began to weep over his face and say: "My father,[u] my father,[○] the war chariot[b] of Israel and his horsemen!"[v] [15] And E·li'sha proceeded to say to him: "Take a bow and arrows." So he took to himself a bow and arrows. [16] And he went on to say to the king of Israel: "Put your hand to the bow."[c] Accordingly he put his hand to it, after which E·li'sha laid his hands[y] upon the hands of the king. [17] Then he said: "Open the window to the east." So he opened it.[z] Finally E·li'sha said: "Shoot!" So he shot. He now said: "Jehovah's[©] arrow of salvation,[*] even the arrow of salvation against Syria! And you will certainly strike down Syria at A'phek[□] to the finishing point."

18 And he went on to say: "Take the arrows." At that he took [them]. Then he said to the king of Israel: "Strike on the earth."[△] So he struck three times and stopped.[◊] [19] And the man of God[d+] grew indignant[○] at him;[⊕] hence he said: "It was meant to strike five or six times![e] In that case you would certainly be striking down Syria to the finishing point, but now it is three times that you will strike down Syria."[×]

20 After that E·li'sha died and they buried[©] him.[#] And there were marauding bands[k] of the Mo'ab·ites[n] that regularly came into the land at

13 As for Shal′lum the son of Ja′besh, he became king in the thirty-ninth year of Uz·zi′ah[d][#] the king of Judah and he continued to reign for a full lunar month[e] in Sa·mar′i·a.[k] [14] Then Men′a·hem[n] the son of Ga′di came up from Tir′zah[r] and came to Sa·mar′i·a and struck down Shal′lum[s] the son of Ja′besh in Sa·mar′i·a and put him to death, and he began to reign in place of him. 19 Even Judah itself did not keep the commandments of Jehovah their God,[+] but they went walking in the statutes of Israel that they had made. [20] Consequently Jehovah rejected all the seed[b][◎] of Israel[⊕] and kept afflicting them and giving them into the hand of pillagers, until he had cast them away on his own account.[×] [21] For he ripped Israel off from the house of David and they proceeded to make Jer·o·bo′am the son of Ne′bat king, and Jer·o·bo′am[#] proceeded to part Israel from following Jehovah and he caused them to sin with a great sin.[k] [22] And the sons of Israel went walking in all the sin of Jer·o·bo′am that he had done.[n] They did not depart from it, [23] until Jehovah removed Israel from his sight,[r] just as he had spoken by means of all his servants the prophets.[s] So Israel went off its own soil into exile in As·syr′i·a down to this day.[t]

24 Subsequently the king of As·syr'i·a[u] brought people from Babylon[a][v] and Cu'thah and Av'va[y] and Ha'math[z] and Seph·ar·va'im[*] and had them dwell in the cities of Sa·mar'i·a[□] instead of the sons of Israel, and they began to take possession of Sa·mar'i·a and to dwell in its cities. [25] And it came about at the start of their dwelling there that they did not fear[△] Jehovah. Therefore Jehovah sent lions[○] among them[◊] and they came to be killers among them. [26] So they sent word to the king of As·syr'i·a, saying: "The nations that you have taken into exile and then settled in the cities of Sa·mar'i·a have not known the religion[b] of the God[c] of the land, so that he keeps sending lions among them,[+] and, look! they are putting them to death, inasmuch as there are none knowing the religion[b] of the God[c] of the land." [27] At that the king of As·syr'i·a gave orders, saying: "Have one of the priests[⊕] go there whom YOU led into exile from there, that he may go and dwell there and teach them the religion[b] of the God[c] of the land." [28] Accordingly one of the priests whom they had led into exile from Sa·mar'i·a came and began dwelling in Beth'el[×] and he came to be a teacher of them as to how they ought to fear Jehovah.[#]

29 However, each different nation came to be a maker of its own god,[d][k] which they then deposited in the house of the high places that the Sa·mar'i·tans[e] made, each different nation,[f] in 12 At that time Be·ro′dach-bal′a·dan[k] the son[n] of Bal′a·dan the king of Babylon[c][r] sent letters[s] and a gift to Hez·e·ki′ah,[d] for he had heard that Hez·e·ki′ah[d] had been sick. There proved to be nothing that Hez·e·ki′ah[d] did not show them in his own house[y] and in all his dominion.[z]

14 After that Isaiah[b] the prophet came in to King Hez·e·ki′ah[d] and said to him:[*] "What did these men say and from where did they proceed to come to you?"[□] So Hez·e·ki′ah[d] said: "From a distant land they came,[△] from Babylon."[f] [15] And he went on to say: "What did they see in your house?" [22] Thus he abandoned Jehovah[◎] the God of his forefathers, and he did not walk in the way of Jehovah.[k] [23] Eventually servants of A'mon conspired against him and put the king to death in his own house. [24] But the people of the land struck down all the conspirators[r] against King A'mon and the people of the land made[s] Jo·si'ah[a][t] his son king in place of him. 3 And it came about in the eighteenth year of King Jo·si'ah[a] that the king sent Sha'phan[Φ] the son of Az·a·li'ah the son of Me·shul'lam the secretary[c] of the house of Jehovah, saying: [4] "Go up to Hil·ki'ah[d][×] the high priest[e][■] and let him complete[a] the money[k] that is being brought into the house of Jehovah[n] that the doorkeepers[r] have gathered from the people, [5] and let them put it into the hand of those doing the work,[s] the appointed ones, in the house of Jehovah, that they may give it to those doing the work who are in the house[◎] of Jehovah to repair the cracks of the house,[t] [6] to the craftsmen and the builders and the masons and to buy timbers and hewn stones[○] to repair the house.[u] [7] Only no accounting should be taken of the money with them into whose hand it is being put,[v] for it is in faithfulness[y] that they are working."

8 Later Hil·ki'ah[b][z] the high priest[c] said to Sha'phan[•] the secretary:[□] "The very book[◎] of the law[△] I have found in the house of Jehovah."[◊] So Hil·ki'ah gave the book to Sha'phan and he began to read it.[+] [9] Then Sha'phan[⊕] the secretary[×] came in to the king and replied to the king[#] and said: "Your servants have poured out the money that was to be found in the house and they keep putting it into the hand of the doers of the work, the ones appointed, in the house of Jehovah."[k] [10] And Sha'phan the secretary went on to tell the king, saying: "There is a book[n] that Hil·ki'ah the priest has given me."[r] And Sha'phan began to read it before the king.[s]

11 And it came about that as soon as the king heard the words of the book of the law he immediately ripped his clothes apart.[t] [12] Then the king commanded Hil·ki'ah the priest[u] and A·hi'kam[v] the son of Sha'phan and Ach'bor the son of Mi·cai'ah and Sha'phan the secretary and A·sai'ah[y] the king's servant, saying: [13] "Go, inwith his forefathers,[v] and Je·hoi'a·chin his son began to reign in place of him.

7 And never again did the king of Egypt come out from his land, for the king of Babylon[a] had taken all that happened to belong to the king of Egypt[y] from the torrent valley[z] of Egypt up to the river Eu·phra'tes.[*]

8 Eighteen years old Je·hoi'a·chin[□] was when he began to reign, and for three months he reigned in Jerusalem.[△] And his mother's name was Ne·hush'ta the daughter of El·na'than of Jerusalem. [9] And he continued to do what was bad in Jehovah's eyes,[◊] according to all that his father had done.[+] [10] During that time the servants of Neb·u·chad·nez'zar the king of Babylon[a] came up to Jerusalem, so that the city came under siege.[⊕] [11] And Neb·u·chad·nez'zar the king of Babylon[a] proceeded to come against the city, while his servants were laying siege against it.[×]

12 At length Je·hoi'a·chin the king of Judah went out to the king of Babylon,[a#] he with his mother[k] and his servants and his princes[○] and his court officials, and the king of Babylon[an] got to take him[r] in the eighth year of his[s] being king. [13] Then he brought out from there all the treasures of the house of Jehovah[t] and the treasures of the king's house[u] and went on to cut to pieces all the gold utensils[v] that Sol'o·mon the king of Israel had made in the temple of Jehovah,[y] just as Jehovah had spoken.[z] [14] And he took into exile[*] all Jerusalem and all the princes[□] and all the valiant, mighty men—ten thousand he was taking into exile—and also every craftsman[△] and builder of bulwarks. No one had been left behind except the lowly class[◊]

[a] "A'char." Called A'chan at Joshua 7:1, 18. [b] "The bringer of trouble." M, 'o·cher'; in a play of words against 'A·char', the man's name. [c] Called Ca'leb at verses 18, 19, 42.

Ab'i·gail, she gave birth to A·ma'sa,[*] and the father of A·ma'sa was Je'ther[□] the Ish'ma·el·ite.

18 As for Ca'leb[a] the son of Hez'ron,[△] he became father to sons by A·zu'bah his wife and by Jer'i·oth, and these were her sons: Je'sher and Sho'bab and Ar'don. [19] Eventually A·zu'bah died. So Ca'leb[a] took to himself Eph'rath,[◊] who in time bore Hur[•] to him. [20] Hur, in turn, became father to U'ri.[⊕] U'ri, in turn, became father to Bez'al·el.[ˣ]

21 And afterward Hez'ron had relations with the daughter of Ma'chir[#] the father of Gil'e·ad.[k] And he himself took her when he was sixty years[◎] old, but she bore Se'gub to him. [22] Se'gub, in turn, became father to Ja'ir,[n] and he came to have twenty-three cities[r] in the land of Gil'e·ad. [23] Later Gesh'ur[s] and Syria[t] took the tent villages[u] of Ja'ir from them, with Ke'nath[v] and its dependent towns,[b] sixty cities. All these were the sons of Ma'chir the father of Gil'e·ad.

24 And after the death of Hez'ron[y] in Ca'leb-eph'ra·thah,[z] with A·bi'jah being the wife of Hez'ron, she then bore him Ash'hur[*] the father of Te·ko'a.[□]

25 And the sons of Je·rah'me·el[△] the first-born of Hez'ron were Ram[◊] the first-born and Bu'nah and O'ren and O'zem, A·hi'jah.[c] [26] And Je·rah'me·el

[a] Jer·o·bo′am II, of 2 Kings 14:16-29. [b] Literally, "treading the bow," that is, by planting the foot firmly against the middle of it. [c] Literally, "and soul of man (mankind)," M. [d] "The [true] God." M, ha-El·o·him′, the title El·o·him′ being preceded by the definite article ha ("The") for the sake of emphasis here. Compare Genesis 5:22, footnote a.

Ba′al-her′mon[*] and Se′nir[□] and Mount Her′mon.[△] They themselves became numerous. [24] And these were the heads of the house of their forefathers: E′pher and Ish′i and E′li·el and Az′ri·el and Jeremiah and Hod·a·vi′ah and Jah′di·el, men that were valiant, mighty fellows, men of fame,[a] heads of the house of their forefathers. [25] And they began to act unfaithfully toward the God of their forefathers and went having unfaithful intercourse[⊕◊] with the gods[○×] of the peoples[p] of the land whom God had annihilated because of them. [26] Consequently the God of Israel stirred up the spirit of Pul[k] the king of As·syr′i·a[n] and the spirit of Til′gath-pil·ne′ser[r] the king of As·syr′i·a, so that he took into exile[s] those of the Reu′ben·ites and of the Gad′ites and of the half tribe of Ma·nas′seh and brought them to Ha′lah[t] and Ha′bor[u] and Ha′ra and the river Go′zan[v] [to continue] until this day.[b]

6 The sons of Le′vi[y] were Ger′shon,[z] Ko′hath[] and Me·rar′i.[□] [2] And the sons of Ko′hath[l] were Am′ram,[△] Iz′har[◊] and He′bron[+] and Uz′zi·el.[⊕] [3] And the sons of Am′ram were Aaron[○×] and Moses,[#] and there was Mir′i·am.[◎k] And the sons of Aaron were Na′dab[n] and A·bi′hu,[pr] E·le·a′zar[qs] and Ith′a·mar.[t] [4] As for E·le·a′zar,[u] he became father to Phin′e·has.[v] Phin′e·has himself became father to Ab·i·shu′a.[y] [5] Ab·i·shu′a, in turn, became father to Buk′ki;[z] Buk′ki, in turn, became father to Uz′zi.[z] [6] Uz′zi, in turn, became father to Zer·a·hi′ah;[z] Zer·a·hi′ah, in turn, became father to Me·ra′ioth.[] [7] Me·ra′ioth himself became father to Am·a·ri′ah; Am·a·ri′ah,

8 And it came about the next day that, when the Phi·lis'tines came to strip[*] the slain, they got to find Saul and his sons fallen upon Mount Gil·bo'a.[□] [9] And they proceeded to strip him and take off his head[△] and his armor and send into the land of the Phi·lis'tines all around to inform[◊] their idols[+] and the people. [a] Or, "gods." M, el·o·him', the plural of el·o'ah, to denote excellency and majesty of the Phi·lis'tine god Da'gon. Compare Judges 16:23, 24, footnote a. LXX, the·os'; Vg, de'us.

Jehovah your God proceeded to say to you, 'You yourself will shepherd[⊚] my people Israel and you yourself will become leader[•] over my people Israel.' " [3] So all the older men of Israel came to the king at He'bron and David concluded a covenant[#] with them in He'bron before Jehovah, after which they anointed[k] David as king over Israel, according to Jehovah's word[n] by means of Samuel.[r]

4 Later David and all Israel went to Jerusalem,[s] that is to say, Je'bus,[t] where the Jeb'usites[u] were the inhabitants of the land. [5] And the inhabitants of Je'bus began to say to David: "You will not come in here."[v] Just the same, David proceeded to capture the stronghold of Zion,[y] that is to say, the city of David.[z] [6] So David said: "Anyone striking[*] the Jeb'u·sites first, he will become head and prince." And Jo'ab[□] the son of Ze·ru'iah got to go up first, and he came to be head. [7] And David took up dwelling in the place difficult to approach.[△] That is why they called it the city of David.[◊] [8] And he began to build the city all around, from the Mound[+] to the surrounding, but Jo'ab himself brought to life[⊕] the rest of the city. [9] And David went on getting greater and greater,[×] for Jehovah of armies was with him.[#]

10 Now these are the heads of the mighty[k] men that belonged to David, holding strongly with him in his kingship[n] together with all Israel, to make him king according to Jehovah's word[r] concerning Israel. [11] And this is the list of the mighty men that belonged to David: Ja·sho'be·am[s] the son of a Hach'mon·ite, the head of the three.[a] He was brandishing his spear over three hundred slain at one time. [12] And after him there was E·le·a′zar[t] the son of Do′do[u] the A·ho′hite.[v] He was among the three mighty men.[y] [13] He it was that happened to be with David at Pas-dam′mim,[z] where the Phi·lis′tines had gathered themselves together for war. Now there happened to be a tract of the field full of barley, and the people, for their part, had fled because of the Phi·lis′tines.[*] [14] But he[a] took his stand in the middle of the tract[□] and delivered[○] it and kept striking down the Phi·lis′tines, so that Jehovah saved[△] with a great salvation.[◊]

15 And three of the thirty[+] head ones proceeded to go down to the rock,[⊙] to David at the cave of A·dul′lam,[⊕] while a camp of the Phi·lis′tines was camping in the low plain[×] of Reph′a·im.[#] [16] And David was then in the place hard to approach,[k] and a garrison of the Phi·lis′tines[n] was then in Beth′le·hem. [17] After a while David showed his craving and said: "Oh that I might have a drink[r] of the water[○] from the cistern of Beth′le·hem,[s] which is at the gate!" [18] At that the three forced their way into the camp of the Phi·lis′tines[l] and drew water from the cistern of Beth′le·hem, which is at the gate, and came carrying and bringing it to David.[t] And David did not consent to drink it, but poured it out to Jehovah.[u] [19] And he went on to say: "It is unthinkable[v] on my part, as regards my God, to do this! Is it the blood[⊙][y] of these men that I should drink at the risk[l] of their souls?[b] For it was at the risk of their souls[b][z] that they brought it." And he did not consent to drink it.[*] These are the things that the three mighty men did.

20 As for A·bish′ai[□] the brother of Jo′ab,[△] he himself became head of the three, and he was brandishing his spear over three hundred slain, and he had a reputation like the three.[a] [21] Of the three[b] he was more distinguished than the two others and he came to be a chief to them, and yet up to the three he did not come.[◊]

22 As for Be·nai′ah[+] the son of Je·hoi′a·da,[⊕] the son of a valiant man, who did many deeds in Kab′ze·el,[×] he himself struck down the two [sons] of Ar′i·el of Mo′ab, and he himself descended and struck down a lion[○][#] inside a waterpit in the day of snowfall. [23] And he it was that struck down the Egyptian man, a man of extraordinary size, of five cubits.[k] And in the hand of the Egyptian there was a spear[n] like the beam of loom workers, yet he went on down to him with a rod and snatched the spear away from the Egyptian's hand and killed him with his own spear.[s] [24] These things Be·nai′ah the son of Je·hoi′a·da did, and he had a name among the three mighty men. [25] Although he was more distinguished than the thirty, yet to the rank of the three he did not come.[t] However, David put him over his own guard.[u]

[a] "The [true] God." M, ha-El·o·him′; LXX, ho The·os′; Vg, De′us; Sy, "Jehovah." [b] "Al′a·moth." Evidently a term of musical execution not explained. Probably meaning "(the voice of) young women," either literally or the soprano or the falsetto of boys. [c] "Shem′i·nith." Literally, "the eighth." Possibly referring to the eighth key or to the octave, a lower octave. [d] "[He] giving instruction." The Hebrew verb here is in the infinitive absolute and hence is impersonal and indefinite as to time.

Josh′a·phat and Ne·than′el and A·ma′sai and Zech·a·ri′ah and Be·nai′ah and E·li·e′zer the priests loudly sounding the trumpets[t] before the ark of The [true] God,[a] and O′bed-e′dom and Je·hi′ah the gatekeepers for the Ark.

25 And David[u] and the older men of Israel[v] and the chiefs[y] of the thousands came to be the ones walking along to bring up the ark of the covenant of Jehovah from the house of O′bed-e′dom[z] with rejoicing.[] [26] And it came about when The [true] God[a] helped the Levites while carrying[□] the ark of the covenant of Jehovah that they proceeded to sacrifice[△] seven young bulls and seven rams. [27] And David was dressed in a sleeveless coat of fine fabric,[◊] and also all the Levites carrying the Ark and the singers and Chen·a·ni′ah[+] the chief of the carrying by the singers;[⊕] but upon David there was an eph′od[×] of linen.[⊙] [28] And all the Israelites were bringing up[#] the ark of the covenant of Jehovah with joyful shouting[k] and with the sounding of the horn[n] and with trumpets[○][r] and with cymbals,[s] playing aloud on string instruments[t] and harps.[u] [29] And it came about that, when the ark of the covenant[v] of Jehovah came as far as the city of David,[y] Mi′chal,[z] Saul's daughter, herself looked down through the window and got to see King David skipping about and celebrating,[] and she began to despise[□] him in her heart.

16 Thus they brought the ark[⊚] of The [true] God[b] in[△] and placed it inside the tent that David had pitched for it,[◊] and they began to present burnt offerings and communion offerings before The [true] God.[a][•] [2] When David finished offering up the burnt offering[‡] and the communion offerings,[·] he went on to bless[#] the people in the name of Jehovah.[⊚][k] [3] Further, he apportioned[n] to all the Israelites, man as well as woman, to each one a ring-shaped[r] cake of bread[○] and a date cake[n] and a raisin cake.[n] [4] Then he put before the ark of Jehovah some of the Levites[s] as ministers,[t] both to call to remembrance[u] and to thank[v] and praise[y] Jehovah the God of Israel, [5] A′saph[*] the head, and second to him Zech·a·ri′ah,[□] and Je·i′el and She·mir′a·moth[□] and Je·hi′el[□] and Mat·ti·thi′ah[□] and E·li′ab[□] and Be·nai′ah[□] and O′bed-e′dom[□] and Je·i′el,[□] with instruments of the string type and with harps,[△] and A′saph[◊] with the cymbals playing aloud,[+] [6] and Be·nai′ah and Ja·ha·zi′el the priests with the trumpets[‡] constantly before the ark of the covenant of The [true] God.[b]

7 It was then on that day that David made a contribution[·] for the first time to thank[#] Jehovah by means of A′saph[k] and his brothers:

[8] "THANK Jehovah,[n] call upon his name,[r]
Make his deeds known among the peoples![s]
[9] "Sing[○] to him, make melody to him,[t]
Talk of all his wonderful acts.[u]
[10] "Make YOUR boast in his holy[⊚] name,[v]
Let the heart of those seeking Jehovah rejoice.[y]
[11] "Search after Jehovah and his strength,[z] Seek his face constantly.[*] [12] "Remember[○] his wonderful acts that he has performed,[□]

two thousand chariots[v] and the king of Ma'a·cah[y] and his people. And they proceeded to come in and camp before Med'e·ba,[z] and the sons of Am'mon themselves gathered together from their cities and then came in for the war.

8 When David heard of it, he immediately sent Jo'ab[] and all the army [and] the mighty men.[a][□] [9] And the sons of Am'mon began to go out and draw up in battle formation[△] at the entrance of the city,[l] and the kings[◊] that had come were by themselves in the open field. [10] When Jo'ab saw that the battle charges[b] had come to be against him from the front[+] and from the rear, he at once chose some of all the choice men in Israel and drew them up in formation to meet the Syrians.[⊖] [11] And the rest of the people he gave into the hand of A·bish'ai[×] his brother, that they might draw up in formation to meet the sons of Am'mon.[#] [12] And he went on to say: "If the Syrians[k] become too strong for me, then you must serve as a salvation for me,[n] but if the sons of Am'mon themselves become too strong for you, then I must save you.[r] [13] Be strong,[s] that we may show ourselves courageous in behalf of our people and in behalf of the cities of our God,[t] and, as for Jehovah, what is good in his own eyes he will do."[u] [14] Then Jo'ab and the people that were with him advanced before the Syrians to the battle,[v] and they took to flight[y] because of him. [15] As for the sons of Am'mon, they saw that the Syrians had fled,[z] and they themselves also took to flight because of A·bish'ai his brother and then came into the city.[] Later Jo'ab came into Jerusalem.

20 And it came about at the time of the year's return,[s] at the time that kings sally forth,[t] that Jo'ab[u] proceeded to lead the combat force of the army[C] and lay the land of the sons of Am'mon in ruin[v] and to come and besiege Rab'bah,[y] while David was dwelling in Jerusalem, and Jo'ab went on to strike[z] Rab'bah and throw it down. [2] And David got to take the crown of Mal'cam[c] off its head,[*] and then found it to be a talent of gold in weight, and in it there were precious stones,[d] and it came to be on David's head. And the spoil of the city that he brought out was very much.[□] [3] And the people come to be upon me[#] and my father's house,[k] but not upon your people,[n] for a scourge."[r]

18 And Jehovah's angel,[s] for his part, said to Gad[t] to say to David that David should go up to erect an altar to Jehovah on the threshing floor of Or'nan the Jeb'u·site.[u] [19] Accordingly David went up[v] at the word of Gad that he had spoken in the name[◎] of Jehovah.[y] [20] Meantime, Or'nan[z] turned back and saw the angel, and his four sons with him were hiding themselves.[•] Now Or'nan had been threshing[□] wheat.[○] [21] So David came as far as Or'nan. When Or'nan looked and saw David,[△] he immediately went out of the threshing floor[◊] and bowed down to David with his face to the earth.[+] [22] Then David said to Or'nan: "Do give me the place of the threshing floor, that I may build in it an altar to Jehovah. For the money[⊕] in full give it to me,[×] that the scourge[#] may be halted from upon the people." [23] But Or'nan said to David: "Take it as your own,[k] and let my lord the king do what is good in his own eyes. See, I do give the cattle[n] for burnt offerings and the threshing[r] sledge for the wood[s] and the wheat as a grain offering. The whole I do give."[t]

24 However, King David said to Or'nan: "No, but without fail I shall make the purchase for the money in full,[u] because I shall not carry what is yours[v] to Jehovah to offer up burnt sacrifices without cost."[y] [25] So David gave Or'nan for the place gold shekels to the weight of six hundred.[z] [26] Then David built there an altar[•] to Jehovah and offered up burnt sacrifices[□] and communion[◎] offerings,[△] and he proceeded to call upon Jehovah,[◊] who then answered him with fire[+] from the heavens upon the altar of burnt offering. [27] Moreover, Jehovah[○] said the word to the angel,[⊕] who accordingly returned his sword to its sheath.[×] [28] At that time, when David saw that Jehovah had answered him at the threshing floor of Or'nan the Jeb'u·site, he continued to sacrifice there.[#] [29] But the tabernacle[k] of Jehovah that Moses had made in the wilderness and the altar of burnt offering were at that time on the high place at Gib'e·on.[n] [30] And David had not been able to go before it to consult God,[a] for he had been terrified[r] because of the sword of Jehovah's angel.

29 As for the rest of the affairs of Sol′o·mon,[△] the first and the last, are they not written among the words of Nathan[◊] the prophet and in the prophecy of A·hi′jah[+] the Shi′lo·nite[⊕] and in the record of visions of Id′do[b][×] the seer concerning Jer·o·bo′am[#] the son of Ne′bat?[k] [30] And Sol′o·mon continued to reign in Jerusalem over all Israel for forty years.[n] [31] Finally Sol′o·mon lay down with his forefathers.[r] So they buried him in the city of David his father,[s] and Re·ho·bo′am[t] his son began to reign in place of him.[u]

10 And Re·ho·bo′am[v] proceeded to go to She′chem,[y] for it was to She′chem that all[z] the Israelites came to make him king. take counsel[t] with the older men that were continually attending upon Sol'o·mon his father while he continued alive, saying: "How are YOU advising to reply to this people?"[u] [7] Accordingly they spoke to him, saying: "If you would prove yourself good to this people and actually be pleasing to them[v] and indeed speak good words to them,[y] then they will certainly become your servants for always."[z]

8 However, he left the counsel[*] of the older men with which they had advised him and he began to take counsel with the young men that had grown up with him,[□] who were the ones attending upon him.[△] [9] And he went on to say to them: "What is it that YOU are offering in counsel[◊] that we may reply to this people who have spoken to me, saying, 'Make the yoke that your father put upon us lighter'?"[+] [10] In turn the young men that had grown up with him spoke with him, saying: "This is what you should say[⊕] to the people who have spoken to you, saying, 'Your father, for his part, made our yoke heavy, but, as for you, make it lighter upon us,' this is what you should say to them,[×] 'My own little finger will certainly be thicker than my father's hips.[#] [11] And now my father, for his part, loaded upon YOU a heavy yoke, but I, for my part, shall add to YOUR yoke.[k] My father, for his part, chastised YOU with whips,[n] but I, for my part, with scourges.' "[r]

12 And Jer·o·bo'am and all the people proceeded to come to Re·ho·bo'am on the third day, just as the king had spoken, saying: "Return to me on the third day."[s] [13] And the king began to answer them harshly.[t] Thus King Re·ho·bo'am left the counsel[u] of the older men,[v] [14] and he

YOUR yoke heavier, and I, for my part, shall add to it. My father, for his part, chastised YOU with whips, but I, for my part, with scourges."[z] [15] And the king did not listen to the people, for it proved to be a turn of affairs from The [true] God[a][•] in order that Jehovah might carry out his word[□] that he had spoken by means of A·hi'jah[b][△] the Shi'lo·nite[l] to Jer·o·bo'am[◊] the son of Ne'bat.[◊]

16 As for all Israel, because the king did not king, saying: "What share do we have in David?[+]

And there is no inheritance in the son of Jes'se.[⊕] Each one to your gods,[c] O Israel![×] Now see to your own house, O David."[#] With that all Israel began to go to its tents.

17 As for the sons of Israel that were dwell-
to reign over them.[n] [18] Subsequently King Re-ho·bo'am sent Ha·do'ram,[d][r] who was over those conscripted[l] for forced labor, but the sons of Israel pelted him with stones,[s] so that he died.
And King Re·ho·bo'am himself managed to get up into his chariot to flee to Jerusalem.[t] [19] And the Israelites kept up their revolt[u] against the house of David down to this day.[v]

See 2 Samuel 20 : 1, footnote a, and 1 Kings 12 : 16, footnote a. [d] See Ad·o·ni'ram, in 1 Kings 4 : 6, and A·do'ram, in 1 Kings 12 : 18.

11 When Re·ho·bo'am arrived at Jerusalem[y] he immediately called together the house of Judah and Benjamin,[z] a hundred and eighty thousand choice men able-bodied for war,[*] to fight against Israel so as to bring the kingdom back to Re·ho·bo'am. 2 Then the word of Jehovah came to She·mai'ah[a□] the man of God,[b△] saying: 3 "Say to Re·ho·bo'am the son of Sol'o·mon the king of Judah[◊] and to all Israel[+] in Judah and Benjamin, saying, 4 'This is what Jehovah has said: "YOU must not go up and fight against YOUR brothers.[⊕] Return each one to his house, for it is at my own instance that this thing has been brought about."' "[#] So they obeyed[⊙] the word of Jehovah and returned[k] from going against Jer·o·bo'am.[n]

5 And Re·ho·bo'am continued to dwell in Jerusalem and proceeded to build fortified cities[r] in Judah. 6 Thus he rebuilt Beth'le·hem[○s] and E'tam[t] and Te·ko'a,[u] 7 and Beth-zur[v] and So'co[y] and A·dul'lam,[z] 8 and Gath[*] and Ma·re'shah[□] and Ziph,[△] 9 and Ad·o·ra'im and La'chish[◊] and A·ze'kah,[+] 10 and Zo'rah[⊕] and Ai'ja·lon[×] and He'bron,[#] fortified cities, which were in Judah and Benjamin. 11 Further, he reinforced the fortified places[k] and put leaders[n] in them and supplies of food and oil and wine, 12 and in all the different cities large shields[r] and lances,[s] and he went on reinforcing them to a very great degree. And Judah and Benjamin continued his.

Levites left their pasture grounds[u] and their property[v] and then came to Judah and Jerusalem, because Jer·o·bo'am[y] and his sons had discharged them from acting as priests to Jehovah.[○] 15 And he proceeded to put in office for himself priests for the high places[z] and for the goat-shaped demons[a*] and for the calves that he had made.[□] 16 And following them from all the tribes of Israel those that were giving their heart to seek Jehovah the God of Israel came themselves to Jerusalem[◊] to sacrifice[•] to Jehovah the God of their forefathers. 17 And they kept strengthening the kingship of Judah[⊖] and confirming Re·ho·bo'am the son of Sol'o·mon for three years, for they walked in the way of David and Sol'o·mon for three years.[×]

9 So Shi′shak[t] the king of Egypt came up against Jerusalem and took the treasures of the house of Jehovah[u] and the treasures of the king′s house.[v] Everything he took,[y] and he went on to take the gold shields that Sol′o·mon had made.[z] [10] Consequently King Re·ho·bo′am made in their place copper shields,[*] and he committed them to the control of the chiefs of the runners,[□] the guards[△] of the entrance of the king′s house.[◊] [11] And it would occur that as often as the king came to the house of Jehovah the runners came in and carried them and returned them to the guard chamber of the runners.[+] [12] And because he humbled himself Jehovah′s anger turned back from him[⊕] and he [did] not [think] of bringing them to ruin completely.[×] And, besides, there happened to be good things in Judah.[#]

13 And King Re·ho·bo′am continued to make his position strong in Jerusalem and kept reigning, for Re·ho·bo′am[k] was forty-one years old when he began to reign and for seventeen years he reigned in Jerusalem, the city[n] that Jehovah had chosen out of all the tribes of Israel to put his name there.[r] And his mother′s name was Na′a·mah[s] the Am′mon·it·ess.[t] [14] But he did what was bad,[u] for he had not firmly established his heart to search for Jehovah.[v]

15 As for Re·ho·bo′am′s affairs,[y] the first and the last,[z] are they not written among the words of She·mai′ah[*] the prophet and of Id′do[□] the seer by genealogical enrollment? And there were wars[△] between Re·ho·bo′am[◊] and Jer·o·bo′am[+] all the time. [16] Finally Re·ho·bo′am lay down with his forefathers[l] and was buried in the city of David,[⊕] and A·bi′jah[a][×] his son began to reign in place of him.

13 In the eighteenth year of King Jer·o·bo′am[#] it was that A·bi′jah[a] began to reign over Judah.[k] [2] Three years he reigned in Jerusalem, and his mother's name was Mi·cai′ah[b][n] the daughter of U·ri′el of Gib′e·ah.[r] And war itself took place between A·bi′jah[a] and Jer·o·bo′am.[s]

14 Finally A·bi′jah lay down with his forefathers,[⊕] and they buried him in the city of David,[×] and A′sa[#] his son began to reign in place of him. In his days the land had no disturbance[k] for ten years.[a]

2 And A′sa proceeded to do what was good and right in the eyes of Jehovah his God. [6] And he went on to build fortified cities in Judah,[◊] for the land had no disturbance[+] and there was no war against him during these years, for Jehovah gave him rest.[⊕] [7] So he said to Judah: "Let us build these cities and make walls[×] around and towers,[○][#] double doors[k] and bars.[n] For us the land is yet available, because we have searched for Jehovah our God.[r] We have searched and he gives us rest all around."[s] And they went building and proving successful.[t]

8 And A′sa came to have a military force bearing the large shield[u] and lance,[v] three hundred thousand out of Judah.[y] And out of Benjamin[⊕] those bearing the buckler[z] and bending the bow[*] were two hundred and eighty thousand. All these were valiant, mighty men.[□]

[a] Chapter 13 of the Hebrew text ends here. [b] Literally, "the altars of the foreignness [or, foreign country]," M. [c] Or, "the A·she′rahs."

O Jehovah, you are our God.[r] Do not let mortal man[d] retain strength against you."[s]

12 At that Jehovah defeated[t] the E·thi·o′pi·ans before A′sa and before Judah and the E·thi·o′pi·ans took to flight. 13 And A′sa and the people that were with him kept pursuing them as far as Ge′rar,[u] and those of the E·thi·o′pi·ans continued falling down till there was no one alive of them, for they were broken to pieces before Jehovah[v] and before his camp.[y] Afterward they carried off a very great deal of spoil.[z] 14 Further, they struck all the cities round about Ge′rar, for the dread[•] of Jehovah had come to be upon them, and they went plundering all the cities, for there happened to be much to plunder in them.[□] 15 And even the tents[△] with livestock they struck so that they took captive[◊] flocks in great number and camels,[+] after which they returned to Jerusalem.

16 In the thirty-sixth year of the reign of A′sa, Ba′a·sha[k] the king of Israel came up against Judah and began to build Ra′mah,[n] so as not to allow anyone to go out or come in to A′sa the king of Judah.[r] [2] A′sa now brought out silver and gold from the treasures of Jehovah's house[s] and the king's house[t] and sent to Ben-ha′dad[u] the king of Syria,[v] who was dwelling at Damascus,[y] saying: [3] "There is a covenant[z] between me and you and between my father and your father.[•] Here I do send you silver and gold. Go, break[□] your covenant with Ba′a·sha[+] the king of Israel, that he may withdraw from me."[⊕]

4 So Ben-ha′dad listened to King A′sa and sent the chiefs of the military forces that were his against the cities of Israel[×] and they struck I′jon[#] and Dan[k] and A′bel-ma′im[n] and all the storage places[r] of the cities of Naph′ta·li.[○s] [5] And it came about that as soon as Ba′a·sha heard of it he immediately quit building Ra′mah and stopped his work.[t] [6] As for A′sa the king, he took all Judah[u] and they proceeded to carry away the stones of Ra′mah[v] and its timbers with which Ba′a·sha had built[y] and he began to build with them Ge′ba[z] and Miz′pah.[•]

7 And at that time Ha·na′ni[□] the seer came to A′sa the king of Judah and then said to him: "Because you leaned[△] upon the king of Syria and did not lean upon Jehovah your God,[◊] for 10 However, A'sa became offended at the seer and put him in the house of the stocks,[v] because he was in a rage at him over this.[y] And A'sa began to crush some others of the people at that same time. [11] And, look! the affairs of A'sa,[z] the first and the last, there they are written in the Book of the Kings of Judah[*] and of Israel.

12 And A'sa in the thirty-ninth year of his reign developed an ailment in his feet[l] until he was very sick,[□] and even in his sickness he searched not for Jehovah but for the healers.[⊙△] [13] Finally A'sa lay down with his forefathers[◇] and died in the forty-first year of his reigning. he did not turn aside from it by doing what was right in Jehovah's eyes.[t] 33 Only the high places[u] themselves did not disappear[v] and the people themselves had not yet prepared their heart for the God of their forefathers.[y]

34 As for the rest of the affairs[z] of Je·hosh'a·phat, the first and the last,[*] there they are written among the words of Je'hu[□] the son of Ha·na'ni,[△] which were inserted in the Book[◊] of the Kings of Israel. 35 And after this Je·hosh'a·phat the king of Judah had partnership with A·ha·zi'ah[+] the king of Israel, who acted wickedly.[⊕] 36 So he made him a partner with himself in making ships[○] to go to Tar'shish[×] and they made ships in E'zi·on-ge'ber.[#] 37 However, E·li·e'zer the son of Dod·av'a·hu of Ma·re'sha spoke prophetically against Je·hosh'a·phat, saying: "Inasmuch as you have had partnership with A·ha·zi'ah,[k] Jehovah will certainly break down your works."[n] Accordingly the ships were wrecked[r] and they did not retain strength to go to Tar'shish.[s]

21 Finally Je·hosh'a·phat lay down with his forefathers[t] and was buried with his forefathers[u] in the city of David, and Je·ho'ram[v] his son began to reign in place of him. 2 And he had brothers, Je·hosh'a·phat's sons, Az·a·ri'ah[a] and Je·hi'el and Zech·a·ri'ah and Az·a·ri'ah[b] and Mi'cha·el and Sheph·a·ti'ah, all these being the sons of Je·hosh'a·phat the king of Israel.[c] 3 Consequently their father gave them many gifts[⊙][y] in silver and in gold and in choice things along with fortified cities in Judah,[z] and the kingdom he gave to Je·ho'ram,[*] for he was the first-born.[□]

4 When Je·ho'ram rose up over the kingdom of his father he proceeded to make his position strong, and so he killed all his brothers[△] with the sword and also some of the princes[◊] of Israel. [5] Thirty-two years old Je·ho'ram was when he began to reign, and for eight years he reigned[•] in Jerusalem. [6] And he went on walking in the way of the kings of Israel,[⊕] just as those of the house of A'hab had done, for A'hab's own daughter had become his wife,[×] and he continued to do what was bad in Jehovah's eyes.[#] [7] And Jehovah did not want to bring the house of David to ruin,[k] for the sake of the covenant[n] that he had concluded with David and just as he had said he would give him[r] and his sons a lamp[s] always.

8 In his days E'dom[t] revolted from under the hand of Judah[u] and then made a king to reign over them.[v] [9] So Je·ho'ram together with his chiefs passed over and also all the chariots with him. And it came about that he rose up by night and went striking down the E'dom·ites that were surrounding him and also the chiefs of the chariots. [10] But E'dom kept up its revolt from under the hand[○] of Judah down to this day.[y] It was then that Lib'nah[z] began to revolt at the same time from under his hand because he had left[•] Jehovah the God of his forefathers.[□] [11] He himself also had made high[⊙] places[△] on the mountains[○] of Judah, that he might cause[◊] the inhabitants of Jerusalem to have unfaithful intercourse[•] and that he might drive Judah away.[⊕]

12 Eventually there came a writing[×] to him from E·li'jah[a][#] the prophet,[⊙] saying: "This is what Jehovah the God of David your forefather

16 Accordingly Jehovah aroused[◊] against Je·ho'ram the spirit[+] of the Phi·lis'tines[⊕] and the Arabs[×] that were by the side[a] of the E·thi·o'pi·ans.[b][#] [17] So they came up into Judah and forced it open[k] and took captive all the property[n] that was to be found in the king's house and also his sons[r] and his wives,[s] and there was not left to him a son but Je·ho'a·haz,[t] his youngest son. [18] And after all this Jehovah plagued him in his intestines with a disease for which there was no healing.[u] [19] And it came about that in the days to come, even when the term of two full years had expired, his intestines[v] came out along with his disease and he gradually died in his bad maladies, and his people did not make a burning for him like the burning[y] for his forefathers. 22 Then the inhabitants[◊] of Jerusalem made A.ha.zi'ah[a][+] his youngest son king in place of him, (for the marauder band that came with the Arabs[⊕] to the camp had killed all the older ones,)[×] and A.ha.zi'ah[a] the son of Je.ho'ram began to reign as king of Judah. king of Judah, he went down to see Je.ho'ram[×] the son of A'hab in Jez're.el, for he was sick.[#] [7] But it was from God[k] that the downfall[n] of A.ha.zi'ah occurred by [his] coming to Je.ho'ram,[a] and when he came he went out[r] with Je.ho'ram to Je'hu[s] the grandson[b] of Nim'shi,[t] whom Jehovah had anointed[⊙][u] to cut off the house of A'hab.[v] [8] And it came about that as soon as Je'hu had entered into controversy with the house of A'hab[y] he got to find the princes of Judah and the sons of the brothers of A.ha.zi'ah,[z] ministers of A.ha.zi'ah, and he proceeded to kill them.[] [9] Then he went looking for A.ha.zi'ah and they finally captured him,[□] as he was hiding in Sa.mar'i.a,[△] and brought him to Je'hu. 16 Then Je·hoi'a·da concluded a covenant[y] between himself[a] and all the people[z] and the king[] that they would continue as the people[□] of Jehovah. 17 After that all the people came to the house of Ba'al[⊙][△] and pulled it down,[◊] and his altars[+] and his images[○] they broke up[⊕] and Mat'·tan[×] the priest[⊚] of Ba'al they killed[#] before the altars. 18 Further, Je·hoi'a·da put the offices of the house of Jehovah[×] in the hand of the priests [and] the Levites,[b] whom David[k] had put in divisions over the house of Jehovah to offer up the burnt sacrifices of Jehovah according to what is written in the law of Moses,[n] with gladness and with song by the hands of David.[r] 19 So he stationed the gatekeepers[s] by the gates[t] of the house of Jehovah that no one unclean in any respect might enter. 20 He now took the chiefs of hundreds[u] and the lordly ones and the rulers over the people and all the people of the land and brought the king down from the house of Jehovah.[v] Then they came right through the upper gate to the king's house and seated the king upon the throne[y] of the kingdom. 21 And all the people of the land continued to rejoice,[z]

26 Then all the people[k] of Judah took Uz·zi'ah,[a][n] he being sixteen years old, and they made[r] him king in place of his father Am·a·zi'ah.[s] [2] He it was that rebuilt E'loth[t] and then restored it to Judah after the king had lain down with his forefathers.[u] [3] Sixteen years old Uz·zi'ah[a][v] was when he began to reign, and for fifty-two years he reigned in Jerusalem. 9 And there happened to be a prophet[k] of Jehovah there whose name was O'ded. So he went out before the army[○] that was coming to Sa·mar'i·a and said to them: "Look! it was because of the rage[n] of Jehovah the God of your forefathers against Judah that he gave them into YOUR hand, so that YOU did a killing among them with a raging[r] that has reached clear to the heavens.[s] [10] And now the sons of Judah and of Jerusalem YOU are thinking[a] of reducing to menservants[t] and maidservants for yourselves. 12 At that [certain] men of the heads[z] of the sons of E'phra·im,[] Az·a·ri'ah the son of Je·ho·ha'nan, Ber·e·chi'ah the son of Me·shil'le·moth and Je·hiz·ki'ah the son of Shal'lum and A·ma'sa the son of Had'lai, rose up against those coming in from the military campaign, [13] and they said to them: "YOU must not bring in the captives here, for it will result in guilt[□] against Jehovah on our part. YOU are thinking[a] of adding to our sins and to our guilt, for great is the guilt we have[△] and there is burning anger[◊] against Israel." [17] And once again the E'dom·ites[□] themselves came in and went striking down Judah and carrying off captives.[△] [18] As for the Phi·lis'tines,[◊] they made a raid upon the cities of the She·phe'lah[a][+] and the Neg'eb[b][⊕] of Judah and got to capture Beth-she'mesh[×] and Ai'ja·lon[#] and Ge·de'roth[k] and So'co[n] and its dependent towns and Tim'nah[r] and its dependent towns and Gim'zo and its dependent towns, and they took up dwelling there. [19] For Jehovah humbled[s] Judah on account of A'haz[t] the king of Israel,[c][u] because he let unrestraint grow in Judah[v] and there was an acting with great unfaithfulness[d] toward Jehovah. [20] Eventually Til'gath-pil·ne'ser[y] the king of As·syr'i·a came against him and caused him distress,[z] and did not strengthen him. [21] For A'haz stripped the house of Jehovah[] and the house of the king[□] and of the princes[△] and thus made a gift to the king of As·syr'i·a,[◊] but it was of no assistance to him. [22] However, at the time that he was causing him distress[+] he acted unfaithfully still more toward Jehovah, that is, King A'haz did.[⊕] [23] And he began to sacrifice to the gods[×] of Damascus[#] that were striking him and he went on to say: "Because the gods of the kings of Syria are helping them,[k] to them I shall sacrifice, that they may help me."[n] And they themselves became to him a cause for making him and all Israel stagger.[r] [24] Furthermore, A'haz gathered together the utensils[s] of the house of The [true] God[a] and cut to pieces the utensils of the house of The [true] God[a][t] and closed the doors[u] of the house of Jehovah and made altars[○] for himself at every corner in Jerusalem.[v] [25] And in all cities, even the cities of Judah, he made high places[y] for making sacrificial smoke to other gods,[z] so that he offended[•] Jehovah the God of his forefathers.

26 As for the rest of his affairs[□] and all his ways, the first and the last,[△] there they are written in the Book[◊] of the Kings of Judah and of Israel. 29 Hez·e·ki'ah[b][×] himself became king at the age of twenty-five years, and for twenty-nine years he reigned in Jerusalem.[#] And his mother's name was A·bi'jah[#] the daughter of Zech·a·ri'ah.[#] [2] And he kept doing what was right in Jehovah's eyes,[k] according to all that David his forefather had done.[n] [3] He himself, in the first year of his reigning, in the first month, opened the doors[r] of the house of Jehovah and began to repair them.[s] [4] Then he brought the [15] Then they gathered their brothers together and sanctified[s] themselves and came according to the king's commandment in the words[t] of Jehovah,[○] to cleanse[u] the house of Jehovah. In turn the Levites received it to take it out to the torrent valley of Kid'ron[*] outside. [17] Thus they got started on the first [day] of the first month at sanctifying and on the eighth day of the month they came to the porch[□] of Jehovah, so that they sanctified the house of Jehovah in eight days, and on the sixteenth day of the first[△] month they finished.

18 After that they came inside to Hez·e·ki'ah the king and said: "We have cleansed the whole house[◇] of Jehovah, the altar[+] of burnt offering and all its utensils,[⊕] and the table[×] of the layer bread and all its utensils.[#] [19] And all the utensils[k] that King A'haz[n] removed from employment during his reign in his unfaithfulness[r] we have prepared and have sanctified[s] them, and there they are before the altar of Jehovah."

20 And Hez·e·ki'ah[a][t] the king proceeded to get up early[u] and gather the princes[v] of the city together and go up to the house of Jehovah. [21] And they came bringing seven bulls[y] and seven rams[z] and seven male lambs[] and seven he-goats[⊕][□] as a sin[○] offering[△] for the kingdom and for the sanctuary and for Judah. So he said to the sons of Aaron the priests[◇] to offer them up upon the altar of Jehovah. the trumpets were blaring[t]—all this until the burnt offering was finished. [29] And as soon as they finished offering it up, the king and all those found with him bowed low and prostrated themselves.[u] [30] Hez·e·ki′ah[a] the king and the princes[v] now said to the Levites to praise Jehovah in the words of David[y] and of A′saph[z] the seer. So they began to offer praise even with rejoicing,[] and they kept bending down and prostrating themselves.[□]

31 Finally Hez·e·ki′ah[a] answered and said: "Now YOU have filled[△] YOUR hand with power for Jehovah. Approach, and bring sacrifices[◊] and thanksgiving[+] sacrifices to the house of Jehovah." And the congregation[b] began to bring sacrifices and thanksgiving sacrifices, and also every one willing of heart, burnt offerings.[⊕] [32] And the number of the burnt offerings that the congregation[b] brought came to be seventy cattle, a hundred rams, two hundred male lambs—all these as a burnt offering to Jehovah;[×] [33] and also the holy offerings, six hundred cattle and three thousand of the flock. [34] Only the priests[#] themselves happened to be too few and they were not able to skin all the burnt offerings.[k] So their brothers[n] the Levites helped them out until the work was finished[r] and until the priests could sanctify themselves, for the Levites[s] were more upright[t] of heart for sanctifying themselves than the priests. [a] "Deliver." The verb here in M is in the plural number in agreement with its subject "God" (El·o·him′), which is in the plural of majesty and divine powers. [b] "The [true] God." M, ha-El·o·him′, the definite article ha ("The") preceding the title El·o·him′ for emphasis. [c] M, Yᵉhhiz·qi·ia′hu. [d] Yᵉsha'ia′hu, M; meaning "Salvation of Yah(u)." LXX, "E·sai′as"; Vg, "I·sai′as." [e] "God." him with the sword.[s] 22 Thus Jehovah saved Hez·e·ki′ah[a] and the inhabitants of Jerusalem out of the hand of Sen·nach′er·ib the king of As·syr′i·a[t] and out of the hand of all others and gave them rest all around.[u] 23 And there were many bringing gifts[v] to Jehovah at Jerusalem and choice things to Hez·e·ki′ah[a] the king of Judah,[y] and he came to be exalted[z] in the eyes of all the nations after that.

24 In those days Hez·e·ki′ah[a] fell sick to the point of dying[*] and he began to pray[□] to Jehovah. So He talked to him,[△] and a token[◊] He gave him. 25 But according to the benefit rendered him Hez·e·ki′ah[a] made no return,[+] for his heart[⊙] became haughty[⊕] and there came to be indignation[×] against him and against Judah and Jerusalem. 26 However, Hez·e·ki′ah[a] humbled[#] himself for the haughtiness of his heart, he and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and Jehovah's indignation did not come upon them in the days[k] of Hez·e·ki′ah.[a]

27 And Hez·e·ki′ah[a] came to have riches and glory to a very great amount,[n] and storehouses[r] he made for himself for silver and for gold[s] and for precious stones[t] and for balsam oil[u] and for shields[v] and for all the desirable articles;[y] 28 and also storage[z] places for the produce of grain and new wine[l] and oil, and also stalls[*] for all the different sorts of beasts and stalls for the droves. 29 And cities he acquired for himself, and also livestock of the flock[□] and of the herd[△] in abundance, for God gave him very many goods.[◊] 30 And Hez·e·ki′ah[a] was the one that stopped up[+] the upper source of the waters[⊕] of Gi′hon[×] and kept them directed straight along down to the the hand of the doers[a] of the work that were appointed over[b] the house of Jehovah.[y] In turn the doers of the work who were active in the house of Jehovah applied it to mending and repairing the house. [11] So they gave it to the craftsmen and the builders[z] to buy hewn stones[•] and timbers for clamps and to build with beams the houses that the kings[□] of Judah had brought to ruin.

12 And the men were acting in faithfulness[△] in the work, and over them there were appointed Ja′hath and O·ba·di′ah the Levites, from the sons of Me·rar′i,[◊] and Zech·a·ri′ah and Me·shul′lam, from the sons of the Ko′hath·ites,[+] to act as overseers. 14 Now while they were bringing out the money[t] that was being brought to the house of Jehovah, Hil·ki′ah[c][u] the priest found the book[v] of Jehovah's law[⊙][y] by the hand of Moses.[z] [15] So Hil·ki′ah[c] answered and said to Sha′phan[•] the secretary:[⊏] "The very book of the law I have found in the house of Jehovah." With that Hil·ki′ah[c] gave the book to Sha′phan. secretary went on to report to the king, saying:
"There is a book[⊕] that Hil·ki′ah[a] the priest gave me."[×] And Sha′phan began to read out of it before the king.[#]

19 And it came about that as soon as the king heard the words[k] of the law he immediately ripped his clothes apart.[n] 20 Then the king commanded Hil·ki′ah[a][r] and A·hi′kam[s] the son of Sha′phan and Ab′don the son of Mi′cah and Sha′phan[t] the secretary[u] and A·sai′ah[v] the Jehovah's rage[△] that must be poured out against us because of the fact that our forefathers did not keep the word of Jehovah by doing according 22 Accordingly Hil·ki′ah[a] along with those

[a] "Cy'rus," LXXVg; Ko'resh, M; Ku'resh, Sy. [b] "Jehovah the God of the heavens." This expression first occurs at Genesis 24:3, 7. See also Ezra 1:2; Nehemiah 1:4, 5; 2:4, 20.

EZRA[a]

1 And in the first year of Cy′rus[b][*] the king of Persia,[□] that Jehovah's word from the mouth[○] of Jeremiah[△] might be accomplished, Jehovah[l] roused the spirit[◊] of Cy′rus[b] the king of Persia so that he caused a cry[+] to pass through all his realm, and also in writing,[⊕] saying:

2 "This is what Cy′rus the king[◎] of Persia has said,[×] 'All the kingdoms[○] of the earth[p] Jehovah the God of the heavens[#] has given me[k] and he himself has commissioned me to build him a house[○] in Jerusalem,[n] which is in Judah. [3] Whoever there is among YOU of all his people,[r] may his God prove to be with him.[s] So let him go up to Jerusalem, which is in Judah, and rebuild the house of Jehovah the God of Israel—he is The [true] God[c][◎][t]—which was in Jerusalem.[u] [4] As for anyone that is left of all the places where he is temporarily residing, let the men of his place assist him with silver and with gold[v] and with goods and with domestic animals along with the voluntary offering[y] for the house of The [true] God,[c] which was in Jerusalem.' "[z]

5 Then the heads[*] of the fathers of Judah and of Benjamin and the priests and the Levites[○] rose up, even everyone whose spirit[□] The [true] God[c] had roused, to go up and rebuild the house of Jehovah,[◎][△] which was in Jerusalem.[○] [6] As for all those round about them, they strengthened[◊] their hands with utensils of silver,[+] with gold,[⊕] with goods and with domestic animals and with choice things, besides all that which was voluntarily offered.[a][×]

7 Also King Cy′rus[#] himself brought forth the utensils of the house of Jehovah,[k] which Neb·u·chad·nez′zar had brought out from Jerusalem[n] and then put in the house of his god.[b][r] [8] And Cy′rus the king of Persia proceeded to bring them forth under the control of Mith′re·dath the treasurer and to number them out to Shesh·baz′zar[c][s] the leader[d] of Judah.[t]

9 Now these are the numbers of them: thirty basket-shaped vessels of gold,[u] a thousand basket-shaped vessels of silver,[v] twenty-nine replacement vessels, [10] thirty bowls of gold, four hundred and ten secondary bowls of silver, a thousand other utensils. [11] All the utensils[y] of gold and of silver were five thousand four hundred. Everything Shesh·baz′zar[c][z] brought up along with bringing up the exiled[•] people out of Babylon[e][□] to Jerusalem.

2 And these were the sons[△] of the jurisdictional district[f][◊] that went up out of the captivity of the exiled[+] people whom Neb·u·chad·nez′zar the king of Babylon[e] had taken into exile at Babylon[⊕] and who later returned to Jerusalem and Judah,[×] each one to his own city, [2] those who came with Ze·rub′ba·bel,[#] Jesh′u·a,[g][k] Ne·he·mi′ah, Se·rai′ah,[h][n] Re·el·ai′ah,[i] Mor′de·cai,

[63] Consequently the Tir·sha′tha[a][+] said to them that they could not eat[⊕] from the most holy things until a priest stood up with U′rim[×] and Thum′mim.[b]

64 The entire congregation[c] as one group[#] was forty-two thousand three hundred and sixty,[k] [65] apart from their men slaves and their slave[⊙] girls, these being seven thousand three hundred and thirty-seven, and they had two hundred male[r] singers and female[s] singers. [66] Their horses were seven hundred and thirty-six, their mules two hundred and forty-five,[t] [67] their camels[○] four hundred and thirty-five, [their] asses six thousand seven hundred and twenty.[u]

68 And certain ones of the heads[v] of the paternal[y] houses, on coming to the house of Jehovah,[z] which was in Jerusalem,[*] made voluntary[□] offerings to the house of The [true] God,[d][△] to cause it to stand on its own site.[◊] [69] According to their power they gave gold[+] for the working supplies, sixty-one thousand drachmas,[e] and silver,[l] five thousand mi′nas,[f] and a hundred robes[⊖] of priests. When the seventh[k] month arrived the sons of Israel were in [their] cities. And the people began to gather themselves as one[n] man to Jerusalem. [2] And Jesh′u·a[a] the son of Je·hoz′a·dak[b] and his brothers the priests and Ze·rub′ba·bel[r] the son of She·al′ti·el[s] and his brothers proceeded to rise up and build the altar[○] of the God of Israel, to offer up burnt sacrifices upon it, according to what is written[t] in the law of Moses the man of God.[c] [3] So they established the altar firmly upon its own site,[u] for fright [came] upon them[d] because of the peoples of the lands,[e][v] and they began offering up burnt[⊚] sacrifices to Jehovah upon it, the burnt sacrifices of the morning and of the evening.[y] [4] Then they held the festival of booths[z] according to what is written,[•] with the burnt sacrifices day by day[□] in number according to the rule of what was due each day.[△] [5] And afterward there was the constant burnt offering[◇] and that for the new moons[·] and for all the sanctified festival[⊕] seasons of Jehovah and for everyone that willingly[×] offered a voluntary offering to Jehovah. [6] From the first day of the seventh month[#] on they started to offer up burnt sacrifices to Jehovah, when the foundation of Jehovah's temple itself had not yet been laid. [7] And they proceeded to give money[k] to the cutters[n] and to the craftsmen,[r] and eatables[s] and drink[t] and oil[u] to the Si·do′ni·ans[v] and the Tyr′i·ans,[y] to bring cedar timbers from Leb′a·non[z] to the sea at Jop′pa,[•] according to the permission granted by Cy′rus[□] the king of Persia to them.

[a] With this verse the record of Ezra is written in Ar·a·ma′ic, to continue until chapter 6, through verse 18. [b] Or, "the transriverine (transfluvial) lesser governors." took an oath.[⊕] [6] Ez'ra now rose from before the house of The [true] God[a] and went to the dining hall[×] of Je·ho·ha'nan the son of E·li'a·shib.[#] Although he went there, he ate no bread[k] and drank no water, for he was mourning[n] over the unfaithfulness of the exiled people.

7 Then they caused a call to pass throughout Judah[r] and Jerusalem for all the former exiles[b][s] to collect themselves together at Jerusalem; [8] and anyone that did not come[t] in three days' time according to the counsel of the princes[u] and the older men—all his goods would be put under a ban[v] and he himself be separated[y] from the congregation of the exiled people. [9] So all the men of Judah and Benjamin[○] collected themselves together at Jerusalem within three days, that is, in the ninth[z] month on the twentieth [day] of the month,[*] and all the people kept sitting in the open place of the house of The [true] God,[a] shivering because of the matter and on account of the showers of rain.[□]

10 At length Ez'ra the priest rose and said to them: "YOU yourselves have acted unfaithfully in that YOU gave a dwelling to foreign wives so as to add to the guiltiness of Israel.[△] [11] And now make confession[◎][◊] to Jehovah the God of YOUR forefathers and do his pleasure[+] and separate[⊕] yourselves from the peoples of the land and from the foreign wives."[×] [12] To this all the congregation answered and said with a loud voice: "Exactly according to your word it devolves upon us to do.[#] [13] However, the people are many and it is the season of showers of rain[k] and it ascending in the torrent valley[□] by night and I kept on examining the wall, after which I came back and entered by the Valley Gate[△] and so got back.

16 And the deputy rulers[◊] themselves did not know where I had gone and what I was doing, and to the Jews and the priests and the nobles and the deputy rulers and the rest of the doers of the work I had not yet told anything. [17] Finally I said to them: "YOU are seeing the bad plight in which we are,[+] how Jerusalem is devastated[⊕] and its gates[•] have been burned with fire. Come[#] and let us rebuild the wall of Jerusalem, that we may no longer continue to be a reproach."[○][k] [18] And I went on to tell them of the hand[n] of my God, how it was good upon me, and also of the king's words that he had said to me.[r] At this they said: "Let us get up and we must build." So they strengthened[s] their hands for the good work.[t]

19 Now when San·bal′lat[u] the Hor′o·nite[v] and To·bi′ah[y] the servant,[z] the Am′mon·ite,[*] and Ge′shem[□] the Arabian[△] heard of it, they began to deride us[◊] and look on us despisingly and say: "What is this thing that YOU are doing? Is it against the king that YOU are rebelling?"[+] [20] However, I replied to them and I said to them: "The God of the heavens[⊕] is the One that will grant us success,[•] and we ourselves, his servants, shall get up and we must build, but YOU yourselves have no share,[#] nor just claim, nor memorial[©][k] in Jerusalem."

3 And E·li′a·shib[n] the high priest and his brothers, the priests, proceeded to get up and build the Sheep[○] Gate.[r] They themselves sanctified it[s] and went setting up its doors, and as far as the Tower[⊙] of Me'ah[a][t] they sanctified it, as far as the Tower of Han·an'el.[u] 2 And at their side the men of Jer'i·cho[v] did building. And at their side Zac'cur the son of Im'ri did building.

3 And the Fish Gate[y] was what the sons of Has·se·na'ah built; they themselves timbered it[z] and then set up its doors,[*] its bolts and its bars.[□] 4 And at their side Mer'e·moth[△] the son of U·ri'jah[◊] the son of Hak'koz did repair work, and at their side Me·shul'lam[+] the son of Ber·e·chi'ah[l] the son of Me·shez'a·bel did repair work,[⊕] and at their side Za'dok the son of Ba'a·na did repair work. 5 And at their side the Te·ko'ites[×] did repair work, but their majestic ones[#] themselves did not bring the back of their neck[k] into the service of their masters.[b]

6 And the Gate[n] of the Old [City] was what Joi'a·da the son of Pa·se'ah and Me·shul'lam the son of Bes·o·dei'ah repaired;[r] they themselves timbered it[s] and then set up its doors[t] and its bolts[u] and its bars.[v] 7 And at their side Mel·a·ti'ah the Gib'e·on·ite[y] and Ja'don the Me·ron'o·thite,[z] men of Gib'e·on[*] and Miz'pah,[□] did repair work, for the throne of the governor[△] beyond the River.[◊] 8 At his side Uz'zi·el the son of Har·hai'ah, goldsmiths,[+] did repair work; and at his side Han·a·ni'ah a member of the ointment mixers[⊕] did repair work, and they proceeded to flagstone Jerusalem as far as the Broad Wall.[×] 9 And at their side Re·pha'iah the son of Hur, a prince[#] of half the district[k] of Jerusalem, did repair work. 10 And at their side Je·da'iah the son of Ha·ru'maph did repair work in front of his own house;[n] and at his side Hat'tush the son of Hash·ab·nei'ah did repair work.

11 Another measured section was what Mal·chi'jah[l] the son of Ha'rim[r] and Has'shub the son of Pa'hath-mo'ab[a][s] repaired, and also the Tower of the Bake Ovens.[t] 12 And at his side Shal'lum the son of Hal·lo'hesh, a prince[u] of half the district[v] of Jerusalem, did repair work, he and his daughters.[y]

13 The Valley Gate[z] was what Ha'nun and the inhabitants of Za·no'ah[*] repaired; they themselves built it and then set up its doors,[□] its bolts[△] and its bars,[◊] also a thousand cubits in the wall as far as the Gate of the Ash-heaps.[b][+] 14 And the Gate of the Ash-heaps[b] was what Mal·chi'jah the son of Re'chab, a prince[⊕] of the district of Beth-hac·che'rem,[×] repaired; he himself went building it and setting up its doors,[#] its bolts and its bars.[k]

15 And the Fountain Gate[n] was what Shal'lun[c] the son of Col·ho'zeh, a prince[r] of the district of Miz'pah,[s] repaired; he himself proceeded to build it and to roof it over and to set up its doors,[t] its bolts and its bars, and also the wall of the Pool of the Canal[d] to the King's Garden[⊙][v] and as far as the Stairway[y] that goes down from the City of David.[z]

16 After him Ne·he·mi'ah the son of Az'buk, a prince of half the district of Beth-zur,[*] did repair work as far as in front of the Burial

32[a] And between the roof chamber of the corner and the Sheep Gate[k] the goldsmiths and the traders did repair work.

4 Now[b] it came about that, as soon as San·bal′lat[n] heard that we were rebuilding the wall, he became angry[⊙] [1] and highly offended[r] and he kept deriding[s] the Jews. [2] And he began to say before his brothers[t] and the military force of Sa·mar′i·a, yes, he began to say: "What are the feeble[u] Jews doing? Will they depend upon themselves? Will they sacrifice?[v] Will they finish up in a day? Will they bring the stones to life out of the heaps of dusty rubbish[y] when they are burned?" [3] Now To·bi′ah[z] the Am′mon·ite[*] was alongside him and he went on to say: "Even what they are building, if a fox went up [against it], he would certainly break down their wall of stones."[○]

4 Hear,[△] O our God, for we have become an object of contempt, and make their reproach[◊] return upon their own head and give them to the spoil in the land of captivity. [5] And do not cover over their error[+] and their sin from before you. Let it not be blotted out,[⊕] for they have committed offense against the builders.

6 So we continued building the wall, and the entire wall came to be joined together clear to half its [height], and the people continued to have a heart for working.[×]

[a] In the right-hand margin of the Hebrew text opposite this verse there is written the Hebrew expression meaning "half of the book," indicating that this is the middle verse of the 685 Hebrew verses of the combined books of Ezra and Nehemiah, showing that, in the Hebrew, the two books were one. [b] In the Hebrew text this is verse 33 of chapter 3.

7 Now[a] it came about that, as soon as San·bal′lat[#] and To·bi′ah[k] and the Arabians[n] and the Am′mon·ites[r] and the Ash′dod·ites[s] heard that the repairing of the walls of Jerusalem had gone forward,[t] for the gaps had started to be stopped up, they became very angry. [8] And all of them began to conspire[u] together to come and fight against Jerusalem and cause me disturbance.[b] [9] But we prayed[v] to our God and kept a guard posted against them day and night on account of them.[y]

10 And Judah began to say: "The power of the burden bearer[z] has staggered, and there is a great deal of rubbish,[] and we ourselves are not able to build on the wall." [11] Moreover, our adversaries[⊙] kept saying: "They will not know[□] and they will not see until we come right in among them, and we shall certainly kill[○] them and put a stop to the work." [12] And it came about that, whenever the Jews dwelling close by them came in, they proceeded to say to us ten times:[△] "[They will come up][c] from all the places where YOU people will return to us." [13] So I kept [men] posted at the lowest parts of the place behind the wall[◊] at the open places,[+] and I kept the people posted by families with their swords,[⊕] their lances[×] and their bows.[⊙] [14] When I saw [their fear] I immediately rose and said to the nobles[#] and the deputy rulers[k] and the rest of the people: "Do not be afraid[n] on their account. 5 However, there came to be a great outcry of the people[n] and their wives against their Jewish brothers.[○][r] 2 And there were those who were saying: "Our sons[s] and our daughters[⊙] we are giving as security[c] that we may get grain[t] and eat[u] and keep alive."[○] 3 And there were those who were saying: "Our fields and our vineyards[⊙] and our houses we are giving as security[l] that we may get grain during the food shortage." 4 And there were those who were saying: "We have borrowed money[○] for the king's tribute[v] on our fields and our vineyards.[y] 5 And now our flesh[⊙] is the same as the flesh[z] of our brothers; our sons are the same as their sons, and here we are reducing our sons and our daughters to slaves,[] and there are some of our daughters already reduced, and there is no power in our hands while our fields and our vineyards belong to others."

6 Now I became very angry[□] as soon as I heard their outcry and these words. 7 So my heart took consideration within me[△] and I began finding fault[◊] with the nobles and the deputy rulers and went on to say to them:

"Usury is what YOU are exacting, each one of his own brother."[•]

Further, I arranged a great assembly on their account.[⊕] [8] And I proceeded to say to them: "We ourselves have bought back[×] our own Jewish brothers who were sold to the nations, as far as it was in our power, and at the same time will YOU yourselves sell YOUR own brothers[#] and must they be sold to us?"[k] At this they became speechless and they could not find a word.[n] [9] And I[a] went on to say: "The thing that YOU are doing is not good.[r] Is it not in the fear[s] of our God that YOU should walk because of the reproach[t] of the nations our enemies?[○][u] [10] And also I, my brothers and my attendants are giving money and grain on loan among them. Let us, please, leave off this lending on interest.[v] [11] Please, restore[y] to them on this day their fields,[z] their vineyards, their olive groves and their houses, and the hundredth[b] of the money and the grain, the new wine and the oil that YOU are exacting as interest[v] from them."

12 To this they said: "We shall make restoration,[•] and from them we shall ask nothing back. We shall do precisely as you are saying." So I called the priests and made them swear to do according to this word.[□] [13] Also my bosom I shook out[△] and then said: "In this manner may The [true] God[c] shake out from his house[◊] and from his acquired property every man that does not carry out this word, and in this manner may he become shaken out and empty." the congregation[a][⊙] said: "Amen!"[b][+] And they began to praise Jehovah.[⊖] And the people proceeded to do according to this word.[×]

14 Another thing: From the day that he commissioned me to become their governor[c] in the land of Judah,[#] from the twentieth[k] year to the thirty-second[n] year of Ar·ta·xerx'es[r] the king, twelve years, I myself and my brothers did not eat[l] the bread due the governor.[s] [15] As for the former governors that were prior to me, they had made it heavy upon the people and they kept taking[t] from them for bread[○] and wine daily[d] forty silver shekels. Also their attendants themselves domineered over the people. As for me, I did not do that way[u] on account of the fear of God.[v] [16] And, what is more, in the work of this wall I took a hand,[y] and not a field did we acquire,[z] and all my attendants were collected together there for the work.[•] [17] And the Jews and the deputy rulers, a hundred and fifty men, and those coming in to us from the nations that were around us were at my table.[⊙][□] [18] As for that which happened to be made ready daily, one bull, six select sheep and birds[○] were made ready for me, and once every ten days every sort of wine in abundance.[△] And along with this the bread due the governor I did not demand, because the service upon this people was heavy.[◊] [19] Do remember for me,[•] O my God, for good, all that I have done in behalf of this people.[⊕]

6 Now it came about that, as soon as it was told to San·bal'lat[×] and To·bi'ah[#] and to Ge'shem[k] the Arabian[n] and to the rest of our enemies that I had rebuilt the wall[r] and there had not been left in it a gap (although up to that time the doors[s] themselves I had not set up in the gates),[t] 2 San·bal′lat and Ge′shem immediately sent to me, saying: "Do come and let us meet[u] together by appointment in the villages of the valley plain of O′no."[v] But they were scheming to do me harm.[y] 3 So I sent messengers to them,[z] saying: "It is a great work that I am doing, and I am not able to go down.[*] Why should the work cease while I take off from it and have to go down to YOU?"[□] 4 However, they sent me the same word four times,[△] and I kept replying to them with the same word.[◇]

5 Finally San·bal′lat[+] sent his attendant to me with the same word a fifth time, with an open letter in his hand.[⊕] 6 There was written in it: "Among the nations it has been heard,[×] and Ge′shem[a#] is saying [it], that you and the Jews are scheming to rebel.[k] That is why you are building the wall, and you are becoming a king to them,[n] according to these words. 7 And there are even prophets[r] that you have appointed to call out concerning you throughout Jerusalem, saying, 'There is a king in Judah!'[s] And now things like these will be told to the king. So now do come and let us consult together."[t]

8 However, I sent to him, saying: "Things such as you are saying have not been brought about,[u] but it is out of your own heart that you are inventing them."[v] 9 For all of them were trying to make us afraid,[y] saying: "Their hands[z] will drop down from the work so that it will not be done." But now strengthen[b] my hands.[*]

[a] "The [true] God." M, ha-El.o.him′, the definite article ha ("The") preceding the title El.o.him′ for the sake of emphasis. [b] "Contracting." The Hebrew verb here is in the infinitive absolute and hence is impersonal and indefinite as to time.

[a] "In Egypt," LXX and some Hebrew manuscripts; "in their rebellion," M. [b] "God." El·o′ah, M; of which El·o·him′ is the plural. [c] Or, "loyal love." [d] "God." M, El·o·him′, the plural number of El·o′ah, but referred to by the singular demonstrative pronoun "this" (zeh, Hebrew), hence being only the plural of excellence and divine powers. Vg, De′us; LXX, "gods" (hoi the·oi′). Compare Exodus 32:4, footnote d. [e] "Led." This Hebrew verb is in the singular number, showing that El·o·him′ here is singular in meaning.

and they went on to commit great acts of disrespect,[×] [19] you, even you, in your abundant mercy did not leave them in the desert.[#] The pillar of cloud itself did not depart from over them by day to lead them in the way,[k] nor the pillar of fire by night to light up for them the way in which they should go.[n] [20] And your good spirit[r] you gave to make them prudent, and your manna[⊙] you did not hold back from their mouth,[s] and water you gave them for their thirst.[t] [21] And for forty[u] years you provided them with food in the wilderness. They lacked nothing.[v] Their very garments did not wear out,[y] and their feet themselves did not become swollen.[z]

22 "And you proceeded to give them kingdoms[] and peoples and to apportion them piece by piece,[□] so that they took possession of the land of Si′hon,[△] even the land of the king of Hesh′bon,[◊] and the land of Og[+] the king of Ba′shan.[⊕] [23] And their sons you made as many as the stars of the heavens.[×] Then you brought them into the land[#] which you had promised to their forefathers[k] that [they] should enter to take possession. [24] So their sons[n] came in and took the land in possession,[r] and you proceeded to subdue before them the inhabitants of the land,[s] the Ca′naan·ites,[t] and to give them into their hand,[u] even their kings[v] and the peoples of the land,[y] to do with them according to their liking.[z] [25] And they went capturing fortified cities[] and a fat soil[□] and taking in possession houses full of all good things,[△] cisterns hewn out,[◊] vineyards[+] and olive groves[⊕] and trees[×] for food in abundance, and they began to eat[#] and to be satisfied[k] and to grow fat[n] and to luxuriate in your great goodness.[r]

26 "However, they became disobedient[s] and rebelled against you[t] and kept casting your law behind their back,[u] and your own prophets they killed,[v] who bore witness against them to bring them back to you,[y] and they went on committing acts of great disrespect.[z] [27] For this you who would tread them down.[k] Then they would return[n] and call to you for aid[r] and you yourself would hear from the very heavens[s] and deliver them in accord with your abundant mercy, time and again.[t] [29] Although you would bear witness[u] against them to bring them back to your law,[v] they themselves even acted presumptuously[y] and against your own judicial decisions[•] they sinned,[□] which, if a man[a] will do, then he must live by means of them.[b][△] And they kept giving a stubborn shoulder[◊] and their neck they were indulgent with them for many years[×] and kept bearing witness[#] against them by your

11 Now the princes[k] of the people had their dwelling in Jerusalem,[n] and, as for the rest of the people, they cast lots[r] to bring in one out of every ten[s] to dwell in Jerusalem the holy city,[t] and the nine other parts in the other cities.[u] [2] Moreover, the people blessed[v] all the men who volunteered[y] to dwell in Jerusalem.

3 And these are the heads of the jurisdictional district[z] who dwelt in Jerusalem;[*] but in the cities of Judah there dwelt, each one in his own possession, in their cities,[□] Israel,[△] the priests[◊] and the Levites[+] and the Neth'i·nim[a][⊕] and the sons of the servants of Sol'o·mon.[×]

4 Also in Jerusalem there dwelt some of the sons of Judah[#] and some of the sons of Benjamin.[k] Of the sons of Judah there were A·thai'ah the son of Uz·zi'ah the son of Zech·a·ri'ah the son of Am·a·ri'ah the son of Sheph·a·ti'ah the son of Ma·hal'a·lel of the sons of Pe'rez;[n] [5] and Ma·a·sei'ah the son of Bar'uch the son of Col-ho'zeh[r] the son of Ha·zai'ah the son of A·dai'ah the son of Joi'a·rib the son of Zech·a·ri'ah the son of the She·la'nite.[b] [6] All the sons of Pe'rez[n] who were dwelling in Jerusalem were four hundred and sixty-eight, capable men.

7 And these were the sons of Benjamin:[s] Sal'lu[t] the son of Me·shul'lam[t] the son of Jo'ed the son of Pe·dai'ah the son of Ko·lai'ah the son of Ma·a·sei'ah the son of Ith'i·el the son of Je·sha'iah; [8] and after him[c] Gab·ba'i [and] Sal·la'i,[d] nine hundred and twenty-eight; [9] and

[a] Or, "temple slaves." Literally, "given ones," M. Compare Numbers 3: 9, footnote a. [b] "She·la'nite," by a correction of the vowel points. Compare Numbers 26: 20. "Shi'lo·nite," M. [c] "And his brothers," LXX$^{\text{Lagardian edition}}$. [d] Possibly, by a correction of the Hebrew text: "and his brothers, mighty men of valor." Compare verse 14a.

Joel the son of Zich'ri, an overseer over them, and Judah the son of Has·se·nu'ah over the city as second.

10 Of the priests: Je·da'iah[u] the son of Joi'arib,[u] Ja'chin,[v] [11] Se·rai'ah the son of Hil·ki'ah[y] the son of Me·shul'lam[y] the son of Za'dok[z] the son of Me·ra'ioth[y] the son of A·hi'tub,[*] a leader of the house[○] of The [true] God;[a] [12] and their brothers the doers of the work of the house,[□] eight hundred and twenty-two; and A·dai'ah[△] the son of Je·ro'ham[△] the son of Pel·a·li'ah the son of Am'zi the son of Zech·a·ri'ah the son of Pash'hur[◊] the son of Mal·chi'jah,[+] [13] and his brothers, heads of paternal houses,[⊕] two hundred and forty-two, and A·mash'sai the son of Az'ar·el the son of Ah'zai the son of Me·shil'le·moth[×] the son of Im'mer,[#] [14] and their brothers, mighty men of valor,[k] a hundred and twenty-eight, and there was an overseer[n] over them, Zab'di·el the son of the great ones.

15 And of the Levites:[r] She·mai'ah[s] the son of Has'shub[s] the son of Az·ri'kam[s] the son of Hash·a·bi'ah[t] the son of Bun'ni, [16] and Shab'be·thai[u] and Jo'za·bad,[v] of the heads of the Levites, over the outside business[y] of the house of The [true] God;[a] [17] and Mat·ta·ni'ah[z] himself, the son of Mi'cah the son of Zab'di the son of A'saph,[*] the conductor[b] of the praise [singing],[□] did the lauding at prayer,[△] and Bak·bu·ki'ah was second of his brothers, and Ab'da the son of Sham'mu·a the son of Ga'lal[◊] the son of Je·du'thun.[+] [18] All the Levites in the holy[⊕] city were two hundred and eighty-four.

19 And the gatekeepers[×] were Ak'kub,[#] Tal'mon[#] and their brothers who were keeping guard[k] in the gates,[n] a hundred and seventy-two.

20 And the rest of Israel, of the priests [and] of the Levites, were in all the other cities of Judah, each one in his own hereditary possession.[r] [21] And the Neth'i·nim[a][s] were dwelling in O'phel,[t] and Zi'ha[u] and Gish'pa were over the Neth'i·nim.[a]

22 And the overseer[v] of the Levites in Jerusalem was Uz'zi the son of Ba'ni the son of Hash·a·bi'ah the son of Mat·ta·ni'ah[y] the son of Mi'ca[z] of the sons of A'saph,[*] the singers,[□] concerning the work of the house of The [true] God.[b] [23] For there was a commandment of the king in behalf of them, and there was a fixed provision for the singers as each day required.[△] [24] And Peth·a·hi'ah the son of Me·shez'a·bel of the sons of Ze'rah the son of Judah was at the side of the king[◊] for every matter of the people.

25 And as regards the settlements[+] in their fields, there were some of the sons of Judah that dwelt in Kir'i·ath-ar'ba[⊕] and its dependent towns[c] and in Di'bon[d] and its dependent towns[c] and in Je·kab'ze·el[×] and its settlements, [26] and in Jesh'u·a[e] and in Mo·la'dah[#] and in Beth-pel'et[k] [27] and in Ha'zar-shu'al[n] and in Be'er-she'ba[⊙][r] and its dependent towns[c] [28] and in Zik'lag[s] and in Me·co'nah and its dependent towns[c] [29] and in En-rim'mon[t] and in Zo'rah[u] and in Jar'muth,[v] [30] Za·no'ah,[y] A·dul'lam[z] and their settlements, La'chish[*] and its fields, A·ze'kah[□] and its dependent towns.[c] And they took up camping from

[a] "The [true] God." M, ha-El·o·him′; Sy, "Jehovah." [b] "Mij′a·min" at Nehemiah 10 : 7. [c] Or, "tithes," M. [d] Or, "according to."

for the priests[t] and the Levites;[u] for the rejoicing of Judah was because of the priests and of the Levites[v] who were in attendance. [45] And they began taking care of the obligation[y] of their God and the obligation of the purification,[z] also the singers[*] and the gatekeepers,[□] according to the commandment of David[△] [and] Sol'o·mon his son.[◊] [46] For in the days of David[+] and A'saph[⊕] in bygone time there were heads of the singers and the song of praise and thanksgivings to God.[×] [47] And all Israel during the days of Ze·rub'ba·bel[#] and during the days of Ne·he·mi'ah[k] were giving the portions of the singers[n] and of the gatekeepers[r] according to the daily need[a] and were sanctifying [them] to the Levites,[s] and the Levites were sanctifying [them] to the sons of Aaron.[t]

13 On that day there was a reading[u] from the book[v] of Moses[y] in the ears of the people and there was found written in it that the Am'mon·ite[z] and the Mo'ab·ite[*] should not come into the congregation[b] of The [true] God[c] to time indefinite,[□] [2] for they had not met the sons of Israel with bread[△] and with water,[◊] but went hiring against them Ba'laam[⊙][+] to call down evil upon them.[⊕] However, our God changed the malediction into a benediction.[×] [3] So it came about that, as soon as they heard the law,[#] they began to separate[k] all the mixed[n] company from Israel.

4 Now before this, E·li'a·shib[r] the priest in charge of a dining hall[s] of the house of our God was a relative of To·bi'ah;[t] [5] and he proceeded to make for him a large dining hall,[u] where previously they were regularly putting the grain offering,[v] the frankincense[○] and the utensils and the tenth[a] of the grain, the new wine[z] and the oil,[*] to which the Levites[□] and the singers and the gatekeepers are entitled,[b] and the contribution for the priests.

[a] Nehemiah completes the evidence that the literal city of Jerusalem had twelve gates, even as the heavenly holy city described by John the apostle has twelve gates, three facing each of the four directions, recorded at Revelation 21:12, 13. Earthly Jerusalem's twelve gates were named: Valley Gate (Neh. 2:13), Gate of the Ash-heaps (Neh. 2:13) and Fountain Gate (Neh. 2:14) for the southern section of the city; Water Gate (Neh. 3:26), Horse Gate (Neh. 3:28) and Inspection Gate (Neh. 3:31) for the eastern section of the city; Gate of the Guard (Neh. 12:39), Sheep Gate (Neh. 3:32) and Fish Gate (Neh. 3:3) for the northern section of the city; and Gate of the Old [City] (Neh. 3:6), Gate of Ephraim (Neh. 12:39) and the Corner Gate (2 Chron. 25:23) for the western section of the city. The gates are listed in counterclockwise order, starting from the Valley Gate in the south from which Nehemiah had started his original inspection tour. [b] Or, "loyal love."

[24] As for their sons, half were speaking Ash'dod·ite and there were none of them knowing how to speak Jewish,[×] but in the tongue of the different peoples.[#] [25] And I began to find fault[k] with them and call down evil upon them[n] and strike some men of them[r] and pull out their hair and make them swear by God:[t] "YOU should not give YOUR daughters to their sons, and YOU should not accept any of their daughters for YOUR sons or yourselves.[u] [26] Was it not because of these that Sol'o·mon the king of Israel sinned?[v] And among the many nations there proved to be no king like him;[y] and loved of his God he happened to be,[z] so that God constituted him king over all Israel. Even him the foreign wives caused to sin.[*] [27] And is it not something unheard of for YOU to commit all this great badness in acting unfaithfully against our God by giving a dwelling to foreign wives?"[□]

28 And one of the sons of Joi'a·da[△] the son of E·li'a·shib[◊] the high priest was a son-in-law of San·bal'lat[+] the Hor'o·nite.[⊕] So I chased him away from me.[×]

29 Do remember them,[#] O my God, on account of the defilement[k] of the priesthood and the covenant[⊙][n] of the priesthood[a] and of the Levites.[r]

30 And I purified[s] them from everything foreign and proceeded to assign duties to the priests and to the Levites, each one in his own work,[t] [31] even for the supply[b] of the wood[u] at appointed times and for the first ripe fruits.

Do remember me,[v] O my God, for good.[y]

21 And the thing was pleasing in the eyes of the king[◊] and the princes, and the king proceeded to do according to the word of Me·mu'can. [22] So he sent written documents[•] to all the king's jurisdictional districts, to each jurisdictional district[⊛] in its own style of writing and to each people in its own tongue, for every husband to be continually acting as prince in his own house[×] and speaking in the tongue of his own people.

2 After these things, when the rage of King A·has·u·e'rus[#] had subsided, he remembered Vash'ti[k] and what she had done[n] and what had been decided against her.[r] [2] Then the king's attendants, his ministers,[s] said: "Let them seek young women, virgins, beautiful in appearance,[t] for the king, [3] and let the king appoint commissioners in all the jurisdictional districts[u] of his realm, and let them collect together all the young women, virgins, beautiful in appearance, at Shu'shan[v] the castle,[y] at the house of the women,[z] in charge of Heg'a·i[l] the king's eunuch,[•] the guardian of the women, and let there be a giving[b] of their massages. 9 Now the young woman was pleasing in his eyes,[y] so that she gained loving-kindness[d] before him and he made haste to give her her massages[z] and her appropriate food and to give her seven selected young women from the king's house and he proceeded to transfer her and her young women to the best place of the house of the women. 12 And when the turn of each young woman arrived to go in to King A·has·u·e'rus after it had happened to her according to the women's regulation for twelve months, for that was the way the days of their massage procedure were gradually fulfilled, six months with oil of myrrh[+] and six months with balsam oil[⊜] and with the massages[×] of the women; [13] then on these conditions the young woman herself came in to the king.[#] Everything that she would mention would be given her, to come with her from the house of the women[k] to the king's house.[n] [14] In the evening[○] she herself came in and in the morning she herself returned to the second house of the women in charge of Sha·ash'gaz the king's eunuch,[r] the guardian of the concubines.[⊙] She would not come in anymore to the king unless the king had taken delight[s] in her and she had been called by name.[t]

15 And when the turn of Esther[u] the daughter of Ab'i·ha·il the uncle of Mor'de·cai, whom he had taken as his daughter,[u] arrived to come what Heg'a·i[v] the king's eunuch, the guardian

Esther was taken to King A·has·u·e'rus at his royal house in the tenth month,[z] that is, the month Te'beth,[a] in the seventh year[*] of his reign.
[17] And the king came to love Esther more than all the other women, so that she gained more favor and loving-kindness[b] before him than all the other virgins.[□] And he proceeded to put the the means of the king.

19 Now when virgins[×] were collected together a second time, Mor'de·cai was sitting in the king's gate.[#] [20] Esther was not telling about her relatives and her people,[k] just as Mor'de·cai[n] had laid the command upon her, and the saying

21 In those days while Mor'de·cai was sitting Esther the queen.[v] In turn Esther talked to the king in Mor'de·cai's name.[y] [23] So the matter was sought out and eventually found out and both of them got to be hanged[z] on a stake,[a][*] after this Mor′de·cai passed along and proceeded to do according to all that Esther had laid in command upon him.

5 And it came about on the third day[△] that Esther went dressing up royally,[◊] after which she took her stand in the inner courtyard[•] of the king's house opposite the king's house, while the king was sitting on his royal throne[⊕] in the royal house opposite the entrance of the house. Esther now came near and touched the top of the scepter.

3 Then the king said to her: "What do you have, O Esther the queen, and what is your request?[n] To the half of the kingship[r]—let it even be given to you!" [4] In turn Esther said: "If to the king it does seem good,[s] let the king with Ha′man[t] come today[a] to the banquet[u] that I have made for him." 6 During that night[n] the king's sleep fled.[r]
Therefore he said to bring the book of the King A·has·u·e'rus.[c] 3 Then the king said: "What

As for Ha′man, he became terrified[k] because of the king and the queen. [7] As for the king, he rose up in his rage[n] from the banquet of wine [to go] to the garden of the palace, and Ha′man himself stood up to make request for his soul[b] from Esther the queen,[r] for he saw that bad had been determined[s] against him[c] by the king.[t] [8] And the king himself returned from the garden[u] of the palace to the house of the wine banquet,[v] and Ha′man was fallen upon the couch[y] on which Esther was. Consequently the king said: "Is there also to be a raping[z] of the queen, with me in the house?" The word itself went out of the king's mouth, and Ha′man's face they covered.[*] [9] Har·bo′na,[□] one of the court officials[△] before the king, now said: "Also there is the stake[◊] that Ha′man made[+] for Mor′de·cai, who had spoken good concerning the king,[⊕] standing in Ha′man's house—fifty cubits high." Mor'de·cai himself came in before the king,[r] because Esther had told what he was to her.[s] [2] Then the king removed his signet ring[t] that he had taken away from Ha'man[u] and gave it to Mor'de·cai, and Esther went on to place Mor'de·cai over the house of Ha'man.[v] their injury,[t] and not a man stood his ground before them, for the dread[◎u] of them had fallen upon all the peoples. [3] And all the princes[v] of the jurisdictional districts and the satraps[y] and the governors and the doers of the business that belonged to the king were assisting the Jews, for the dread[z] of Mor'de·cai had fallen upon them. [4] For Mor'de·cai was great[•] in the king's house[○] and his fame[□] was traveling throughout all the jurisdictional districts, because the man Mor'de·cai was steadily growing greater.[△]

5 And the Jews went striking down[◊] all their enemies[◎] with a slaughter by the sword[+] and with a killing and destruction, and they went doing to those hating them according to their delight. [6] And in Shu'shan[⊕] the castle the Jews killed and there was a destroying[a] of five hundred men. 11 On that day the number of those killed in Shu'shan the castle came before the king.

12 And the king proceeded to say to Esther the queen: "In Shu'shan the castle[s] the Jews have killed and there has been a destroying[a] of five hundred men and the ten sons of Ha'man. In the rest of the jurisdictional districts[t] of the king what have they done? And what is your petition?[u] Let it even be given to you.[v] And what

Then a law was given out in Shu'shan, and the ten sons of Ha'man were hanged.

15 And the Jews that were in Shu'shan proceeded to gather together[△] also on the fourteenth day of the month A·dar',[◇] and they got to kill in Shu'shan three hundred men, but on the spoil they did not lay their hand.[+]

16 As for the rest of the Jews that were in the jurisdictional districts[⊕] of the king, they gathered together and there was a stand[a] for their souls[b][×] and there was an avenging[#] of themselves upon[c] their enemies and a killing[d] among those hating them of seventy-five thousand, but on the spoil they did not lay their hand,[+] [17] on the thirteenth day of the month A·dar';[l] and there was a rest on the fourteenth [day] of it, and there was a making[e] of it a day of banqueting[m] and of rejoicing.[w] was a making[a] of it a day of banqueting and of rejoicing. [19] That is why the country Jews, inhabiting the cities of the outlying districts, were making the fourteenth day of the month A·dar'[n] a rejoicing[r] and a banqueting[s] and a good day[t] and a sending of portions[u] to one another.

20 And Mor'de·cai[v] proceeded to write[y] these things[z] and send written documents to all the Jews that were in all the jurisdictional districts[*] of King A·has·u·e'rus,[b] the nearby and the distant ones, [21] to impose upon them the obligation[□] to be regularly holding the fourteenth day of the month A·dar' and the fifteenth day of it in each and every year, [22] according to the days on which the Jews had rested from their enemies[△] and the month that was changed for them from grief to rejoicing and from mourning to a good day,[◇] to hold them as days of banqueting and rejoicing and sending of portions to one another[+] and of gifts[⊙] to the poor people.[⊕]

23 And the Jews accepted what they had started to do and what Mor'de·cai had written to them. [24] For Ha'man[×] the son of Ham·me·da'tha,[#] the Ag'ag·ite,[k] the one showing hostility[n] to all the Jews, had himself schemed against the Jews to destroy them,[r] and he had had Pur,[s] that is, the Lot,[t] cast, to disquiet them and destroy them. EXPLANATION OF THE SYMBOLS USED IN THE MARGINAL REFERENCES

Aq

Greek translation made by Aq′ui·la, a Jewish proselyte, of the 2d century A.D. A very literal translation of the Hebrew, becoming the official Greek version for the Jews. Origen included it in the 3d column of his Hexapla, current about A.D. 245. See Foreword of the New World Translation of the Christian Greek Scriptures, page 12, ¶ 1.

Ca

Cairo Manuscript of the Prophets, in Hebrew. It contains the Earlier and Later Prophets (see Foreword, Volume I, ¶ 4) and was written by Moses ben Asher in Tiberias in Palestine, A.D. 895. It is in the Karaite Jews' synagogue of Cairo, Egypt. Accidentally discovered about 1890.

It

"Old Latin" Version, probably originating among Latin-speaking Jews of Carthage in North Africa but later adopted by the Christians. Various Latin versions were circulated before Jerome's production of the Latin Vulgate, and were translations of the Greek Septuagint before Origen revised that Greek text about A.D. 245. Three types of Old Latin versions are identified: (1) the African, the most primitive; (2) the European; and (3) the Italian, probably a revision of the European. Usually called "Itala." The standard edition continues to be that of Pierre Sabatier, Bibliorum Sacrorum latinae versiones antiquae seu vetus italica, issued 1743-49.

L

Leningrad Manuscript, catalogued as No. B 19^{A}, in Hebrew. It is the oldest dated manuscript of the complete Hebrew Bible and was copied A.D. 1008 "from the corrected clear books prepared by the master Aaron ben Mosher ben Asher." It contains the ordinary vocalization of the Hebrew consonants. It is now in the Public Library in Leningrad, Russia.

LXX

Greek Septuagint Version, begun about 280 B.C. The oldest version of the Hebrew Scriptures and a work of Jews.

LXX$^{\aleph}$

Greek Septuagint Version as found in the Codex Sinaiticus, or Sinaitic Manuscript. Of the 4th century. What remains of its translation of the Hebrew Scriptures is fragmentary. Discovered at Mt. Sinai in 1844, it is now in the British Museum, London, England.

LXX^{A}

Greek Septuagint Version as found in the Codex Alexandrinus, or Alexandrine Manuscript, of the complete Bible. Of the middle of the 5th century. From its translation of the Hebrew Scriptures the following have been lost: 1 Kings 12:17 to 14:9 and Psalms 49:20 to 79:11.

LXX^{B}

Greek Septuagint Version as found in the Codex Vaticanus, or Vatican Manuscript No. 1209. Of the 4th century. From its translation of the Hebrew Scriptures two sections are missing: the book of Genesis from its beginning up to chapter 46:28, and Psalms 105:27 to 137:6 (Psalms 106-138 in Hebrew), but which missing passages were restored by a 15th-century scribe. The Books of the Maccabees and the Psalms of Solomon, apocryphal books, are missing. Catalogued in the Vatican Library since the fifteenth century.

M

Masoretic Hebrew text. Here based mainly on the text of the Leningrad Hebrew Manuscript No. B 19^{A}, a representative of the ben Asher text.

Sam

Samaritan Pentateuch, a Hebrew text mixed with Samaritan idioms, transmitted by the Samaritan community in Palestine independently of the Jewish tradition since the 4th century B.C. Out of 6,000 differences between the Samaritan text and the Hebrew text of the first five books of the Bible only 1,000 are important. A few extant manuscripts are earlier than the 12th century.

Sy

Syriac Peshitta Version. Parts of it may be of Jewish origin, but it was made for Syriac Christians. It is basically a translation directly of the Hebrew Scriptures, although made with some consideration of the Greek Septuagint. Its most valuable manuscript for the translation of the entire Hebrew Bible is the 6th- or 7th-century codex in the Ambrosian Library, Milan, Italy. An earlier manuscript has a date corresponding with A.D. 464.

Sym

Greek translation made by Sym′ma·chus, an Ebionite, about A.D. 200. Though in excellent Greek, it is faithful to the Hebrew text, following its sense. Few fragments survive. Origen included it in the 4th column of his Hexapla, current about A.D. 245.

T

The Targums, or Targumim, meaning "interpretations, translations." At first they were mere oral interpretations or translations in Aramaic made at the reading of the Hebrew Scriptures after Jerusalem's 70-year desolation, and later they were committed to writing. There are Targums on the Law or Pentateuch, on the Prophets and, of later date, on the Hagiographa. The three Targums on the Pentateuch are the Jerusalem Targum, the Targum of Jonathan, and the Targum of Onkelos.

T^{J}

Targum of Jonathan, really pseudo-Jonathan, this Targum on the Pentateuch being falsely assigned to Jonathan ben Uz·zi′el. It should rather be called the Jerusalem Targum. It is a paraphrase in Aramaic extending from Genesis through Deuteronomy. There is another Targum called the Jerusalem Targum on the Pentateuch, but it contains only portions of the Pentateuch and so is usually called the Fragmentary (Jerusalem) Targum.

The Targum on the Prophets, namely, Joshua, Judges, Samuel, Kings, Isaiah, Jeremiah, Ezekiel, and the 12 Minor Prophets, is wrongly attributed to the above Jonathan. In language and style it closely resembles the Targum of Onkelos and seems to have been modeled on that Targum and, in places, to have made use of it, but is less literal.

$\mathrm{T^O}$

Targum of Onkelos, or Babylonian Targum, on the Pentateuch. Its real author was probably unknown to the Babylonian Jews. It is thought to be the oldest extant of the Aramaic versions. It is more closely allied to Biblical Aramaic and sticks very closely to the Hebrew text. It is based on a Hebrew text practically identical with the Masoretic text.

$\mathrm{T^P}$

Palestinian Targum, of which the Fragmentary (Jerusalem) Targum on the Pentateuch is a remnant. It was an older, more complete Jerusalem Targum.

Th

Greek translation made by The·o·do′tion, of Pontus, Asia Minor, between A.D. 180 and 192. It differs little from the Septuagint, like a mere revision. Origen included it in the 6th column of his Hexapla, current about A.D. 245.

PLURAL NUMBER of "YOU" and of VERBS

"You" printed in all capital letters denotes the plural number of this pronoun. Also where the plural number of a verb is not certainly apparent to the reader, it is indicated by printing the VERB in all capitals.

CHAIN REFERENCE

The superior small circle, open (°) or with a dot (⊙), or a superior "p" or "q" denotes that the word that it follows is one of a chain of references, carried on all through the Hebrew Scriptures. In the last volume of our translation of the Hebrew Scriptures we hope to publish an alphabetic list of all words in chain reference, with the opening verse in the Hebrew Scriptures where each chain starts. The side margin cites the next link. Other symbols refer to cross references not in a chain.

The following cross reference symbols *, □, △, ◊, +, ⊖, ×, #, k to n, r to z will lead you to helpful information, such as, parallel passages, geographical and biographical points, passages quoted from, etc. The letter "l" behind a cross reference symbol denotes a scripture the thought of which has been misapplied.

JOB

1 There happened to be a man[a] in the land of Uz[] whose name was Job,[b][□] and that man[a] proved to be of integrity[○] and upright[△] and fearing God[◊] and turning aside from bad.[+] [2] And seven sons and three daughters came to be born to him.[⊕] [3] And his livestock[×] got to be seven thousand sheep[c] and three thousand camels[⊙] and five hundred spans of oxen and five hundred she-asses, along with a very great body of servants, and that man[a] came to be the greatest of all the Orientals.[d][#] [4] And his sons went and held a banquet[] at the house of each one[e] on his own day, and they sent and invited their three sisters[○] to eat and drink with them. [5] And it would occur that when the banquet days had gone round the circuit Job would send and sanctify them,[□] and he got up early in the morning and offered up burnt sacrifices[△] according to the number of all of them, for, said Job, "maybe my sons have sinned and have cursed[f][◊] God in their heart."[+] That is the way Job would do always.

6 Now it came to be the day when the sons[g]

At that Satan answered Jehovah and said: "From roving about in the earth[○][◻] and from walking about in it."[△] [8] And Jehovah went on to say to Satan: "Have you set your heart[◊] upon my servant[+] Job, that there is no one like him in the earth,[⊕] a man of integrity[×] and upright,[#] fearing God[k] and turning aside from bad?"[n] [9] At that Satan answered Jehovah and said: "Is it for nothing that Job has feared God?[r] [10] Have not you yourself put up a hedge about him[s] and about his house and about everything that he has all around? The work of his hands[⊙] you have blessed[t] and his livestock itself has spread abroad in the earth.[u] [11] But, for a change, thrust out your hand, please, and touch[v] everything he has [and see] whether he will not curse[c] you to your very face."[x] [12] Accordingly Jehovah said to Satan: "Look! everything that he has is in your hand.[y] Only against him himself do not thrust out your hand!"[z] So Satan went out away from the person[d] of Jehovah.[*]

22 In all this Job did not sin or ascribe unseemliness to God.[○][△]

2 Afterward it came to be the day when the sons[a] of The [true] God[b] came in to take their station before Jehovah, and Satan[c] also proceeded to come in right among them to take his station before Jehovah.[◊] 2 Then Jehovah said to Satan:[c] "Just where do you come from?"
At that Satan[c] answered Jehovah and said:
"From roving about in the earth and from walking about in it."[+] 3 And Jehovah went on to say to Satan:[c] "Have you set your heart upon my servant Job,[⊖] that there is no one like him in the earth, a man of integrity[⊙] and upright,[×] fearing God[#] and turning aside from bad?[k] Even yet he is holding fast his integrity, although you incite[n] me against him to swallow[r] him up without cause."[s] 4 But Satan[t] answered Jehovah and said: "Skin[○] in behalf of will not curse[a] you to your very face."[y] 6 Accordingly Jehovah said to Satan: "There he is in your hand! Only watch out for his soul[b] itself!"[z] 7 So Satan went out away from the person[c] of Jehovah[*] and struck Job with a malignant boil[□] from the sole of his foot to the crown of his head.[△] 8 And he proceeded to take for himself a fragment of earthenware[◊] with which to scrape himself,[+] and he was sitting in among the ashes.[⊕]

9 Finally his wife[©] said to him:[×] "Are you yet holding fast your integrity?[#] Curse[a] God and die!"[k] 10 But he said to her: "As one of the senseless[n] women speaks you speak also. Shall we accept merely what is good from The [true] God[d] and not accept also what is bad?"[r] In all this Job did not sin with his lips.[s]

11 And three companions of Job got to hear of all this calamity that had come upon him, and they proceeded to come, each one from his own place, El'i·phaz the Te'man·ite[t] and Bil'dad the Shu'hite[u] and Zo'phar the Na'a·ma·thite.[v]
So they met together by appointment to come and sympathize with him and comfort[○] him.[y] 12 When they raised their eyes from far off they did not then recognize him.[z] And they proceeded to raise their voice and weep[k] and rip[n] each one his sleeveless coat apart and toss dust[©] toward the heavens upon their heads.[*] 13 And they kept sitting[□] with him on the earth seven days and seven nights, and there was no one speaking a word to him, for they saw that the pain was very great.

But the friends that came to him (were) Eliphaz, of the sons of Esau, king of the Thaimanites; Bildad the absolute ruler of the Sauchaians; Zophar the king of the Minaians."

PSALMS[a]

BOOK ONE

(Psalms 1 - 41)

1 Happy[*] is the man[b] that has not walked[□] in the counsel[○△] of the wicked ones,[◊]
And in the way of sinners has not stood[+]
And in the seat of ridiculers has not sat.[⊕]
[2] But his delight is in the law of Jehovah,[×]
And in his law he reads in an undertone day and night.[#]
[3] And he will certainly become like a tree planted by streams of water,[k]
That gives its own fruit in its season[n]
And the foliage of which does not wither,[r]
And everything he does will succeed.[s]
[4] The wicked are not like that,[t]
But are like the chaff that the wind[c] drives away.[u]
[5] That is why the wicked ones will not stand up in the judgment,[v]
Nor sinners[⊙] in the assembly[○] of righteous ones.[y]
[6] For Jehovah is taking knowledge of the way of righteous ones,[z]
But the very way of wicked ones will perish.[*]

2 Why have the nations[⊙] been in tumult[□]
And the peoples themselves kept muttering an empty thing?[△]

[a] Or, "(his) Christ." M, ma·shi'ahh; Sy, m'shi'hha; LXX, ho chris·tos'; Vg, chris'tus. [b] "Jehovah," Sy and many Hebrew manuscripts; LXX, ho ky'ri·os; Vg, Do'mi·nus; M, A·do·nay', this being one of the 134 passages where the Jewish Sopherim (scribes) substituted A·do·nay' for Yeho·wah' in the primitive Hebrew text. See Genesis 18:3, footnote a. [c] Or, literally, "mountain of my holiness," M. [d] "Break," M; "shepherd," LXX.

[11] Serve Jehovah with fear[⊜]

[a] "A dirge." M, *Shig.ga.yōn'; LXX*Vg, "A psalm." The word is of doubtful meaning and may denote a wild, passionate song with rapid changes of rhythm. If derived from the verb sha.ag', shig.ga-yōn' may mean a roaring cry from joy or in danger. In Habakkuk 3:1 it occurs in the plural number. [b] Literally, "Cush the son of Jem'i.ni." [c] "Soul." M, neph'esh; LXX, psy.chē'; Vg, a'ni.ma. [d] "For me," M; "O Jehovah my God," *LXX*Vg. [e] "National groups." M, le'um.mim'. Possibly this should read el.o.him', making the phrase read "let the very assembly of gods." Compare Psalm 82:1.

[a] That is, "the deepest emotions." [b] "O righteous God." M, El·o·him' tsad·diq', the title El·o·him' being in the plural number and the adjective tsad·diq' being in the singular. On this Gesenius-Kautzsch's Hebrew Grammar, 1949 edition, pages 398, 399, paragraph g, says: "The pluralis excellentiae or maiestatis, as has been remarked above, is properly a variety of the abstract plural, since it sums up the several characteristics belonging to the idea, besides possessing the secondary sense of an intensification of the original idea. It is thus closely related to the plurals of amplification, . . . which are mostly found in poetry. So especially El·o·him' Godhead, God (to be distinguished from the numerical plural gods, Exodus 12: 12, &c.). The supposition that El·o·him' is to be regarded as merely a remnant of earlier polytheistic views (that is, as originally only a numerical plural) is at least highly improbable, and, moreover, would not explain the analogous plurals. . . . That the language has entirely rejected the idea of numerical plurality in El·o·him' (whenever it denotes one God), is proved especially by its being almost invariably joined with a singular attribute . . . , for example, El·o·him' tsad·diq', Psalm 7: 10 [9, English], &c. Hence El·o·him' may have been used originally not only as a numerical but also as an abstract plural (corresponding to the Latin numen, and our Godhead), and, like other abstracts of the same kind, have been transferred to the concrete single god (even of the heathen)." [c] "God." M, El·o·him'. See verse 9, footnote b. [d] "God." M, El. [e] Or, "God is cursing (scolding)." *LXX*Vg, "he is not getting angry."

[a] "Mik'tam." The meaning of this Hebrew word is doubtful. It is now understood not to be derived from kheth'em, meaning "gold," or the verb kha·tham', meaning to "stain." A suggested meaning is "Psalm of expiation." [b] "God." M, El. [c] "I have said," according to some Hebrew manuscripts, *LXX*VgSy. But M reads, "You have said," addressed to something feminine. [d] "Jehovah." M, A·do·nay'. This is one of the 134 passages where the Jewish Sopherim altered the primitive Hebrew text to read A·do·nay' instead of Yᵉho·wah'. See Genesis 18 : 3, footnote a. [e] Or, by a correction of M: "Jehovah, you have appointed my share and my cup." [f] "My own possession," *LXX*VgSy.

[a] "Palate," by a reversal of two Hebrew letters in M. [b] Or, "jaws," M. [c] LXXVg, "They bored (dug through) my hands and (my) feet." M appears to read: "Like the lion—my hands and my feet." T reads: "Biting like a lion my hands and my feet." [d] "My only one," in the feminine gender and hence referring to "my soul."

22 I will declare your name[○][v] to my brothers;[⊙][y]
In the middle of the congregation[a] I shall praise you.[z]
23 YOU fearers of Jehovah,[b] praise him![*]
All YOU the seed of Jacob, glorify him![□]
And be frightened at him, all YOU seed of Israel.[△]
24 For he has neither despised[◊] Nor detested the affliction of the afflicted one,[+]
And he has not concealed his face from him,[⊕]
And when he cried to him for help he heard.[×] 25 Due to you my praise will be in the large congregation;[a][○][#]
My vows[⊙] I shall pay in front of those fearing him.[k]
26 The meek ones will eat and be satisfied;[n]
Those seeking him will praise Jehovah.[r]
May YOUR hearts[c] live forever.[s]
27 All the ends of the earth will remember and turn back to Jehovah.[t]
And all the families of the nations will bow down before you.[u]
28 For the kingship belongs to Jehovah[○][v]
And he is dominating the nations.[y]

[a] M, qa·hal′; LXXVg, "ec·cle′si·a." [b] "Jehovah." From a genizah at Cairo, Egypt, an extant relic of Aquila's Greek version of the Hebrew Scriptures contains the divine name (represented by the tetragrammaton) written, not in Greek letters, but in the old Hebrew letters 𐤉𐤄𐤅𐤄. See Aq under "Explanation of the Symbols Used in the Marginal References," page 6. See also the book "Hebrew-Greek Cairo Genizah Palimpsests from the Taylor-Schechter Collection including a Fragment of the Twenty-Second Psalm according to Origen's Hexapla," edited for the Syndics of the University Press by C. Taylor, D.D., Master of St. John's College, Cambridge, at the University Press, 1900. [c] Literally, "heart," M.

29 All the fat ones of the earth shall eat and will bow down;[z]
Before him all those going down to the dust will bend down,[*]
And no one will ever preserve his own soul[a] alive.[□]
30 A seed[b] itself will serve him;[△]
It will be declared concerning Jehovah[c] to the generation.[◊]
31 They will come and tell of his righteousness[+]
To the people that is to be born, that he[d]

A melody of David.

23 Jehovah is my Shepherd.[⊚][×]
I shall lack nothing.[#]
2 In grassy pastures he makes me lie down;[k]
By well-watered resting places he conducts me.[n]
3 My soul he refreshes.[r]
He leads me in the tracks of righteousness for his name's sake.[s] 4 Even though I walk in the valley of deep shadow,[e][t]
I fear[○] nothing bad,[u]
For you are with me;[v]
Your rod and your staff are the things that comfort me.[y]
5 You arrange before me a table[⊚] in front of those showing hostility to me.[z]

[a] "Soul." M, neph'esh. [b] Or, "offspring." [c] "Jehovah," Sy; A·do·nay', M. This is one of the 134 passages where the Jewish Sopherim changed the reading of the primitive Hebrew text from "Jehovah" to A·do·nay' ("the Sovereign Lord"). [d] "He," MT; "the Lord," LXX; "Jehovah," SyVg. [e] Or, "valley of death shadow," M.

My cup is well filled.[a][□] 6 Surely goodness and loving-kindness[b] themselves will pursue me all the days of my life,[⊚][△]

Of David. A melody.

24 To Jehovah belong the earth[⊚] and that which fills it,[*]
The productive land[d] and those dwelling in it.[⊕]
2 For upon the seas[○] he himself has solidly fixed it,[×]

established.[#]
3 Who may ascend into the mountain of Jehovah,[k]
And who may rise up in his holy place?[n] 4 Anyone innocent in his hands and clean in heart,[r]
Who has not carried My[f] soul[g] to sheer worthlessness,[s]
Nor taken an oath deceitfully.[t]
5 He will carry away blessing from Jehovah[u]

Of David.

28 To you, O Jehovah, I keep calling.[×]
O my Rock,[⊙] do not be deaf to me,[c#]
That you may not keep still toward me[k]
And I do not have to become like those going down to the pit.[n]

[a] "Soul." M, neph'esh; LXX, psy.chai'; Vg, a'ni.mae. [b] Or, "Surely I do have faith in seeing the goodness of Jehovah in the land of those alive." This agrees with *LXX*VgSy and five Hebrew manuscripts that omit the opening Hebrew word lu.lē'. This is one of the 15 Hebrew words or letters with the extraordinary points above or/and below them, to suggest that such word or letters should be left out. [c] Or, "do not turn from me in silence."

Pay back to them their own doing.[△]
[5] For they have no regard for the activities of Jehovah,[◊]

[a] "To his people," *LXX*VgSy and eight Hebrew manuscripts; "to them," M. [b] "Anointed one." M, ma.shi'ahh; Sy, m'shi'hha; LXX, chris.tos'; Vg, chris'tus. [c] LXX adds, "of the exodus (final) festival of the Tent"; Vg adds, "in the consummation (completion) of the tabernacle." [d] Or, "sons of gods"; or, "godlike ones"; or "sons of God." If the Hebrew word El.im' is the plural of majesty of El, then it means "God." T reads, "you bands of angels, the sons of God"; LXX, "you sons of God"; SyVg, "you sons of rams." Compare Psalm 89: 6, footnote e, and Daniel 11: 36, where the expression El el.im' ("God of gods") occurs.

[a] The expression "the voice" occurs seven times in this psalm. [b] "God." M, El. [c] "Sir′i·on." The old Si·do′ni·an name for Mount Her′mon. See Deuteronomy 3 : 9. [d] "Of unicorns," LXXVg, meaning "one-horned ones" literally, but referring to wild bulls. [e] Or, by a correction of M, "And it causes a hurried delivery by the mountain goats." [f] Or, "heavenly ocean." See Genesis 7 : 17, footnote e.

A melody. A song of inauguration of the house.[k]
Of David.

30 I shall exalt you,[n] O Jehovah, for you have drawn me up[r]
And you have not let my enemies rejoice over me.[s]
[2] O Jehovah my God, I cried to you for help and you proceeded to heal me.[t]
[3] O Jehovah, you have brought up my soul from She′ol[a] itself;[u]
You have kept me alive, that I should not go down into the pit.[v]
[4] Make melody to Jehovah, O YOU his men of loving-kindness,[y]
And laud his holy memorial.[bz]
[5] For being under his anger is for a moment,[*]
Being under his good will is for a lifetime.[□]
In the evening weeping may take up lodging,[△] but in the morning[○] there is a joyful cry.[◊]
[6] As for me, I have said in my ease:[+]
"Never shall I be made to totter."[⊖]
[7] O Jehovah, in your good will you have made my mountain to stand in strength.[×]
You concealed your face; I became one that is terrified.[#]
[8] To you, O Jehovah, I kept calling,[k]
And to Jehovah[c] I kept making entreaty for favor.[n]

[9] For with you is the source[a] of life;[×]
By light from you we can see light.[#]
[10] Continue your loving-kindness[b] to those knowing you,[k]
And your righteousness to those upright in heart.[n]
[11] O may not the foot of haughtiness come in to me;[r]
As for the hand of wicked people, let it not make me a wanderer.[s]
[12] There the practicers of hurtfulness have fallen;[t]
They have been pushed down and have been unable to get up.[u]

Of David.

13 "Look away from me, that I may brighten up[#]
"Before I go away and I am not."[k]

To the director. Of David, a melody.

40 I earnestly hoped in Jehovah,[n]
And he proceeded to incline [his ear] to me and to hear my cry for help.[r]
2 He also proceeded to bring me up out of a roaring pit,[s]

[c] With this the first of the five books of the Psalms ends, the thirteenth verse being a doxology or form of words ascribing praise to Jehovah God and corresponding to the doxology with which each of the other four books ends, namely, Psalms 72, 89, 106 and 150.

BOOK TWO

(Psalms 42 – 72)

To the director. Mas'kil[a] for the sons of Ko'rah.[×]

42 As the hind that longs for the water streams,
So my very soul longs for you, O God.[b#]
2 My soul indeed thirsts for God,[k] for the living God.[c○n]
When shall I come and appear [before][d] God?[r]
3 To me my tears have become food day and night,[s]
While [they][e] say to me all day long: "Where is your God?"[t]
4 These things I will remember, and I will pour out my soul within me.[u]
For I used to pass along with the throng,[v]
I used to walk slowly before them to the house of God,[fy]
With the voice of a joyful cry and thanksgiving,[z]
Of a crowd celebrating a festival.[*]
5 Why are you in despair, O my soul,[□]
And why are you boisterous within me?[△]
Wait for God,[f◊]

[a] See the superscription of Psalm 32, footnote a. [b] "O God," M*L*XXVg; "O Jehovah," SyT. On the word "God" here Professor E. Kautzsch in the footnotes of his German translation says: "Once for all time it may be observed here, that in the entire second Book (as, for instance, also Psalm 53 in contrast with Psalm 14) and down to Psalm 83 also in the third Book the divine name Jahwe has practically all the way through been altered by the hand of an editor to Elohim (God), although thereby many disturbing repetitions (as, for instance, here in 42,3) and unusual word combinations arise." See Gesenius' Hebrew Grammar (1949 ed.) § 131s. [c] "God." M, El. [d] "Appear [before]," M*L*XXVg; "see [the face of]," SyT. [e] "They," Sy and four Hebrew manuscripts. [f] "God." From the little mountain.[ek]
7 Surging waters to surging waters[f] are calling[n]

[a] "Grand salvation." See Psalm 42:5, footnote a.

10 You keep making us turn back from the adversary,[y]
And the very ones intensely hating us have pillaged for themselves.[z]
11 You give us up like sheep, as something to eat,[*]
And among the nations you have scattered us.[□]
12 You sell your people for no value at all,[△]
And you have made no wealth by the price for them.[◇]
13 You set us as a reproach to our neighbors,[+]
A derision and jeering to those all around us.[⊕]
14 You set us as a proverbial saying among the nations,[×]
A shaking of the head among the national groups.[#]
15 All day long my humiliation is in front of me,[k]
And the shame of my own face has covered me,[n]
16 Due to the voice of the one reproaching and speaking abusively,[r]
Because of the enemy and the one taking his revenge.[s]
17 All this itself has come upon us and we have not forgotten you,
And we have not acted falsely in your covenant.
18 Our heart has not turned faithlessly back,[v]
Nor do our footsteps deviate from your path.[y]
19 For you have crushed us in the place of jackals,[z]
And you cover us over with deep shadow.[*]

[a] On verses 4, 5 note the following report: "Dr. David I. Macht, research pharmacologist of the Mount Sinai Hospital in Baltimore, is one of the world's leading authorities on cobra snake venom. (Cobra venom is an accepted medication, in blood disorders, for instance.) Dr. Macht reported that in working with cobras and cobra venom he became acquainted with a number of Hindu physicians, well educated, and from different parts of India. All agreed that cobras respond to some musical tones, from musical pipes or fifes. Some forms of music excite the animals more than other forms, the physicians reported. Indian children, playing in the dark in the countryside, are even warned not to sing lest their sounds attract cobras, he said. Dr. Macht commented that Shakespeare, who repeatedly referred to serpents as deaf . . . merely repeated a common misunderstanding. On the other hand Dr. Macht said, the psalmist was right who implied conversely, in Psalm 58, Verse 5, that serpents can hear: . . . Contrary to the claims of some naturalists, Dr. Macht said, snakes are 'charmed' by sounds, not by movements of the charmer. Revise the textbooks, the physicians recommended."—New York Times, January 10, 1954, Sec. 4, page 9, under "Are Snakes 'Charmed' by Music?" [b] Or, "leaving a slimy track."

[a] "Sovereign Lord Jehovah." M, A·do·nay′ Yᵉho·wih′. See Psalm 68:20, footnote h. Compare Genesis 15:2, footnotes e, f.

13 But as for me, my prayer was to you, O Jehovah,[y]
At an acceptable time, O God.[z]
In the abundance of your loving-kindness[a] answer me with the truth of salvation by you.[*] 14 Deliver me from the mire, that I may not sink down.[□]
O may I be delivered from those hating me[△] and from the deep waters.[◊]
15 O may not the flowing stream of waters wash me away,[+]
Nor the abyss swallow me up,[⊕]
Nor the well close its mouth over me.[×]
16 Answer me, O Jehovah, for your loving-kindness[a] is good.[#]
According to the multitude of your mercies turn to me,[k]
17 And do not conceal your face from your servant.[n]
Because I am in sore straits, answer me quickly.[r]
18 Do come near to my soul, reclaim it;[s]
On account of my enemies redeem me.[t]
19 You yourself have come to know my reproach and my shame and my humiliation.[u]
All those showing hostility to me are in front of you.[v]
20 Reproach itself has broken my heart and [the wound] is incurable.[y]
And I kept hoping for someone to sympathize but there was none,[z]
And for comforters but I found none.[*]

BOOK THREE

(Psalms 73 – 89)

A melody of A′saph.[m]

73 God is indeed good to Israel, to those clean in heart.[*]
2 As for me, my feet had almost turned aside,[□]
My steps had nearly been made to slip.[b][△]
3 For I became envious of the boasters,
[When] I would see the very peace of wicked people.[+]
4 For they have no deathly pangs;[⊕]
And their paunch is fat.[×]
5 They are not even in the trouble of mortal man,[c][#]
And they are not plagued the same as other men.[d]
6 Therefore haughtiness has served as a necklace to them;[k]
Violence envelops them as a garment.[n]
7 Their eye has bulged from fatness;[r]
They have exceeded the imaginations of the heart.[s]
8 They scoff and speak about what is bad;[t]
About defrauding they speak in an elevated style.[u]
9 They have put their mouth in the very heavens,[v]

Our hidden things before your bright face.[d][◊]
9 For all our days have come to their decline in your fury;[+]
We have finished our years just like a whisper.[⊕]
10 In themselves the days of our years are seventy years,[×]
And if because of special mightiness they are eighty years,[#]
Yet their insistence is on trouble and hurtful things,[k]
For it must quickly pass by and away we fly.[n]
11 Who is there knowing the strength of your anger[r]
And your fury according to the fear of you?[s]

[a] In the Hebrew text this line of verse 11 is made up of just four Hebrew words, the first letters of which four words, when read from right to left, form an acrostic to give us the four letters of the sacred tetragrammaton, which stands for God's exclusive name, namely, יהוה (YHWH). Transliterated the line reads: Yismᵉhhu′ Hash-shama′yim Wᵉthagēl′ Ha-a′rets. The Hebrew Masora or collection of critical notes contains a particular notice to keep us from overlooking this tetragrammaton acrostic. [b] See Psalm 96 : 7, footnote d. [c] See Psalm 96 : 10, footnote g. [d] Or, "coastlands." [e] "The Lord." M, A·dōn′.

99 Jehovah himself has become king.[◊] Let the peoples be agitated.[+]
He is sitting upon the cherubs.[○⊕] Let the earth quiver.[×]
2 Jehovah is great in Zion[#]
And he is high over all the peoples.[k]
3 Let them laud your name.[n]
Great and fear-inspiring, holy it is.[r]
4 And with the strength of a king judgment he has loved.[s]
You yourself have firmly established uprightness.[t]
Judgment[⊙] and righteousness in Jacob are what you yourself have effected.[u]
5 Exalt Jehovah our God[v] and bow down yourselves at his footstool;[y]
He is holy.[z]
6 Moses[○] and Aaron were among his priests,[*]
And Samuel was among those calling upon his name.[□]
They were calling to Jehovah, and he himself kept answering them.[Δ]
7 In the pillar of cloud he kept speaking to them.[◊]
They kept his reminders and the regulation that he gave to them.[+]
8 O Jehovah our God, you yourself answered them.[⊕]
A God[a] granting pardon you proved to be to them,[×]
And executing vengeance against their notorious deeds.[#]
9 Exalt Jehovah our God[k]
And bow down yourselves at his holy mountain.[n]
For Jehovah our God is holy.[r]

[a] "God." M, El.

A melody of thanksgiving.

100 Shout in triumph to Jehovah, all [YOU people of] the earth.[a][*]
2 Serve[b] Jehovah with rejoicing.[□]
Come in before him with a joyful cry.[△]
3 Know that Jehovah is God.[c][◊]
It is he that has made us, and not we ourselves.[d][+]
[We are] his people and the sheep of his pasturage.[⊕]
4 Come into his gates with thanksgiving,[×]
Into his courtyards with praise.[#]
Laud[e] him, bless his name.[k]
5 For Jehovah is good,[n]
His loving-kindness[f] is to time indefinite[r]
And his faithfulness to generation after generation.[g][s]

Of David. A melody.

101 About loving-kindness[f] and judgment
I will sing.[t]
To you, O Jehovah, I will make melody.[u]
2 I will act with discretion in an integrity-keeping way.[h][v]
When will you come to me?[y]
I shall walk about in the integrity of my heart inside my house.[z]
3 I shall not set in front of my eyes any good-for-nothing thing.[i][*]

[a] See Psalm 66:1, footnote a; Psalm 96:1, footnote f. [b] Or, "worship." [c] "God." MT, El·o·him′; LXX, ho The·os′; Sy, "our God." [d] "And not we ourselves," M*LXX*VgSy; "and we are his," TAq and many Hebrew manuscripts and the marginal reading of M. [e] Or, "Thank." [f] Or, "loyal love." [g] Or, "to all generations." [h] Or, "in a faultless way." [i] Literally, "a thing of Be′li·al [or, worthlessness]."

The doing of those who fall away I have hated;[□]
It does not cling to me.[△]
4 A crooked heart departs from me;[◊]
Nothing bad do I know.[+]
5 Anyone slandering his companion in secrecy,[⊕]
Him I silence.[×]
Anyone haughty and arrogant,[a][#]
Him I cannot endure.
6 My eyes are upon the faithful ones of the earth,[k]
That they may dwell with me.
The one walking in an integrity-keeping way,[b][n]
He it is who will minister to me.[r]
7 There will dwell inside my house no worker of trickiness.[s]
As for anyone speaking falsehoods, he will not be firmly established[t]
In front of my eyes.
8 Every morning[c] I shall silence all the wicked ones of the earth,[u]
To cut off from the city of Jehovah all the practicers of what is hurtful.[v]

A prayer of the afflicted in case he grows feeble and pours out his concern before Jehovah himself.

102 O Jehovah, do hear my prayer[y]
And to you may my own cry for help come.[z]
2 Do not conceal your face from me on the day that I am in sore straits.[*]
Incline to me your ear;[□]
On the day that I call, hurry, answer me.[△]

Ps 78:29

[a] Or, "loyal love." [b] "The surging waters." M, tᵉho·mōth', the plural number of tᵉhōm, the word found in Genesis 1:2, where see footnote c. LXXVg, "abyss(es)." [c] "God." M, El.

And to send a wasting disease[a] into their soul.[b][k]
[16] And they began to envy Moses[◎] in the camp,[n]
Even Aaron the holy one of Jehovah.[r]
[17] The earth proceeded to open up and swallow down Da'than
And to cover over the assembly of A·bi'ram.[s] [18] And a fire went burning among their assembly,
A flame itself went devouring the wicked ones.[t]
[19] They turned to making a calf[○] in Ho'reb[◎][u]
And to bowing down to a molten image,[v]
[20] And they were exchanging my glory[c][y]
For a representation[○] of a bull, an eater of vegetation.[z]
[21] They forgot God[d] their Savior,[•]
The Doer of great things in Egypt,[□]
[22] Wonderful works in the land of Ham,[◎][△]
Fear-inspiring things at the Red Sea.[◇]
[23] And he was about to say to annihilate them,[+]
If it had not been for Moses his chosen one,[⊕]
Who stood in the gap before him,[×]
To turn back his rage from bringing [them] to ruin.
[24] And they got to contemning the desirable land;[#]
They had no faith[○] in his word.[k]
[25] And they kept grumbling in their tents;[n]
They did not listen to the voice of Jehovah.[◎][r]

[a] Or, "emaciation." M, ra·zōn'; *LXX*Vg, "satiety (surfeit)"; T, "leanness." [b] "Soul." M, neph'esh; Vg, a'ni·mae; LXX, psy·chai'. [c] "My glory." M, "their glory." In the official listing this is one of the Eighteen Emendations of the Sopherim, who changed the reading because the expression "my glory" was thought derogatory to God. Some manuscripts of LXX and Vg read "his glory." See Genesis 18:22, footnote a. [d] "God." M, El.

[26] So he proceeded to raise his hand [in an oath] concerning them,[s]
That he would make them fall in the wilderness,[t] [27] And that he would make their offspring fall among the nations
And that he would scatter them among the lands.[v]
[28] And they began to attach themselves to Ba'al of Pe'or[y]
And to eat the sacrifices of the dead ones.[z]
[29] As they were causing offense by their dealings,[•]
A scourge now broke out among them.[□]
[30] When Phin'e·has stood up and intervened,[△]
Then the scourge was halted.
[31] And it came to be counted to him as righteousness[◇]

[32] Further they caused provocation at the waters of Mer'i·bah,[⊕]
So that it went badly with Moses by reason of them.[×]
[33] For they embittered his spirit[a][m]
And he began to speak rashly with his lips.[#]
[34] They did not annihilate the peoples,[k]

BOOK FIVE

(Psalms 107 – 150)

107 O LAUD[a] Jehovah, for he is good;[⊕]
For his loving-kindness[d] is to time indefinite.[×]
2 Let the reclaimed ones of Jehovah say so,[#] Whom he has reclaimed from the hand of the adversary,[k]
3 And whom he has collected together even from the lands,[n]
From the sunrise and from the sunset,[r]
From the north and from the south.[es]
4 They wandered about in the wilderness, in the desert;[t]
They did not find any way to a city of habitation.[◎u]
5 They were hungry, also thirsty;[v]
Their very soul within them began to faint away.[y]
6 And they kept crying out to Jehovah in their distress;[z]
Out of the stresses upon them he proceeded to deliver them,[*]
7 And to have them walk in the right way,[□]
So as to come to a city of habitation.[△]

[8] O let people laud Jehovah for his loving-kindness[a][◊]
And for his wonderful works to the sons of men.[b][+]
[9] For he has satisfied the dried-out soul,[○][⊕]
And the hungry soul he has filled with good things.[×]
[10] There were those dwelling in darkness and deep shadow,[#] Prisoners in affliction and irons.[⊙][k]
[11] For they had behaved rebelliously[○] against the sayings of God,[c][n]
And the counsel of the Most High they had disrespected.[r] [12] And he proceeded to subdue their heart with trouble itself;[s]
They stumbled and there was no one helping.[t]
[13] And they began calling to Jehovah for help in their distress;[u]
Out of the stresses upon them he as usual saved them.[v]
[14] He went bringing them out from darkness[⊙] and deep shadow,[y]
And tearing even their bands apart.[z]
[15] O let people laud Jehovah for his loving-kindness[a][*]

[a] In the margin in front of this verse (40) and also in front of verses 21-26 in R. Kittel's edition of M, but in front of verses 23-28 in C. D. Ginsburg's edition, there are inverted Hebrew nun (N) letters, called nun mᵉnuz·za·rōth′ or separated nuns. According to Ginsburg's Introduction to the Massoretico-Critical Edition of the Hebrew Bible (1897), pages 341-345, "They are simply intended to take the place of our modern brackets to mark that the passages thus bracketed are transposed." Krauss in Zeitschrift fuer die alttestamentliche Wissenschaft (1902), pages 57 ff, regards the inverted nun or nun haphukha′ as an imitation of the Greek obelus (—) (÷), the spit or dagger sign. [b] Or, "puts on high," that is, out of reach. [c] Or, "loyal love."

O God of my praise,[○] do not keep silent.[×]
2 For the mouth of the wicked one and the mouth of deception have opened against me.[#]
They have spoken about me with the tongue of falsehood,[k]
3 And with words of hatred they have surrounded me,[n]
And they keep fighting against me without cause.[r]
4 For my love they keep resisting me,[s]
But on my part there is prayer.[t]
5 And they render to me bad for good[u]
And hatred for my love.[v]
6 Appoint over him someone wicked,[y]
And may a resister[a][z] himself keep standing at his right hand.
7 When he is judged let him go forth as someone wicked[*]
And let his very prayer become a sin.[□]
8 Let his days prove to be few;[Δ]
His office of oversight let someone else take.[◊] 9 Let his sons become fatherless[⊙] boys[+]
And his wife[○] be a widow.[⊖]
10 And without fail let his sons go wandering about,[×]
And they must do begging[#]
And they must look for [food] from their desolate places.[k]

When Israel went forth from Egypt,[br]
The house of Jacob from a people speaking unintelligibly,[s]
[2] Judah became his sanctuary,[t]
Israel his grand dominion.[u]
[3] The sea itself saw and took to flight;[v]
As for the Jordan,[○] it began to turn back.[y]
[4] The mountains[p] themselves skipped about like rams,[⊙z]
The hills[p] like lambs.[c*]
[5] What was the matter with you, O sea, that you took to flight,[□]

[a] See Psalm 104: 35, footnotes a, b. [b] Appropriately Psalms 113 and 114 were sung early in the Passover meal as part of the six Hallel Psalms, which were sung after the second and fourth cups of wine drunk at the meal. Psalms 115-118, which constituted the rest of the Hallel Psalms, were sung after the Passover meal, as doubtless in the case of Jesus and his disciples.—Matthew 26: 30. [c] Literally, "sons of sheep [or, of the flock]," M.

O Jordan, that you began to turn back?[△] 6 O mountains, that you went skipping about like rams;[◇]
O hills, like lambs?[a+] 7 Because of the Lord[b] be in severe pains, O earth,[⊕]
Because of the God[c○] of Jacob,[×] 8 Who is changing the rock into a reedy pool of water,[#]
A flinty rock into a spring of water.[k]

115 [d] To us belongs nothing, O Jehovah, to us belongs nothing,[n]
But to your name give glory[r]
According to your loving-kindness,[e] according to your trueness.[fs]
2 Why should the nations say:[t]
"Where, now, is their God?"[u]
3 But our God is in the heavens;[v] Everything in which he took a delight he has done.[y]
4 Their idols are silver[⊙] and gold,[z]
The work of the hands of earthling man.[g○*]
5 A mouth they have, but they cannot speak;[□]
Eyes they have, but they cannot see;[△]
6 Ears they have, but they cannot hear.[◇]
A nose they have, but they cannot smell.[+]
7 Hands are theirs, but they cannot feel.[⊕] Feet are theirs, but they cannot walk;[×]
They utter no sound with their throat.[#] 8 Those making them will become just like them,[k]

All those who are trusting in them.[n]
9 O Israel, trust in Jehovah;[r]
He is their help and their shield.[s]
10 O house of Aaron, put YOUR trust in Jehovah;[t]
He is their help and their shield.[u]
11 YOU that fear Jehovah, trust in Jehovah;[v]
He is their help and their shield.[y] 12 Jehovah himself has remembered us; he will bless,[z]
He will bless the house of Israel,[*]
He will bless the house of Aaron.[□]
13 He will bless those fearing Jehovah,[△]
The small ones as well as the great ones.[◇]
14 Jehovah will give increase to YOU,[+]

15 YOU are the ones blessed by Jehovah,[×]
The Maker of heaven and earth.[#]
16 As regards the heavens, to Jehovah the heavens belong,[k]
But the earth he has given to the sons of men.[an]
17 The dead[⊙] themselves do not praise Jah,[br]
Nor do any going down into silence.[s]
18 But we ourselves[c] will bless Jah[dt]
From now on and to time indefinite.[u]
Praise Jah, YOU people![ev]

116 I do love, because Jehovah hears[fy]
My voice, my entreaties.[gz]
2 For he has inclined his ear to me,[*]
And throughout my days I shall call.[□]

[a] In this fifteenth section each verse begins with the fifteenth letter of the Hebrew alphabet, samekh, or the English "s." [b] Or, "double-minded."

118 You have tossed away all those straying from your regulations,[△]
For their trickiness is falsehood.[◊]
119 As scummy dross you have made all the wicked ones of the earth to cease.[+]
Therefore I have loved your reminders.[⊕]
120 From the dread of you my flesh has had a creepy feeling,[×]
And because of your judicial decisions I have been afraid.[#]

ע [Ayin][a]

121 I have executed judgment[b] and righteousness.[k]
O do not abandon me to those defrauding me.[n]
122 Give your servant a pledge for what is good.[r]
May the presumptuous ones not defraud me.[s] 123 My very eyes have pined away for your salvation[t]
And for your righteous saying.
124 Do with your servant according to your loving-kindness,[c][u]
And teach me your own regulations.[v] 125 I am your servant. Make me understand,[y]
That I may know your reminders.[z]
126 It is the time for Jehovah to act.[*]
They have broken your law.[□]

[a] In this sixteenth section each verse begins with the sixteenth letter of the Hebrew alphabet, ʽayin, a peculiar guttural sound pronounced today by the Sepharaddi Jews as a "g" slightly rattled in the throat. Some Ashkenazzi Jews pronounce it like the nasal ng (as in "so*ng*"). But the greatest majority of the Ashkenazzim do not pronounce it any more than they do the first letter, aleph. [b] Or, "judicial decision." [c] Or, "loyal love."

More than gold,[○] even refined gold.[◊]
128 That is why I have considered all orders regarding all things to be right;[*]
Every false path I have hated.[⊕]

129 Your reminders are wonderful.[x]
That is why my soul has observed them.[#]
130 The very disclosure of your words gives light,[k]
Making the inexperienced ones understand.[n]
131 My mouth I have opened wide, that I may pant,[r]
Because for your commandments I have longed.[s]
132 Turn to me and show me favor,[t]
According to [your] judicial decision[b] toward those loving your name.[u]
133 Fix my own steps solidly in your saying,[v]
And may no kind of hurtful thing domineer over me.[y]
134 Redeem me from any defrauder of mankind,[c][z]
And I will keep your orders.[*]

125 Those trusting in Jehovah[⊕] Are like Mount Zion, which cannot be made to totter, but dwells even to time indefinite.[×]
[2] Jerusalem—as mountains are all around it,[#]
So Jehovah is all around his people[k]
From now on and to time indefinite.
[3] For the scepter of wickedness will not keep resting[n]
Upon the lot of the righteous ones,[r]
In order that the righteous ones may not thrust out
Their hand upon any unrighteousness.[s]
[4] O do good, O Jehovah, to the good ones,[t]
Even to the ones upright in their hearts.[u]
[5] As for those turning aside to their crooked ways,[v]
Jehovah will make them go away with the practicers of what is hurtful.[y]
There will be peace upon Israel.[z]

A Song of the Ascents.[a] 126 When Jehovah returned with the captive ones[b] of Zion,[*]

We became like those who were dreaming.[⊙□] [2] At that time our mouth came to be filled with laughter,[△]
And our tongue with a joyful cry.[◊]
At that time they proceeded to say among the nations:[+] “Jehovah has done a great thing in what he has done with them.”[c⊕] [3] Jehovah has done a great thing in what he has done with us.[×]
We have become joyful.[#] [4] Do return, O Jehovah, with our company of captives,[dk]
Like stream beds in the Neg′eb.[en]
[5] Those sowing seed with tears[r]
Will reap even with a joyful cry.[s] [6] The one that without fail goes forth, even weeping,[t]
Carrying along a bagful of seed,[u]
Will without fail come in with a joyful cry,[v]
Carrying along his sheaves.[y]

A Song of the Ascents.[a] Of Solomon.

127 Unless Jehovah himself builds the house,[○z]
It is to no avail that its builders have labored on it.[*]
Unless Jehovah himself guards the city,[□]

[a] Or, "Stairsteps." This is the last of the fifteen Songs of the Ascents, which began with Psalm 120.
[b] "You." In the singular number.
[c] See Psalm 104: 35, footnotes a, b.
[d] See Psalm 68: 4, footnote a.
[e] "Lord." M, A·do·nim′; the plural number of A·dōn′, to denote excellency or grandeur.
[f] "Gods." MT, el·o·him′; LXX, hoi the·oi′; Vg, di′i.
[g] "Surging waters." M, t^{e}*ho·mōth′; LXX*Vg, "abysses." See Psalm 33: 7, footnote d.

He has made even sluices[a] for the rain;[⊙z]
He is bringing forth the wind[b] from his storehouses,[*]
8 He who struck down the first-born ones of Egypt,[□]
Both man[c] and beast.[△]
9 He sent signs and tokens into the midst of you, O Egypt,[◊]
Upon Phar′aoh[○] and upon all his servants,[+]
10 He who struck down many nations[⊙⊕]
And killed[○] potent kings,[×]
11 Even Si′hon the king of the Am′or·ites[#]

12 And who gave their land as a possession,[r]
A possession to Israel his people.[s]
13 O Jehovah, your name is to time indefinite.[t] O Jehovah, your memorial is to generation after generation.[du] 14 For Jehovah will plead the cause of his people,[v]
And he will feel sorry even for his servants.[y]
15 The idols of the nations are silver and gold,[z]
The work of the hands of earthling man.[e*]
16 A mouth they have, but they can speak nothing;[□]

Of David.

138 I shall laud you with all my heart.[⊕]
In front of other gods[a] I shall make melody to you.[×]
[2] I shall bow down toward your holy temple[#]
And I shall laud your name,[k]
Because of your loving-kindness[bn] and because of your trueness.[cr]
For you have magnified your saying even above all your name.[s] [3] On the day that I called, then you proceeded to answer me;[t]
You began to make me bold in my soul with strength.[u]
[4] All the kings of the earth will laud you, O
Jehovah,[v]
For they will have heard the sayings of your mouth.[y]
[5] And they will sing about the ways of Jehovah,[z]
For the glory of Jehovah[○] is great.[*] [6] For Jehovah is high, and yet the humble one he sees;[□]
But the lofty one he knows only from a distance.[△]
[7] If I should walk in the midst of distress, you will preserve me alive.[◊]
Because of[d] the anger of my enemies you will thrust out your hand,[+]
And your right[⊙] hand will save me.[⊕] [8] Jehovah himself will complete what is in my behalf.[×]

For the director. Of David. A melody.

139 O Jehovah, you have searched through me and you know [me].[n]
2 You yourself have come to know my sitting down and my rising up.[r]
You have considered my thought from far off.[s]
3 My journeying and my lying outstretched you have measured off,[t]
And you have become familiar even with all my ways.[u]
4 For there is not a word on my tongue,[v]
But here, O Jehovah, you already know it all.[y]
5 Behind and before you have besieged me,[z]
And you place your hand upon me.[*]
6 [Such] knowledge[○] is too wonderful for me.[□]
It is so inaccessible that I cannot attain to it.[△]
7 Where can I go from your spirit,[a][◊]
And where can I run away from your face?[+] 8 If I should ascend to heaven, there you would be;[⊖]
And if I should spread out my couch in She′ol,[b][⊙] look! you [would be there].[×] 9 Should I take the wings[#] of the dawn,
That I might reside in the most remote sea,[○][k]
10 There, also, your own hand would lead me[n]
And your right hand would lay hold of me.[r]
11 And were I to say: "Surely darkness itself will hastily seize me!"[s]
Then night[⊙] would be light about me.[t]
12 Even the darkness itself would not prove too dark for you,[u]

141 O Jehovah, I have called upon you.

Do give ear to my voice when I call to you.[#]
[2] May my prayer be prepared as incense[○] before you,[k]
